Will Rogers Remarks:

CAMP RICHARDSON, Sept. 8.—[To the Editor of The Times:] Other nations' troubles are not gloated over by us, but it does seem good to be able to read of the revolutions in Argentina and Peru and not read where "American marines have landed and have the situation well in hand." If Mr. Hoover does nothing else but keep our Army and Navy at home we can forgive him for not giving us rain, lower taxes and an inflated stock market. Won't it be wonderful if we ever live to see the day when any country can have its own revolution, and even a private and congenial war with a neighboring nation, without uninvited guests.

Yours,
WILL ROGERS.

BRIAND PLAN ADVANCED

Federation Idea Before League

Twenty-seven Countries at Geneva Meeting Approve it in Principle

Whole Matter to be Taken Up by Assembly for Definite Action

GENEVA, Sept. 8. (AP)—Aristide Briand's plan for a European federation went definitely into the state of public discussion today following upon the first session of the League of Nations Council.

Without a dissenting voice, but after a long and warm discussion of methods, representative of twenty-seven European states decided to submit the plan to the League of Nations Assembly, bearing their adhesion in principle. They adopted a resolution to that effect and asked M. Briand to place the whole matter before the League.

BRIAND TO TALK

That means that before the close of the present Assembly session the French Foreign Minister will explain in public the extent of the organization he deems necessary for real collaboration of European powers in both the political and economic field.

The meeting of the European conference followed upon a brief

AMERICANS FIGHT REDS

Gunboat Fired on by Chinese

Warship Patrolling Yangtze Drives Off Attackers in Sharp Clash

British Craft Takes Heavy Toll in Like Battle Near Shasi

HANKOW (China) Sept. 8. (AP)—Two foreign gunboats were attacked by Reds on the Yangtze River today, but neither suffered any casualties. Both warships returned the fire of Communist raiders, however, inflicting heavy damage.

The American gunboat Tutuila, patrolling the Yangtze near Yochow, Hunan Province, was fired upon by a band of roving Communists, who used machine guns and trench mortars. The Tutuila, replying with machine guns and three-inch rifles, quickly silenced the Reds, destroying their mortars and dislodging them from their position along the river bank.

HEAVY TOLL TAKEN

The British gunboat Ladybird was attacked by the Communist raider Shasi near the city of Shasi, Hupeh Province. The Ladybird shelled the Red ship with six-inch guns, exacting a heavy toll. The British ship also raked the shore with three-inch rifles and machine guns.

Naval advices stated the Ladybird forced the Reds to abandon positions outside Shasi, thereby preventing them from re-entering the city, a portion of which they burned and looted last Friday.

VILLAGES PILLAGED

Dispatches described the Ladybird's attack as the "heaviest against Chinese outlaws in recent years."

Authorities here expected serious trouble from a band of 6000 former government troops who declared their independence and were reported pillaging and burning villages near Ichang, Hupeh Province.

The soldiers killed many villagers and many bodies were observed floating on the Yangtze. The commanding officer of the revolting troops was held prisoner by Nationalist authorities at Ichang.

REBELS EVICT THOUSANDS FROM BESIEGED CITY

SHANGHAI, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) More than 40,000 men, women and children out of a total population of 60,000 were evicted from Nanning, capital of Kwangsi Province, on Friday and Saturday as a means of conserving the diminishing food supply occasioned by the long siege of the city by government troops.

Nanning is defended by a Kwangsi rebel force numbering about 3000, which is putting up stubborn resistance.

More than 200 wealthy Chinese residents who had taken refuge in the compound of the Standard Oil Company were robbed, the women being stripped of their jewelry and brutally treated. Chinese government airplanes from Canton are daily bombing rebel positions within Nanning, and have caused havoc both with the military and the civilians. Foreign missionaries are planning to evacuate.

AMERICANS FLEE SHASI AS IT FALLS TO REDS

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—The State Department was informed today that Communists had captured the city of Shasi in Hupeh Province where several Americans are known to reside.

The American Consul-General at Hankow cabled that the Hankow Public Safety Bureau had reported Shasi fell to the "Communist armies" on the night of the 5th inst. Four American citizens, whose names could not be obtained, were said to have taken refuge on Japanese vessels.

The department also received a report an air-mail aviator had seen an unidentified Chinese city in flames. He described the place as halfway between Hwangshinkong and Wusueh and said he saw several bodies lying in the street.

Bullfight Has Unique Fatality

MADRID, Sept. 8. (AP)—A spectator and a bull were killed by the same sword a few seconds apart at a bullfight today.

After the matador stabbed the bull fatally the infuriated animal made a desperate thrust with its horns and hurled the sword over a wall. The falling weapon killed a man who had been watching the sport.

Manolo Martinez, the matador, was arrested by order of the Provincial Governor, who ordered an immediate trial.

New York Gas Prices Slashed

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Gasoline prices were slashed in a large part of the metropolitan area today to 16.3 cents a gallon, including the 2-cent tax.

Standard Oil of New York initiated the cut. The Texas Company, Shell Eastern Petroleum Products, Tidewater Oil Company, Sinclair Oil Corporation and Cities Service met the reduction.

Officials say the cut was forced by small companies which were charging less than the large ones.

SHOWERS FALL IN NORTH

Rain Extends from Bay Region to Oregon Line; Prune Crop Undamaged

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Northern and Central California received a taste of forthcoming seasonal precipitation today in showers which fell from the bay to the Oregon line, some of them brisk in character. At Dunsmuir there was a light flurry of snow.

Reports to the Pacific Gas and Electric Company told of heavy rains in the Pit River country but no figures were supplied. Redding, where the government has no station, reported a quarter of an inch and Castella advised of an all-night rainfall.

Prune harvesting was halted at Anderson. This was about the only crop subject to damage and the Weather Bureau said advance warnings had been sent in time for the growers to cover their trays.

Although no rain fell within San Francisco, moisture was reported in the north bay area and a shower wet streets in Petaluma.

According to Forecaster Bowie, the rain is not unseasonably early and another hiatus is in prospect, tomorrow's forecast being for fair and mild weather except on extreme north coast of California.

Rainfall reported by official northern stations at 5 p.m. was:

OFFICERS WILL SHIFT NAVY DUTY

Rear-Admiral Halligan Named as Assistant to Chief of Operations

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Rear-Admiral John Halligan, Jr., in command of aircraft squadrons, scouting fleet, has received orders, published today, detaching him from that command and ordering him to duty as assistant to the Chief of Naval Operations.

Rear-Admiral Halligan has been in command of the aircraft squadrons since April, 1929. He will succeed Rear-Admiral William H. Standley, U.S.N., about the 25th inst. Admiral Standley has been ordered to command the destroyer squadron, battle fleet.

Admiral Halligan was born in South Boston, Mass., May 4, 1874 and was appointed a naval cadet from Massachusetts in 1894. He stood at the head of his class, which graduated in 1898. During the Spanish-American War he was attached to the Brooklyn and was on board that vessel during the battle of Santiago, July 3, 1898. For his service he was awarded the Special Merit Medal.

During the World War he served as aide on the staff of the commander of the patrol force, Atlantic Fleet, and later as chief of staff to the commander of the United States naval forces in France. For his service he was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross.

In November, 1920, he was assigned to duty in charge of the naval engineering experimental station, Annapolis, Md.

Two Lawmakers Have Fist Fight

OTTAWA, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Gen. Joffre's Health Worries Friends

PARIS, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Gen. Joseph Joffre is failing in health so persistently that his friends are worried.

Realization of the situation came today when Capt. Bordier, chief of staff at the Invalides, announced that the marshal is physically unable to accept the gavel the Gold Star Mothers brought from America to present to him, and Gen. Gouraud must receive it in his behalf tomorrow.

Oakland Man Dies in Blast

OAKLAND, Sept. 8. (AP)—T. M. Peterson, 55 years of age, was killed today when blown through a brick wall by an explosion in an East Fourteenth-street creamery where he was employed. Police expressed the belief Peterson was lighting a gas furnace when the blast occurred. The explosion was heard blocks away and shook buildings near by.

WOMAN KILLED IN OAKLAND HOTEL FIRE

OAKLAND, Sept. 8. (AP)—One woman was killed and $75,000 damage was done by fire at the Key Route Inn, famed Oakland hostelry, today. The woman, whose identity could not be learned, was killed when struck by the automobile of a battalion fire chief near the hotel.

LEAD WAITS FOR FASCIST OPPONENTS

Official Bulletin Warns More Alien Enemies May Face Firing Squad

ROME, Sept. 8. (AP)—A Fascist order sheet was issued today under the heading of "Justice and Lead." The order said there remained at liberty a number of persons connected with the crimes for which four Jugo-Slavs were executed by a firing squad at Trieste Saturday and have "bullets awaiting them."

"The Fascist revolution," the order read, "has decided to defend itself within and outside of our frontiers. Additional lead is held in reserve for other backs. There are some who have merited it for some time. They shall have it."

The order sheet announces silver and bronze medals given to Fascists who exchanged shots with two Jugo-Slavs recently attempting to cross the frontier when one Jugo-Slav and one Fascist were killed.

Baby Prince of Belgians Given Seventh Name

BRUSSELS, Sept. 8. (AP)—The infant Prince Baudouin, son of Crown Prince Leopold and the Princess Astrid, today received a seventh name, only six having been allotted him after his birth yesterday.

His full name now reads Baudouin Albert Charles Leopold Axel Marie Gustave. Some surprise was expressed when "Leopold," the name of the founder of the Belgian dynasty, was left out of the little Prince's original list. After reports to this effect reached his parents the extra name was quickly added.

The little Prince and his mother continued satisfactory progress today.

Pair Drowned as Car Plunges

BRUSSELS, Sept. 8. (AP)—Lady Auriol Horne, wife of Sir Allen Horne, London, and an unidentified companion were drowned early today when, dazzled by the beams from a lighthouse, they drove their motor car into the River Scheldt. They were trying to run the machine on to the ferryboat that plies between Antwerp and Sainte Anne. The chauffeur was rescued, unconscious.

Preparing Ramp Delays Bromley

AOMORI (Japan) Sept. 8. (AP)—Harold L. Bromley will not be able to take off on his projected flight to Tacoma, Wash., before Thursday or Friday at the earliest.

Preparation of a ramp runway at Samishiro, near here, is expected to require two or three days.

BRITISH SHIP AT BAY CITY

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—The British flagship Despatch and her sister ship, the Dauntless, en route to Bermuda from Portland, arrived today to remain until the 15th inst. They will put in at San Diego on the southward trip.

SWEEPING VICTORY WON BY MAINE REPUBLICANS

Overwhelming Vote Sends Five Back to Congress and Fills Every Important State Office

AUGUSTA (Me.) Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Maine gave answer today in the biennial election to the charge that Republicanism was responsible for the business depression and other ills which have beset the United States by sending her five Republican Representatives in the national Congress back to their seats, and filling every important State and county office with other Republicans.

The vote was light, extremely so, but the Democratic leaders, who had expected it and made capital of it, failed to rally their own forces sufficiently to hold back the overwhelming response of the Republicans.

GARDINER BEHIND WHITE

Wallace H. White, Jr., Lewiston, who has represented the Second District in Congress eleven years, had within a few thousand of a two-to-one majority over his Democratic foe, Frank H. Haskell, Portland attorney, in the race for United States Senator.

Gov. William Tudor Gardiner was running slightly behind White, but still held a wide majority over Edward C. Moran, Jr., Rockland, who was the Democratic party gubernatorial candidate this year again.

The vote for 557 precincts out of 632 was:

For Senator: White, 71,313; Haskell, 44,569.

For Governor: Gardiner, 67,501; Moran, 52,146.

Representative White's seat in the lower national assembly was filled by the election of another Republican and the other three Representatives from the State, all Republicans, maintained comfortable leads over their Democratic opponents in each district.

ONE SEAT HOPED FOR

The fact that it was what they term the "off-year" election accounted for the apathy which prevailed during the several weeks of a spirited campaign, during which some of the country's best campaigners were sent down to bestir the electorate to repudiate the Democratic charges that President Hoover and his party were in any way responsible for conditions which have prevailed in every country, with the United States suffering less than any of her competitors.

The Democrats took heart in the thought that if Maine failed to respond with a big Republican vote they had a chance to take one of the seats at Washington and this was reflected in the vote in the Second District where Donald B. Partridge of Norway, seeking Representative White's place, found a worthy foe in his Democratic opponent, Albert Beliveau of Rumford. Where the other candidates ran along with a two-to-one lead, Partridge's lead over Beliveau was only five to three.

The three Republican representatives, Carroll L. Beedy of Portland, in the first district, John Nelson in the Third, and Donald F. Snow of Bangor, in the Fourth, took early comfortable leads over their Democratic opposition and ran along with Gov. Gardiner and the balance of the State and county tickets.

ARIZONA'S INTEREST FOCUSED ON HUNT RACE

PHOENIX, Sept. 8. (AP)—Interest in tomorrow's Arizona primary was focused tonight on the four-cornered race for Democratic gubernatorial nomination, with George W. P. Hunt, six times Governor, seeking an opportunity to oppose Gov. Phillips, lone Republican candidate, at the November general election.

Ex-Gov. Hunt, who sat in the Governor's chair from the time Arizona was admitted to the Union until 1919, when he was appointed Minister to Siam, and from 1923 until defeated in 1928 by Gov. Phillips, has three opponents in the race for Democratic nomination.

FLYERS SEE PRESIDENT

Hoover Praises Coste's Feat

French Pilot and Companion Bellonte Welcomed in White House Garden

Journey Across Sea Called Return Call for Flight Made by Lindbergh

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—President Hoover today in the quiet beauty of a White House rose garden gave the official welcome of the nation to Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte, French aviators.

Gathered around the Chief Executive and the men who flew from Paris to New York only a few days ago were three of America's most-famous aviators—Lindbergh, Byrd and Rickenbacker — Gen. Pershing, Vice-President Curtis, Jules Henry of the French Embassy and other government representatives.

The greeting by the President and the response by Coste climaxed a day of official tribute to the two flyers which included a White House luncheon, a pilgrimage to the tomb of the Unknown Soldier and calls at four government departments.

"We wish the people of France to know that our welcome of their two heroes is warm and spontaneous and universal," the President said. "We rejoice that this brilliant feat has been accomplished. We are delighted to honor these two men who have thus dramatically recalled Col. Lindbergh's call."

REMARKS BROADCAST

The name of Lindbergh recurred constantly throughout the President's welcome. Mr. Hoover called the flight of the Frenchmen a "return visit" of Lindbergh's New York-to-Paris flight. He said the pride and happiness of the nation in Lindbergh's safe landing were "redoubled when we heard of the magnificent reception given to him by the government and people of France."

The President's remarks were broadcast over the United States, England and France. As he finished, Coste stepped forward a pace and began reading his response.

"Three years ago France had the great honor of receiving and hailing two of the glories of your country—Lindbergh and Byrd," Coste said. "Their exploits gave to the French people the opportunity of proving to the American people the deep affection which we had fostered for more than 150 years.

"The welcome which has just been given us is a token of the reciprocal feeling of the American nation."

BYRD VOICES PRAISE

Rear-Admiral Byrd spoke a few words of praise for the Frenchmen. Later, he gave them a tricolor flag which had been presented him in France and which he

NEGRO LYNCHED IN GEORGIA

Guardsmen Patrol Streets and Martial Law Declared After Shooting of Black in Jail

DARIEN (Ga.) Sept. 8. (AP)—This village was under military rule tonight after an exciting day when a band of armed men lynched a Negro in his jail cell following the slaying of one officer and the wounding of three others.

The militia, under Col. W. R. Neal of Savannah, took charge of the situation under a proclamation by Gov. Hardman, who acted at the request of the civil authorities.

Police Chief Robert L. Freeman was killed and R. J. Anderson, deputy marshal, John Fisher, special officer of Darien, and Deputy Sheriff J. H. Collins of McIntosh county were wounded when they engaged George Grant and another Negro in a gun battle in near-by swamps. The Negroes were wanted for shooting at a night watchman who attempted to arrest them for loitering near a bank last midnight.

Grant, captured in the swamp, was shot to death in his cell by the men who disregarded commands of Col. Neal that the Negro not be slain. Grant's companion, said to be Fred Bryan, escaped and is believed surrounded in a 150-acre territory of swamp.

Col. Neal, with a unit of guardsmen, hurried here today shortly after news of the shooting of the officers was received in Savannah. later approximately 150 men of the One Hundred and Eighteenth Field Artillery, Savannah were sent here, but tonight all except fifty men and officers had been returned.

Under the Governor's proclamation, described by Col. Neal as "martial law," civilians who throughout the day searched the swamps and gathered in groups on the street, were ordered to take their arms home. Only a select unit of civilians was allowed to bear arms after 5 p.m.

Meanwhile the town is peaceful, guardsmen and possemen searching the area where the Negro is believed to be hiding. Bloodhounds are being used.

A machine gun, which earlier in the day had been placed at a vantage point near the jail, was dismounted and removed to an improvised armory.

Sheriff Poppell said the lynching of Grant occurred immediately after the Negro had been locked in the jail. A band of men, armed with shotguns and other weapons, rushed into the place and fired a load of buckshot in the Negro's body. Grant was said to have been identified by Anderson as one of the Negroes he attempted to arrest near the bank.

The Sheriff said he had been lured away from the jail by a ruse, some one having told him that Deputy Collins had just died. When he learned of the plan to kill the Negro, he said, it was too late to act. The band acted before the guardsmen could interfere, as they had gone away after placing the Negro inside, the Sheriff said.

BRIAND'S PLAN BEFORE LEAGUE

Approval of Principle Won at Geneva Meeting

French Leader to Outline Project to Assembly

and more or less formal first session of the League Council at which the question of the Palestine mandate was buried without any fireworks.

Hjalmar Procope, reporter for the mandates commission, made a mild and careful statement, while Arthur Henderson, British Foreign Secretary, replied as mildly. The Council agreed that both the mandatory power (Britain) and the mandates commission will continue to co-operate toward the fullest measure of peace, prosperity and happiness to both Jews and Arabs in Palestine.

The discussion of the Briand plan was in private session.

While Great Britain finally supported a resolution to submit the plan to the League, Mr. Henderson made a careful analysis of the possible dangers and insisted that the League must be given a free hand in the ensuing discussions.

The idea of a separate secretariat and separate political organizations for the proposed "United States of Europe" had already been pretty well abandoned by M. Briand after he received the replies to his "feeler" memorandum of May 17 last, and observers felt tonight the new organization—if it is established—now is definitely to be included in the mechanism of the League.

The expected procedure is that the Assembly, after a discussion that will give an idea of its temper on the subject, will again submit the plan to a commission for study. Another subcommission then may draft the text to appear on the agenda of the next Assembly.

"SELLING" IDEA

Mr. Briand's genuine desire to retain Great Britain in the framework of his federation was apparent when he acceded to the request that it be placed before the Assembly, but the general opinion is that the French Foreign Minister is thoroughly satisfied with the progress thus far.

He is quoted by one of his friends as saying that American advertising taught him one point: That constant iteration of a name or an idea leads to further sales.

He believes that more and more the European states are finding his idea attractive as a means to overcoming their present difficulties and he is satisfied with any constructive plan accepted by all that will preserve the principle.

There probably will be no meeting of the European conference tomorrow and the afternoon will be given over to preparations for the Assembly's discussion of the federation plan.

Combined Howl of Offspring Scares Marauding Bear Into Dropping Prey

BELLEVILLE (Or.) Sept. 8. (AP)—While Mrs. Thomas Reeves was looking for her cows today a mother bear seized her and started off with her.

Mrs. Reeves's two children, who had gone with her to the pasture, started to scream and apparently disturbed the bear's cubs in a near-by wood. The cubs set up a howl and the mother bear dropped the woman to rush to the protection of her young.

Mrs. Reeves was bruised and scratched.

PALMISANO LEADS IN BALTIMORE DISTRICT

BALTIMORE, Sept. 8. (AP)—Representative Palmisano took an early lead over four opponents for the Democratic nomination in the Third District in today's primary and another Democratic incumbent, Stephen W. Gambrill, in the Fifth District, also was far ahead.

John Phillip Hill, whom Palmisano defeated on the face of returns in the 1928 election, was unopposed for the Republican nomination in the Third.

Davis J. Lewis, former Representative and former member of the Tariff Commission, at midnight was leading his opponent for the Democratic nomination in the Sixth District, Fuller Barnard, Jr. Representative Frederick N. Zihlman, Republican, was unopposed for renomination.

carried on his flight over the South Pole.

Coste and Bellonte were up early and started for the tomb of the Unknown Soldier when the rush of downtown traffic was thickest. The leader of their motorcycle escort, however, was a Frenchman, Marcel Caussin, who fought with the marines during the war. They whisked through old Georgetown to Key Bridge with only an occasional spectator recognizing them in time to yell or wave a greeting.

At the amphitheater leading down to the tomb, they paused holding the wreath between them, while the army band played the "Marseillaise." Then they stepped forward and placed the circlet carefully on the stone slab. An army bugler played taps.

At the State Department, where Acting Secretary Cotton received and congratulated them, Bellonte lagged behind as they emerged to visit the office of Frederick H. Payne, acting Secretary of War. The little flyer was surrounded by a group of girls. He grinned and side-stepped like an alert broken field runner until he was on Coste's heels again. Coste laughed loudly.

They were greeted at the Navy Department by Secretary Adams and at the Commerce Department they found Lindbergh waiting for them in Secretary Lamont's office.

A reception at the French Embassy for Coste and Bellonte followed the White House luncheon but their schedule was not yet completed. A dinner at the Washington Board of Trade in the evening ended the Capital's welcome.

TEXT OF WELCOME

The text of President Hoover's welcome was:

"It gives me great pleasure to welcome you here today. Every American recalls the thirty hours and more of intense emotion that gripped us while our own Col. Lindbergh was winging his way to Paris, and the sense of relief and joy that swept over the nation when word came that he had safely landed. Our pride and happiness were redoubled when we heard of the magnificent reception given to him by the government and people of France. Our hearts went out in fraternal warmth to those who had so royally welcomed our national hero.

"Today, therefore, every American knows exactly what pride and happiness possesses every French heart, at the knowledge that these two gallant sons of France stand safely on our soil. We wish the people of France to know that our welcome of their two heroes is warm and spontaneous and universal. We rejoice that this brilliant feat has been accomplished. We are delighted to honor these two men who have thus dramatically recalled Col. Lindbergh's call.

GLORY OF WORLD

"This return visit of French aviators is even more than an occasion for national rejoicing and international felicitations. What they have done, what the great American aviators have done, Byrd, Rickenbacker, and the rest, both those who sacrificed themselves wholly and those alive, is a glory of the whole human race. It demonstrates again the high courage of mankind. It gives heart to all of us in whatever tasks engage us, for it proves that there are no limits to the courage of men and that there are no limits to what courage can accomplish.

"Again, gentlemen, I welcome you, on behalf of the American government and on behalf of the American people."

TEXT OF REPLY

The text of Coste's reply to Mr. Hoover was:

"Permit me in the name of my comrade, Bellonte, and in my own name to thank you for the words that you have just pronounced. They have deeply moved us. There are moments when words are inadequate to express ideas. This is one of them.

"Since our arrival on American soil, and in the course of the trip we have made rapidly over a part of the American territory, the welcome you have given us—so spontaneous, so sincere and so warm—has emphasized those unforgettable moments when Bellonte and I feel ourselves in communion with your people.

"Three years ago France had the great honor of receiving and hailing two of the glories of your country—Lindbergh and Byrd. Their exploits gave to the French people the opportunity of proving to the American people the deep affection which we had fostered for more than 150 years.

"The welcome which has just been given us is a token of the reciprocal feeling of the American nation. We appreciate it to its full value and we ask you, Mr. President, to receive the homage of our deepest gratitude."

ALL FRANCE TUNES IN ON WHITE HOUSE LUNCHEON

PARIS, Sept. 8. (AP)—All France today sat down to the Coste-Bellonte White House luncheon. As the Frenchmen ate their evening meal, they tuned in their radios and heard the entire Washington reception to the trans-Atlantic flyers relayed by government stations at Paris, Grenoble, Lyons, Marseilles, Bordeaux, Lille and Limoges.

The speeches came through clearly in French, President Hoover having thoughtfully arranged to have everything that was said translated so that they might hear all of the praise America officially bestowed today upon the two gallant sons of France.

today with administration of the oath to the provisional President and his Cabinet.

Great crowds of citizens, happy because of the national holiday which had been proclaimed for the formal induction of the government, massed about the historic government house as Gen. Jose Evaristo Uriburu took the oath as provisional President of the Argentine republic.

Parades, in some of which women participated, were formed to march through the streets and hail the revolution which ousted the aging Hipolito Yrigoyen. The city was more lively than in one of its famed national fiestas.

The others who took the oath were military officers, provincial officials and soldiers in the ranks.

The government took time out for this ceremony, but was extremely busy the remainder of the day in reorganizing the administrative structure. Gen. Uriburu said the entire country has swung to the banner of the revolt and the provinces rapidly are being turned over to picked men, principally high army officers.

Other officers who have been loyal to the revolutionary chieftains are replacing those who were Yrigoyen adherents. Gen. Jose Marcilese today was given command of the First Division of the Army, while Capt. Leon Scasso has succeeded Vice-Admiral Ramon Gonzales Fernandez in charge of the First Naval Region.

MANY HAVE FLED

Many of the Yrigoyen supporters have fled.

Yrigoyen still lies ill in infantry barracks at La Plata. He is not a prisoner, so the government says, and the chief of the Seventh Infantry today was ordered to give the former President every courtesy and ample medical attention.

While the country in general has accepted the revolt, news of scattered disorders continues to reach the capital. A clash in the vicinity of Rodeo resulted in the killing of the Chief of Police of the Department of Iglesias. His wife also was killed and a police sergeant was wounded.

VICE-CONSUL CITED FOR ACTS OF BRAVERY

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—An American Vice-Consul in Buenos Aires was commended by cable today to the State Department for "bravery and devotion" in defying rifle fire during the Argentine revolution to obtain the release of an American citizen.

Informed that Frederick Henry Radel of Chicago had been imprisoned by the military police, charged with the possession of a revolver, the cable said Vice-Consul Ralph Miller of New York City traversed on three occasions streets swept by sporadic rifle fire before obtaining Radel's freedom.

REVOLUTION REPORTED IN BRAZIL STATE

MONTEVIDEO (Uruguay) Sept. 8. (AP)—The Uruguyan government tonight received official notices of inception of a revolutionary movement in the Brazilian State of Rio Grande do Sul.

The government has sent two regiments of cavalry to the frontier to insure neutrality of this country.

Negro's Estate Owes Millions

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Claims aggregating more than $10,000,000 stand today against the estate of Elbert R. Robinson, Negro, who died on December 25, 1924, after fighting for years to win royalties from railways and street-car companies on his claim that he invented the electric trolley.

Although Robinson left virtually no estate, approximately $3,000,000 in claims was filed after his death based on notes signed by Robinson. Today, 187 new claims were filed in Probate Court, bringing the total to more than $10,000,000.

BOMBAY BEAUTY FLEES DESPAIR

Mrs. Thach Vanishes After Reno Phone Call

Attempt at Suicide After Conversation Foiled

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) Following a dramatic attempt at suicide in her suite here at the Hotel Lincoln, Mrs. Marjorie Burke-Wise Thach, 19-year-old beauty from Bombay, India, and estranged wife of Girault Terrill Thach, young New York banker, disappeared early today.

Private detectives were assigned to search for her, and the details soon came to light of a frantic 3000-mile telephone call she made yesterday in an effort to reach Thach in Reno, Nev., only to be answered by another woman who announced she planned to marry the banker as soon as he obtained a divorce.

According to her attorney, Philip A. Levey, Mrs. Thach declared the woman identified herself as Mrs. Charlotte Potter Lewis, stepdaughter of Harry Guggenheim, United States Ambassador to Cuba, who divorced Reginald M. Lewis in Reno last week.

The young English woman, daughter of a colonel in the British army in India who was killed in France, put in her call at 1 a.m., Sunday, Levey said. Thach established his residence at the Riverside Hotel there three weeks ago, preparatory to suing for divorce. When the telephone connection was made and instead of her husband's, a woman's voice informed Mrs. Thach of her husband's remarriage plans, the estranged young wife flung down the receiver and ran to a window of the eighth-floor room. She attempted to fling herself out, according to a report to the hotel management made later to police, but was restrained by her companion, Miss Anna Marie Kress.

Throughout Sunday, the companion reported today, Mrs. Thach brooded and threatened to go "where nobody will ever find me."

This morning her companion awakened to find Mrs. Thach had vanished.

Thach, 27 years of age, married the former Miss Burke-Wise, a society girl of Bombay, a year ago, while he was branch manager for the National City Bank of New York in the Indian city.

CANCER REMEDY WINS APPROVAL

Coffey-Humber Treatment Vised by Physicians

State Medical Association Publishes Results

Relief and Cures Cited and Discoverers Lauded

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—The Coffey-Humber adrenal extract is proving its value in the treatment of cancer, according to a report published today by the California Medical Association. The report, appearing in the association's official journal, summarizes the results of eight months' experimentation with the extract. Two thousand patients in all stages of the disease were treated. Relief of pain and of the fear engendered by the malady is the outstanding benefit reported.

The article presents an outline of the cases treated by Dr. Walter B. Coffey and Dr. John D. Humber, co-developers of the extract, at their clinics here and in Los Angeles. Both physicians are members of the Southern Pacific Company medical staff.

Patients who had been declared incurable have shown "marked improvement" under the treatment, the case outline sets forth. Others have been benefited to the point where they considered themselves cured.

In an appendix to the report prominent specialists point out that the skepticism shown in certain quarters on publication of the discovery in January last has dwindled considerably during recent months. The journal warmly encourages the two physicians to continue their research.

METHODISTS REFUSE TO AID BIRTH CONTROL

OXFORD (O.) Sept. 8. (AP)—The Ohio Methodist Episcopal conference threw out a resolution of the committee on reform dealing with the question of birth control today. The committee had called attention to the actions of other church bodies in recommending the dissemination of birth-control information by doctors in certain cases, and recommended the Ohio conference do likewise. This brought a storm of protest from many delegates and the recommendation was thrown out.

SANTO DOMINGO NEAR FOOD RIOT

Quick Action Averts Crisis of Famished Crowds

Ships Land Provisions and Medical Supplies

Thirteen Hospitals Filled by Hurricane's Injured

SANTO DOMINGO (Dominican Republic) Sept. 8. (AP)—Only the coolness of officers of the Dominican army and of the United States mine sweeper Grebe saved hurricane-stricken Santo Domingo from a food riot today.

Hundreds of men, women and children, many of whom have not had any food since the city was destroyed by a hurricane last Wednesday, tried to seize provisions which were brought by launches and other light craft to wharves along the banks of the River Ozama, which divides the city.

FOOD DOLED OUT

The Dominican and American officers quickly posted their men in strategic positions so as to hold back the crowds until speakers could assure them that rations will be distributed as soon as possible.

Government authorities and Red Cross workers took up the difficult task of keeping the hungry people orderly while food was doled out at impromptu canteens set up in churches, government buildings and some of the old Spanish stone houses which withstood the fury of the hurricane.

Foodstuffs, medical supplies, nurses, doctors and relief workers were brought today by the steamship Ruth Lykes from Ponce, Porto Rico. The steamship Tryton arrived with a cargo of rice from Europe. The Genevieve Lykes was expected tonight with provisions and medical supplies from Port Au Prince, Haiti, and Guatanamo, Cuba.

The steamship Catherine tried to enter the Ozama today but was forced to return to its anchorage at sea.

HOSPITALS HOLD 1200

A hospital survey completed today revealed that more than 1200 seriously injured patients are receiving treatment in thirteen hospitals. Almost all have infections of some kind. Those in the hospitals are in addition to the hundreds of injured who are receiving treatment in churches, schools, homes and public buildings.

Water, the city's greatest immediate need, probably will be available before morning. An aqueduct has been repaired for bringing water from inland sources and tonight President Trujillo and American Minister Curtis were informed that the water is flowing toward the city and that a plentiful supply can be expected within fifteen hours.

NO ACCURATE COUNT

Thus far no adequately accurate count, or even estimate of the number of dead is possible. The loss of life has been so great that no effort to report deaths to a central office has been made. De E. Silva, a member of the Porto Rican relief unit, said eighty bodies had been taken from one hospital and buried together in an abandoned cistern behind a private home near Columbus Park, which is in the heart of the city.

Roosevelt Emergency Hospital—so named by President Trujillo in honor of Gov. Roosevelt of Porto Rico—will be open tomorrow, giving greatly needed facilities to the overworked doctors and nurses. It will have 1000 beds, which will be devoted to patients needing emergency treatment or minor surgery.

PLEA FOR SURGICAL INSTRUMENTS RECEIVED

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Prompt response was given by the Navy today to a call from Santo Domingo for surgical instruments, "especially those used in amputations," for use in treating thousands of gangrenous cases reported spreading over the disease-threatened city in the wake of the hurricane.

The American Red Cross received reports from Capt. Antonio Silva, representing the Red Cross at Santo Domingo, and Charles B. Curtis, American Minister to the Dominican Republic, that 1000 patients had been examined for gangrenous infections and that medical supplies from adjacent regions had been exhausted.

POPE MAKES GIFT FOR STORM RELIEF

VATICAN CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Pope today forwarded a contribution to Santo Domingo for the relief of the hurricane victims. The amount was not made known.

Cardinal Pacelli, papal secretary of state, sent a message to the Dominican nation expressing the Pontiff's sympathy and the apostolic benediction.

"YAWN" MARRIAGE BRIDE GETS DECREE

VIOLINIST DIVORCED BY SINGER

Nannette Guilford Gets Decree in Mexico Court from Max Rosen

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) Announcement that Miss Nanette Guilford, often spoken of as the "baby prima donna" of the Metropolitan Opera Company, has obtained a Mexican divorce from Max Rosen, violinist, was made today by her attorney, Robert Haberman.

Incompatibility and nonsupport were the grounds and decision was rendered in Sonora last Wednesday, Mr. Haberman said. The violinist made one appearance in the proceedings, but did not contest.

When they were married on November 23, 1928, Miss Guilford declared that Mr. Rosen's proposal was the most casual she had ever received.

"Really, I think I'm the first bride who was ever yawned into marriage," she then remarked. "We'd just finished luncheon after our morning musical studies and were walking in Seventh avenue. Max yawned as though he were bored to death.

"'Ho, hum,' he said, 'what do you say to getting married this afternoon?'"

So dumbfounded was Miss Guilford that she accepted and they went to the City Hall.

Appeal Ordered in Denison Case

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—An appeal from a District of Columbia Supreme Court decision sustaining the demurrer of Representative Denison, Republican, Illinois, to an indictment charging him with possession of liquor in his office here in January, 1929, was ordered today by the Department of Justice.

The court decision held the indictment did not comply with constitutional requirements, but Dist.-Atty. Rover, who was instructed to prosecute the appeal, pointed out that every indictment reported by the Federal grand jury in a case involving sale of liquor contained a possession count in language identical with that in the Denison indictment.

YOUNG PICKS MEMBERS FOR STATE BOARDS

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Gov. Young announced today the reappointment of Dr. George E. Ebright of San Francisco as member of the State Board of Public Health; W. A. Johnstone, San Dimas, as member of the State Civil Service Commission, and C. E. Rynearson, Marysville, member of the Board of Barber Examiners. Johnstone is president of the Civil Service Commission and Rynearson is secretary of the barbers' board. Dr. Ebright and Rynearson are reappointed for four-year terms and Johnstone for a three-year term.

GOVERNOR GETS SOCK ON NOSE

Long of Louisiana Hit by Newspaper Reporter

Executive Later Guarded by State Militiamen

He Testifies in Kidnaping on Eve of Primary

NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 8. (AP)—Gov. Huey P. Long spent the night before tomorrow's primary election, in which he opposes Senator Joseph E. Ransdell for the United States Senate, under armed guard after he had testified in Federal court about the strange disappearance of two men who were planning to bring suit for slander against him in Shreveport.

He was guarded by a detail of State militia when he went to the Federal Building today in response to a subpoena to testify in a writ of habeas corpus proceeding against Sheriff Frank Clancy of Jefferson parish. The writ demanded the delivery of the two men, Samuel Irby and James Terrell, who were seized in a Shreveport hotel and have been kept in seclusion by State police since last Thursday.

HIT BY REPORTER

The Governor called for State troops to add to his bodyguard after he had been struck on the nose and mouth in his hotel apartments by William O. Weigand, reporter for the New Orleans Item. Weigand had taken offense at an epithet hurled at him by the Governor. Bodyguards of the Governor seized the reporter and while two armed men stood on each side of the reporter, the Governor struck him in the face with his hand. Later the Governor and the reporter apologized to each other.

The whereabouts of Irby and Terrell remained a mystery tonight. The Governor testified today he believed they are in Jefferson parish, adjoining New Orleans.

DEPUTY SOUGHT

Later on the stand Sheriff Clancy said he did not have the men in custody, but that they were in Jefferson parish after they had been returned from Shreveport Thursday for two hours for service in a writ of attachment concerning molestation of State papers.

The Sheriff said Deputy Sheriff Sartis served the papers and had gone on a week-end fishing trip. Judge Borah adjourned the hearing late today and ordered Sartis brought into court tomorrow.

Gov. Long testified a telegram sent to Terrell's mother, Mrs. H. C. Hasselroth, in El Dorado, Ark., signed "Jimmie Terrell," and saying he was "ok," was written by Terrell on note paper and had been given him by Sartis. He said he had the original copied and kept the note paper. On the order of the court he sent the original to the clerk.

The Governor said he had not seen Terrell in more than a year. He testified Irby was in his hotel quarters last night and talked over the radio, saying "Gov. Long is the best friend" he had in the world, and that he had not been kidnaped.

Death Puts End to Argument

DODGE CITY (Kan.) Sept. 8. (AP) Tom Rutherford, who lived northeast of Vilas, Colo., died yesterday while attempting to settle an argument with his brother, William Rutherford.

The men were repairing a fence on their farm. They began to argue whether a strand of wire thrown over an electric high line would cause any injury. Tom Rutherford tied a rock to a strand of wire and cast it over the high line. He was killed instantly.

KIDNAPING OF IOWAN MIXED UP

James Sheridan, Reported to Have Been Ransomed by Wife, Fails to Appear

DES MOINES (Iowa) Sept. 8. (AP) A story of kidnaping and counter-kidnaping tonight occupied police investigating the case of James Sheridan, wealthy retired business man, reported abducted from a downtown street last week.

Sheridan, according to information to authorities, was released today after his wife paid ransom of $10,000. He had not made an appearance locally, however, and Mrs. Sheridan tonight denied she had effected the release.

The story told officers, presumably by friends of Sheridan, was that after the abduction, the kidnapers sent an emissary to them with a demand for $50,000 ransom. The latter retaliated by taking the emissary prisoner and demanded Sheridan be given his liberty in return for that of the man they held.

After prolonged negotiations, according to this report, the abductors of Sheridan agreed to reduce the amount demanded to $10,000 if their agent were released. This being mutually agreeable, Mrs. Sheridan was reported to have paid over the amount and both men were liberated.

Because of Sheridan's failure to arrive home and because of Mrs. Sheridan's denial of the deal, however, police admitted their information lacked verification. They have learned definitely, they said, the names of three men who took part in the abduction. One is a former resident of Des Moines and the others Peoria (Ill.) racketeers. The trio is being sought.

ATTACKED FILIPINO RESCUED BY WOMAN

SALINAS, Sept. 8. (AP)—Mrs. Manuel Cunha, wife of a Salinas rancher, saved a Filipino laborer from possible serious injuries today when she encountered eight white men attacking Alfredo Contares, 22 years of age, of Monterey. Mrs. Cunha, after ordering the men to leave, took Contares to a hospital where he was treated for bruises.

Dispatches have told already of e recent locating of the Egypt, hich was sunk off Ushant in 1922 ith a loss of eighty-seven lives id carrying down gold and silver illion of a value approximating ,500,000 and a volume of mail. ut little has been said of the hard- ips and perils and bravery of the ivers, whose smattering of French just sufficient for them to talk ith the local French pilots and ilors and get advice regarding the angerous currents in which they ust work.

"We have our troubles," one of e divers said, "among them the onger eels. The difficulties we ust overcome are often very great. sudden change of current ob- ures our view, or a great stream f fish spawn, yards thick, floats by, asting a whole day."

LIGHTS LITTLE HELP

The big Bargelini put in a word. "It's more than ten days now since e discovered the Egypt down there n the depths. First we used a ylindrical diving bell and got a eneral view of the wreck, after aving located it by dragging with weighted chain."

"How can you see down there?" argelini was asked.

"It's no use trying lights, however rong," he explained. "With the urrents so strong at this point we oon found hat lights gave only a oubtful, cloudy help, and no detail.

"In the great diving bell it was ossible, after a little while, to see bjects in the faint, glimmering ght which came from the surface hen the sun's rays were oblique. Neither sharks nor other fish could inder us in the diving bell or in ur steel armored suits."

The arms of these suits, by the ay, end in enormous steel pincers ke lobster claws.

"Big fish might foul your air ubes," it was suggested.

"Yes, or our life line," acknowl- dged Franceschi, "but that's a small isk and doesn't bother us. When he Egypt was found we hurried nto our diving suits and soon were lambering along the deck of the hip to the funnels.

SHOOTS TO TOP

"One of us got the captain's safe eady for hoisting, and just as he as going to fasten a chain to the afe the lead weights on his feet ame undone and he shot to the urface. When his helmet was un- crewed and the surface crew asked im what the trouble was he was urious.

"It used to be reckoned that a iver could operate at a maximum epth of only 300 or 350 feet, but ith these suits we can work 400 et down.

"The major part of our problem solved. But we have five tons of old and forty-five tons of silver et to recover. That means moving ts of machinery with hooks and lectro magnets, and blasting hrough several decks.

"When we are blasting a hole hrough the side of a cabin with ynamite cartridges we have to ork slowly and very carefully, astening the cartridges in just the ight position. But we are sure of good fish dinner when the job is one. The explosion blows fish to he surface in hundreds."

The diving outfit reminds one of submarine conning tower. In the op part are windows of heavy lass, and the respiration and meas- ring apparatus as well as the tele- hone. In the lower part are tanks nd a seat.

HANDLING TOOLS

The tanks give the diver complete ontrol over his equilibrium. If he ants to descend he lets water in hrough a valve. If he wishes to scend he blows the water out by ompressed air.

The arms and legs are jointed, nd the tools the diver wants, ham- ers, nippers, etc., are fastened to is arms. He works them from in- de with his hands.

The people above move the div- about according to his instruc- ons, and the great merit of the utfit is that it resists the enor- ous pressure of the sea water, ore than thirty pounds to the quare inch of body.

"How much more do you hope do this season?" one of the div- s was asked.

"The most we can hope for be- re bad weather sets in," was the eply, "is to fix plenty of buoys we can start hauling promptly ext year."

TASTE THE FLAVOR!

know the "Vegetable Effect!"

Adults as well as children gain from this new-type, natural bulk and roughage

Heinz of "57" fame offers an innovation in flaked foods—HEINZ Rice Flakes with "Vegetable Effect". Texture, daintiest you've ever known. Flavor, more delicious than you've ever tasted in cereals.

All of rice's rich energizing nutriment is included, plus vegetable-cellulose (same as vegetables themselves contain). The latter increases in bulk four to six times after eating, forming one of the mildest, gentlest yet most effective types of natural bulk and roughage known to Science.

Not a bran-food. Any normal person can eat HEINZ Rice Flakes daily for a lifetime with only good results. Both children and adults thrive on them, and in most instances greatly improve in regularity of health-habits. Your doctor knows.

Patented by HEINZ, you get this great benefit and rare attraction in HEINZ CEREALS ONLY!

Eat twice daily for one week to start the benefits; once daily thereafter to maintain them.

Your money back from any grocer if not completely satisfactory both as to flavor and effects. Send post card for free booklet, "Children's Futures Told in Foods" with sections about adults needs. Address H. J. Heinz Co., Pittsburgh (Dept. R-7), sole makers of this new triumph in foods.

Children can't resist the flavor so they don't resist the benefits. Try yours and see.

PILGRIMS VISIT FAMOUS SHRINE

Procession Climbs Heights to "Flying House"

"Our Lady of Loreto," Saint of Flyers

Popes Encased Structure in Marble Screens

LORETO (Italy) Sept. 8, (AP)—All day today through the main street of this picturesque little town, poised on the heights with the green Adriatic below, passed a procession to the sanctuary of the "Holy House of Nazareth," also known as the "Flying House," to celebrate the nativity of the Blessed Virgin.

For more than 800 years the great and the lowly, from Kings and crusaders to beggars, have trod the road up to this shrine, bearing their gifts.

SAINT OF FLYERS

The procession today included a number of aviator, for Our Lady of Loreto" was proclaimed their protectress by the late Pope Benedict XV; American touring motorists and their families, and peasants clad in the vivid costumes of the Abruzzi. Many came into town on foot, priests, students, old men and women, grandmothers leading broods of grandchildren and mothers carrying their latest born in baskets balanced on their heads.

To the chant of Litanies they all wound through the principal street into the piazza of the Madonna. One heard on every side the cries: "Viva Maria, long live the madonna" being taken up and repeated both solemnly and joyfully.

LEGEND OF HOUSE

The "Holy House of Nazareth," according to legend, was the very one in which the Blessed Virgin was born and raised, where she received the visit of the Annunciation, and where she resided after Christ's ascension. The apostles are supposed to have converted it into a church at a later date. When Nazareth was threatened by the Turks the legend has it the house was borne miraculously through the air to a hill near Scutari, where a number of cures effected on visitors attested its sanctity. Later, when thieves and pirates invested the region, during the period of the crusades, angels, it is said, transported the house to the hill of Loreto and set it down among the laurel groves.

ENCASED IN MARBLE

It is a tiny house, but encased by lofty marble screens designed by the Great Bramante and executed by Andrea Sansovino and Della Porta, under commission from the Popes. The four screens represent the Annunciation, the Nativity of Christ, the arrival of the Holy House at Loreto, and the nativity of the Blessed Virgin herself. Inside is a small statue of the Madonna and child, carved in black wood of Lebanon, and supposed to have been the work of St. Luke, the artist of the four evangelists.

All the pilgrims today carried candles, which they reverently added to the thousands already burning by the famous shrine.

TARIFF MAY BE BOOSTED BY CANADA

Upward Revision Move Hinted at as Session of Parliament Opens

OTTAWA, Sept. 8. (AP)—Upward revision of the Canadian tariff as a measure to relieve unemployment and economic depression in the Dominion was forecast today in the message from the throne which opened a special session of the Canadian Parliament.

The session, convened specifically to deal with unemployment, heard the Governor-General read a four-sentence speech in which amendments to the customs act and the customs tariff were mentioned as being expected "to meet the unusual conditions which now prevail."

As the enunciation of the Conservative party, recently placed in control of the government, the Governor-General's speech was regarded as conforming with the party's traditional advocacy of a high protective tariff.

The first day's session was adjourned after Capt. George Black, member from the Yukon, was elected Speaker of the House of Commons.

SITE FOR DAM CITY CHANGED

New Location to be Three Miles Farther Away

Workmen's Town will Go Up on Top of Ridge

Government Able to Keep Unlawful Joints Out

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—A new site for the workmen's model city at Boulder Dam has definitely been selected by the government, Dr. Elwood Mead, commissioner of reclamation, announced today.

The site will be 13 deg. cooler than the former tentative location, according to summer-long temperature tests made by S. R. DeBoer, consulting engineer on town planning. Inasmuch as heat is one of the great problems to be met at the dam site, the difference in temperature will make it worth while to change the city's location from a V-shaped valley 800 feet above the river to a site on a ridge 600 feet higher.

FURTHER FROM DAM SITE

The new site is at the terminus of the Union Pacific spur line from Las Vegas, and three miles farther away from the scene of construction than the original location. As transportation must be provided for the workmen in any event, the additional three-mile trek did not seriously weigh against the temperature benefits of the higher location.

Search for artesian well water to supply the model city is under way. If it is not found, water from the Colorado River will be lifted an additional 600 feet to furnish the water supply for the newly located town.

This location at the end of the spur rail line will be the distribution point for the dam activities. In addition to the government-built railroad, specially designed to negotiate extremely sharp curves and extra heavy grades up to the dam site, a highway will be constructed to the dam site and also to Las Vegas, thirty miles away.

TO BE MODEL CITY

The town itself will be unique in that all structures will be built on Federal ground and leased to individuals for specific purposes. If any lease holder carries on unlawful activities such as selling liquor or gambling, the lease is instantly revocable. This feature will give the government police powers unusual in a construction camp.

Laid out, constructed and supervised by the best experts obtainable, the government city will be a model town, designed especially to overcome natural hindrances to the work such as heat, as far as man can.

The official beginning of Boulder Dam construction will be observed at Las Vegas on the 17th inst., when Secretary Wilbur and other national officials as well as State and municipal officers from the Southwest will officiate at the construction of the first section of the spur line from Las Vegas to the site of the government city. This railroad line will be purely a freight and supply road, according to present plans.

FILIPINOS HIDE PLAGUE IN MANILA

Authorities Admit More Cholera Cases than Found Exist in Native Quarter

MANILA, Sept. 8. (AP)—Thirty cases of cholera have been reported in Manila among natives, with nine deaths, in the past ten days. No Americans or Europeans have been stricken and practically all foreigners have been vaccinated.

The disease has been prevalent some time in the provinces, but is reported diminishing there.

The situation is considered not serious. Health experts said they believe it can be controlled without serious extension.

Authorities, however, expressed considerable concern because the Filipino public is not merely refusing to co-operate in the cholera suppression campaign, but is actually antagonistic. Some of those stricken have been hidden by relatives and officials admit there have been more cases than reported.

Illustrating the antagonism, a Filipino sanitary inspector was mobbed and severely injured after causing arrest of three women for violating food-vending regulations. The mob knocked out one eye of the inspector and possibly fractured his skull. Mayor Earnshaw fined twenty city scavengers for failing to do their work property.

GUM MADE FROM BENZENE

Chicle Substitute Produced by Chemical Society Along with Other New Marvels

CINCINNATI, Sept. 8.—Synthetic chewing gum, made by adding a dash of war-time chlorine to a new substance produced from benzene, is one of chemistry's latest marvels. The new chew is described in a report made public by the American Chemical Society at its meeting which began here today.

It substitutes for chicle, and like the natural product, is tasteless and odorless. Experiments with it are incomplete, but indicate that, as a chew, it would have a medicinal effect.

The gum is an incidental discovery in a score of new commercial possibilities, some already in practice, all coming from this same new chemical, diphenyl. These are reported in a paper by Chester H. Penning of Swann Research, Inc., Anniston, Ala. Diphenyl is a milky colored solid made by uniting two benzene molecules, which thereupon become so different in character instead of being explosive they are a substitute for steam for carrying heat. It was the demand of gasoline refining for this heat-carrying property that recently brought diphenyl into existence in quantity.

All the new substances reported today are obtained simply by adding to diphenyl various amounts of chlorine, which besides being a gas is familiar in the flavor of table salt.

Adding 19 per cent by weight of chlorine makes a clear substance resembling water. More chlorine successively produces light oils, thick syrupy substances and finally a light amber-colored solid.

All of these are virtually odorless and tasteless, Mr. Penning says, except one which has a distinctive, but not unpleasant smell.

Mr. Penning says it appears possible to use them both for making flame-proof and waterproof garments.

Other indicated uses include employment as cement for rubber and for laminated glass, a material in printing-inks, in artificial leather, in textile finishing and electrical insulation.

MISS BRAZIL WINS CROWN FOR BEAUTY

United States Girl Given Third Place in World Competition

RIO DE JANEIRO (Brazil) Sept. 8. (AP)—The title of "Miss Universe" was conferred today upon Senorita Yollanda Pereira, representative of Brazil in the international beauty contest.

Second place went equally to Fernanda Goncales of Portugal and Alice Diplorackou of Greece. Miss Beatrice Lee, who was "Miss United States," was accorded third place.

The girls were chosen from a group of twenty-six girls, winners of previous beauty contests in all parts of the world. The contest did not permit bathing suits.

Whitney Flatly Denies Taking Bootleg Bribe

SEATTLE, Sept. 8. (AP)—With a blanket denial of all the charges of corruption and bribery brought against him, William M. Whitney, suspended assistant prohibition administrator, wound up his three days on the witness stand today with the flat statement that he never had received "one penny" to influence his official acts.

Whitney and his former associates, Roy C. Lyle, suspended administrator, and Earl Corwin and R. L. Fryant, former agents, are accused of having taken $100,000 in bribes from bootleggers.

Leguia to Get Medical Care

LIMA (Peru) Sept. 8. (AP)—The government today ordered two physicians to see the deposed President, Augusto B. Leguia, daily at San Lorenzo Isle, the penal institution, where he is confined, seriously ill with a nervous breakdown.

The physicians were ordered to observe his needs "free from any political discrimination, considering him as any other patient who, owing to his responsibility before the nation, is detained in that place."

SANTA CRUZ GROVE MADE PUBLIC PARK

SANTA CRUZ, Sept. 8. (AP)—The famous Felton big tree grove will be made a public park and saved for posterity, the County Supervisors were informed today by the advisory board of the Santa Cruz County Big Trees Company. Board members said financial arrangements have been completed for purchase of the 355-acre tract from heirs of the Joseph Welch estate in San Francisco. Santa Cruz county has raised $75,000 of the $150,000 price and the County Big Trees Company raised the remainder through popular subscription.

NATIONALIST LEADER IN INDIA RELEASED

HATFIELD HITS TARIFF ATTACK

War Debt Cancellation Talk Held Raskobian Bogey

West Virginia Senator Says True Facts Shunned

Senator Barkley Declared to be Just Tool

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—A recent statement by Senator A. W. Barkley, Kentucky, that England and other European countries are seriously considering a movement to cancel their war debts as a rebuke to the United States for the new tariff, today was branded a Raskobian effort to discredit the new act by Senator Henry D. Hatfield, Republican, West Virginia.

The West Virginia Senator further declared that Senator Barkley's statement, like many others from Democratic National Headquarters, shun the true facts, and he denied there is any manner in which the war debts may be canceled.

TEXT OF STATEMENT

Senator Hatfield's statement, which was issued through the Republican National Headquarters today, declared:

"In the desperate Raskobian effort to discredit the new tariff act, Senator Barkley of Kentucky, wittingly or unwittingly becomes the spokesman alike for certain European leaders and the American international bankers on a subject dearest to their hearts—debt cancellation.

"The American and British governments have once and for all settled this debt question, but despite this we now see the spectacle of a United States Senator permitting himself to be the propaganda vehicle of the selfish interests of these leaders and bankers. It is a spectacle that can have only one effect upon every patriotic American.

"Republican tariff-built prosperity has increased America's private foreign investments from $2,000,000,000 in 1913 to $15,000,000,000 at this time. It was not Senator Barkley speaking; it was 15,000,000,000 American dollars invested overseas. These 15,000,000,000 American dollars are on the side of foreign industry employing peasant labor arraigned against the American working man with his high wages and high living standards which are the envy of the rest of the world.

FACTS SHUNNED

"Senator Barkley, who has ever proven a pliable spokesman for the Raskob Democratic organization, has conjured up the witch on a broom of debt cancellation with which to terrify the American public.

"Since the beginning of the discussion of the 1930 tariff law one Raskob spokesman after another—Senators Harrison, Swanson and Connally—to mention only a few—have worked on this theme in some form. I cannot believe they have realized how ably they were playing the game for international bankers.

"Senator Barkley like the others had his hand in making the tariff act which he would have the country believe is sending the United States and the rest of the world to the bow-wows. But like the others he is playing a political game and as that game is played under the tutelage of Mr. Raskob facts are things to be studiously shunned."

ANDREE GIVEN FINAL HONORS

Long-Delayed Funeral for Arctic Pair Conducted

Explorer and Aide Who Died in 1897 Eulogized

Remains will Rest in Small Church for Present

TROMSOE (Norway) Sept. 8. (AP) Beneath half-staffed flags a reverent crowd gathered in and around the little Tromsoe church today during funeral services for Salomon Auguste Andree and Nils Strindberg, whose bodies recently were brought from an icy grave on White Island, where they died thirty-three years ago.

The coffins containing the remains of the two balloonist explorers were carried into the chancel, which was decorated with Swedish flags. Both the Norwegian and Swedish flags were draped over the coffins.

After a hymn by a mixed choir Dean Nissen delivered a moving sermon in the course of which he recalled that two years ago memorial services were conducted in the same church for Roald Amundsen.

Relatives of Andree and Strindberg, representatives of the Swedish-Norwegian commission, the crew of the sealer Bratvaag which discovered the bodies, and members of Dr. Gunnar Horn's expedition attended the services. Petty officers and sailors from warships in the harbor paraded to the church as a final tribute.

After the services, the coffins were carried by Norwegian sailors to the southern corridor of the church, which will be used as a provisional crypt. After arrival of the sealer Isbjoern with the body of Knute Frankel, all three bodies will be carried from the church to the cruiser Svenskund by Swedish sailors.

A party of journalists aboard the Isbjoern reported the finding of a skeleton assumed to be that of Frankel, third member of Andree's expedition, near the spot where the bodies of Andree and Strindberg previously were discovered.

Borglum Plans New Memorial for Confederacy

ATLANTA, Sept. 8. (AP)—A new and larger conception of a Stone Mountain memorial to the Confederacy was advanced today by Gutzon Borglum, the original sculptor, whose work was blasted from the mountain several years ago after his connection with the project was terminated.

Announcement also was made a deed for the property has been turned over to Mayor-elect James L. Key for the city of Atlanta by the owners, the Venable family. The title, it was said, will be held in escrow by Mayor Key pending its official acceptance by the city and the designation of a bonded commission to take charge of plans for completion of the memorial.

STOMACH INTESTINES

LOOK AT THIS INTESTINAL TRACT! Here is where most of your ailments start. Keep this tract clean by eating 3 cakes of Fleischmann's Yeast daily, before or between meals.

© 1930, Standard Brands Incorporated

HERE IS THE WAY to radiant health: Eat yeast 3 times a day for just 2 months. And note the difference.

Doctors call it "Intestinal Fatigue"

It causes 90% of our commonest ailments, and here is the simple, sensible way that famous specialists prescribe to care for it

TROUBLED with frequent "colds," with headaches, with annoying skin blemishes? Subject to loss of appetite, to indigestion, to faulty elimination?

And do you want to trade these conditions for radiant health, for good color, for a clear skin and a trouble-free system?

Then read this : : : right to the end . . .

Nine times out of ten, all of those ailments and many more serious ills can be traced to one small portion of the human anatomy.

Doctors call this region the great danger spot, because it is the source of so much ill-health. Because its condition is so quickly reflected in your entire bodily well-being. Because it is so apt to be neglected consistently by most people.

It is in this region that the body draws sustenance from the food you eat. If it is not kept clean, waste materials collect. Poisons are generated. Bodily nourishment is hampered.

Now many people, realizing the almost universal need of attention, attempt to correct these difficulties with cathartics, laxatives, etc.

But these are temporary measures. Often they are dangerously violent. Frequently they cause more trouble than benefit. At best they bring only temporary relief.

So millions have turned to a simpler, more sensible way. A method employed by dozens of famous physicians. A method in which the foremost specialists of Europe concur. A method used successfully for 75 years.

Three times a day they eat yeast. Fleischmann's Yeast, taken in water, in milk, in milk shakes, with fruit juices, just plain : : : in any number of pleasant ways.

This food : : : for that's what yeast is : : : cleans and tones the entire digestive tract. It stimulates the intestines to normal action. It softens food residue and waste, and aids the body to sweep them away naturally.

And as waste disappears and normal intestinal action begins again, appetite returns. Poisons cease to flood the system. The skin clears. The cause of headaches has been removed. Health, radiant health, is yours.

All as the result of a simple food! A health practice that replaces habit-forming pills and drugs. Try eating yeast today.

Not a "Cure-all"... Fleischmann's Yeast is a health food thousands eat three times a day

TWO INQUIRIES BEGIN ON GRAFT

Mayor Walker Called Before New York Jury

Ewald-Healy Deal Charges Under Scrutiny

Second Quiz Centers About Magistrate's Courts

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) With Mayor Walker and George W. Olvany, former Tammany chief, called as witnesses before the special grand jury and the Mayor ordered to bring in all his records on the Ewald case, two investigations growing out of the charge that George F. Ewald paid Martin J. Healy, Tammany leader of the Nineteenth Assembly District, $10,000 to be named a city magistrate, got under way today.

The first inquiry instituted by Atty.-Gen. Ward at the instigation of Gov. Roosevelt, has to do solely with the Ewald case, and its preliminaries are in charge of Dep. Atty.-Gen. Penney.

INQUIRY AIDE PROVIDED

Hiram Todd, experienced inquisitor, has been appointed a special deputy attorney-general to assist in this investigation. An extraordinary grand jury will be sworn in next Monday and Mr. Penney and Mr. Todd will present the evidence to that body.

The second investigation is that which the Appellate Division has authorised into the magistrate's courts of the First Judicial District, comprising New York and Bronx counties. This will be conducted by Samuel Seabury, former Supreme Court justice, who returned from Europe last Friday.

For the ward investigation, subpoenas have already been served upon nineteen persons and process servers are looking for half a dozen others who apparently are keeping under cover.

Mr. Penney, in asking Mayor Walker and Mr. Olvany to appear before the grand jury, requested the Mayor to produce all documents in his possession bearing upon the appointment of Ewald, including letters written to him by Victor Ridder and the Steuben Society. These letters, he has already stated, influenced him to name Ewald to serve upon the bench, although he had never met the man.

HEALY QUIZ STARTED

Meanwhile Federal investigators today started an inquiry into the activities of Healy as deputy commissioner of plant and structures to determine if they can find the source of the $70,000 he banked during the last three years on a salary of $7000 a year.

Employees of the department from which Healy resigned after he became involved in the Ewald scandal are to be heard some time during the week by the Federal grand jury.

The government is interested in Healy's earnings in connection with the income-tax law.

Reports that Supreme Court Justice Joseph Force Crater not long before his disappearance on August 6 had a conference with Healy were denied by Healy's lawyer, Albert E. Schwartz.

UNION LABOR ROW BLAMED FOR BLAST

KANSAS CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—A dynamite bomb exploded today in a duplex apartment under construction in a south side residence district here, causing injury to one person and damage of $3000 to the building and near-by homes. Nelson B. Lewis, 18 years of age, suffered a severe cut over his right eye when the blast broke a window in his bedroom. The builder of the apartment blamed union labor troubles.

IDAHO PREXY NAMED

BOISE (Idaho) Sept. 8. (AP)—Dr. Mervin Gordon Neale, dean of the school of education, University of Missouri, was appointed president of the University of Idaho today to succeed Dr. Frederick J. Kelly, resigned.

FALL FROM BED INJURES FLYER

Al Wilson Has to Put Off His Chicago-to-Los Angeles Hop in Old Plane

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Al Wilson's take-off on a cross-country flight in a 1910 model Curtiss pusher biplane was postponed today because Wilson fell out of bed last night and dislocated two vertebrae. Wilson had planned to leave Chicago for Los Angeles today.

"I expect to be able to start Thursday or Friday," Wilson said. "And, believe me, I'll feel a lot safer when I get into my old plane than I do sleeping on the ground."

THREE OUT OF CABINET IN PANAMA

Ministers Resign Posts as Result of Dissension Over President's Favorite

PANAMA CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—Dissention in the Panama Cabinet, which had threatened an upheaval for several days, resulted today in the resignation of three members.

The men who quit—A. Robles, Minister of the Interior; T. G. Duque, Minister of Finance, and J. D. Arosemena, Minister of Foreign Affairs—protested the presence in the Cabinet of Jeptha B. Duncan, Secretary of Education, and a favorite of President Florencio Arosemena.

The National Assembly recently repudiated Duncan, requesting that the President have some one else read the Secretary's report before the body, and also suggested that Duncan resign. Since the latter enjoys the President's favor, however, it is felt there is no likelihood of his getting out.

The government did not admit officially today that the resignations had been offered, but Foreign Minister Arosemena, who is a brother of the President, told the Associated Press they had done so.

ROCHE TO HEAD G.O.P. OF STATE

Northern Aide of Hiram Johnson Slated for Post of Committee Chairman

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Theodore J. Roche, San Francisco attorney, Police Commissioner and confidant of Mayor Rolph, Republican gubernatorial nominee, is being groomed as chairman of the Republican State Central Committee to succeed Senator Merriam of Long Beach, nominee for Lieutenant-Governor.

The chairmanship is certain to come north, as under the 1929 amendment to the primary law, the post must alternate between the north and south. Roche is the law partner of Senator Johnson and Matt I. Sullivan and his election as Republican chairman is favored by a majority of Gov. Young's supporters, with whom Roche has trained in past campaigns.

The party conventions will be held in Sacramento on the 18th inst., and the new committees will meet here the 27th inst. to reorganize.

TIRE COMPANY FACES RECEIVERSHIP ACTION

JERSEY CITY (N. J.) Sept. 8. (AP)—A petition seeking an order to show cause why a receiver should not be appointed for the Kelly-Springfield Tire Company of Springfield, Mass., was filed today in Chancery Court by William George, lawyer for James A. Kelly of Jersey City and other stockholders. The petition is returnable Wednesday. The petitioners asserted the company had been losing money much of the time since 1923, which was attributed largely to the competition of mail-order houses.

MAXIM OPENS RADIO SHOW IN AUSTRALIA

HARTFORD (Ct.) Sept. 8. (AP)—A radio exposition in the Town Hall of Melbourne, Australia, was opened this morning and a flashlight of the show taken at the same time. The lights in the hall were turned on by Hiram Percy Maxim, who at 5:12 a.m., (E.S.T.) pressed a telegraph key in a local telegraph office. The electrical impulse transmitted by wire and air was received at 7:42 p.m. Australian time, or 5:27 a.m., (E.S.T.)

SPECIAL UNIT FORMED TO ENFORCE DRY LAW

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Organization of a special investigation unit of the prohibition department to handle conspiracies and other major liquor-law violations was announced today by Administrator Walker. George H. Sweet, who has been engaged in similar work in Southern California, was brought from Los Angeles to head the unit and took charge today.

MENLO PARK SEMINARY GETS NEW PRESIDENT

BALTIMORE, Sept. 8. (AP)—Very Rev. John J. Lardner, vice-president of St. Mary's Seminary, Baltimore, has been appointed president of St. Patrick's Seminary, Menlo Park, Cal., it was announced today. Father Lardner will succeed Rev. Henry Ayrinhac, who died Wednesday.

ILLINOIS DRY GROUPS SPLIT

W.C.T.U. and Other Women Ignore Candidates

They will Center Attention on Liquor Referendum

Action Differs from that of Anti-Saloon League

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The Women's Christian Temperance Union and six other Illinois women's organizations today split on policy with the Anti-Saloon League in regard to the prohibition referendum and the November Senatorial elections.

They will indorse no candidate in the United States Senatorial contest but will work to muster votes in the prohibition referendum.

This was the announcement made jointly today by Miss Helen L. Hood, president of the Illinois W.C.T.U., and Mrs. Catharine Waugh McCullough, president of the Democratic Women's Prohibition Enforcement League.

Their organizations and five others diverged from the policy announced Saturday by the Anti-Saloon League of Illinois, which urged its followers to ignore the liquor referendum and indorsed Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill as a dry, independent candidate for the Senate.

Miss Hood said that the organizations co-operating are the Women's City Club, the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs, the Democratic Women's Prohibition Enforcement League, the Methodist Women's Home Missionary Society, the Chicago Women's Church Federation, the W.C.T.U. and the Cook County League of Women Voters.

FISH HOLDING FISHER'S FISH

Piscatorial Proper Names Get Mixed Over Load of Fin Floppers

PORTLAND (Or.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Kenneth and John Fisher were arrested by Art Fish, deputy fish warden, charged with possessing unlawfully a truckload of fish.

Fish said Al Fishburn called his office to report the Fisher brothers' truck loaded with fish had upset. Fish said the Fishers said they were fishermen, but Fish put the fish in cold storage until the court decided whether the fish the Fisher brothers possessed were theirs or whether Fish could confiscate the Fisher brothers' fish.

DEATH CALLS WOMAN FAMED AS ARTIST

STAMFORD (Ct.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Rhoda Holmes Nicholls, noted artist and inventor of many implements used by water-color painters, died at her home yesterday. She was 76 years of age. She was regarded as one of the foremost painters of Venetian subjects in this country and was one of the first artists to paint colors into shadows, which gave her work as far back as 1880 the depth and brilliance of modern painting.

NATIONS UNITE FOR FARM AID

Inter-America Agricultural Conference Meets

Hyde Urges Co-operation in Attack on Surpluses

Resolution Stresses Need for Cyclone Relief

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—A simultaneous attack by all American nations upon the problem created by farm-production surpluses was recommended by Secretary Hyde today at the inaugural ceremonies of the first Inter-American Conference on Agriculture, Forestry and Animal Industry.

Secretary Hyde asked delegates to consider seriously international co-operation as a method of curing the twin evils, overproduction and low prices. He stressed the necessity for governments and associations throughout this hemisphere to realize that a program of increasing produ on efficiency is "not in itself the answer to the farmers' problems."

Following the unanimous selection of Dr. A. F. Woods, director of scientific work of the United States Department of Agriculture, as permanent chairman, and Dr. Leon M. Estabrook, also of the Agriculture Department, as secretary, a resolution was adopted by the conference urging all the governments of this hemisphere to spend every effort in procuring and transmitting financial assistance to the hurricane-stricken Dominican Republic.

NEW RCA RADIOLA SUPER-HETERODYNE

"a great advance in radio reception" says MARCONI

Senator Guglielmo Marconi, inventor of radio, testing one of the first models of the new Radiola Super-Heterodyne at his home in Rome, Italy.

Sensational new instrument ... thrilling new performance ... at a remarkably low price!

The greatest compliment a radio ever received...Marconi calls the new RCA Radiola Super-Heterodyne "a great advance in radio reception...a splendid contribution to the art!"

As the inventor of radio...as the courageous pioneer who first made it practical...as the brilliant leader of the science for 36 years, Marconi's judgment must indeed be respected.

After seven years of scientific development...after seven years of RCA sponsorship of the Super-Heterodyne principle...after an investment of millions of dollars in research...the world's most brilliant radio engineers now bring out the new RCA Radiola Super-Heterodyne!

A radio so far advanced...so skilfully engineered...so highly perfected that even Marconi, himself, was moved to praise it!

This new Radiola is not merely twice, not merely three times, but four times more sensitive than any recent model...three times more selective in getting the one station you want...without interference from others...without hum!

It reproduces the broadcast superbly...voice for voice...instrument for instrument...tone for tone...note for note!

The greatest value in Radiola history! In 1926, the Radiola Super-Heterodyne cost $570. Today, this highly perfected Radiola comes to you for the unheard of low price of $142.50, less Radiotrons.

Hear its thrilling tone...see its exquisitely designed, well-built cabinets...You'll agree that only the world's greatest manufacturer of radio could offer so much for so little...Since the best now costs no more, why not own the best?

A nominal down payment secures immediate delivery from most dealers. Ask your dealer about easy terms and liberal trade-in allowance on your present set.

NEW RADIOLA SUPER-HETERODYNE model 80 illustrated—with screen-grid, nine tuned circuits, latest electro-dynamic speaker, illuminated precision dial, push-pull amplification, improved "local-distance" switch, no A.C. hum, and beautiful new cabinets by famous designers.

SURVEYORS FIND LOST GIRL DEAD

Mystery of Missing School Secretary Solved

Apparently Killed Herself with Small Shotgun

Body Found in Ditch Along Busy Boulevard

FRESNO, Sept. 8.—The seven-day mystery of the disappearance of Fern Shultz, 20-year-old secretary at the Fresno High School, was solved today when two surveyors found her body in a shallow ditch at the north edge of the city, where she apparently had shot herself to death with a small-gauge shotgun Tuesday night.

Unrequited love for 16-year-old Ned Saxon Cole, a student at the school where she was employed, is believed by police to have been the cause of the girl's suicide, as she left a note to the boy professing her love and asserting that she had been true to him.

The boy told police Saturday that he and the girl had been "going together" for about eight months, but that he had told her a few days previously that it was best that they break off their affair because of the difference in ages.

The place where the body was found is only a few feet from Blackstone avenue, one of the most heavily traveled thoroughfares of the city, but the spot was hidden from passing motorists and pedestrians by brush which lines the bank of a disused irrigation ditch.

The girl apparently had lain in the ditch, which was less than three feet in depth, placed the muzzle of the gun against the right side of her head and pulled the trigger.

The note, dated Tuesday, said: "I have been truthful with you always, although you may not believe it. Truthful and true, too, and I loved you. Good by forever."

Detectives were talking to young Cole in the District Attorney's office when information that the girl's scene and immediately identified the girl by her dress, purse and a ring, the set of which was a dice with the "five" side up. The shotgun was lying across her left arm.

The gun was a new one, and the box in which it came was lying beside the body. A check by police this afternoon failed to reveal information concerning purchase of the weapon, and Cole said that he knew nothing of it.

CHICAGO TRADE IMPROVES

Department Stores Report Definite Sales Increase and Forecast Normal Fall Business

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—The last three weeks brought a definite improvement in retail trade, which was interpreted today by State-street merchants as a positive indication that business depression has been left behind and trade is now well launched on the upward trend. All agreed that the briskness of business with the approach of autumn gives presage of a normal fall.

The return of the pendulum was noted about August 15, last, but advances were for the most part too slight to be accepted as conclusive evidence that a marked return was imminent. With the steady increase in sales continuing in the first week of September, merchants declared that the day of hedging is past and unanimously voiced the opinion that normalcy is well on the way.

Some of the evidence cited by retail merchants to support the conclusions are:

A department store reported the biggest single day of business in its history.

Another reports an increase of 5 per cent in its volume of business as compared with the same period in 1929.

A third hailed an increase of 2 per cent.

A fourth declares a substantial increase in unit transactions and dollar volume.

Trade in luxuries such as furniture and jewelry was reported slow, but articles of good rather than cheaper quality were purchased.

A conservative merchant said:

"There has been a very substantial improvement which gives indication of a gradual return to normalcy. There is every reason to believe that the return will be complete."

Entrance Denied English Woman

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The detention at Ellis Island of Miss Elsa Hewitt, daughter of George Hewitt, a Labor member of the English Parliament, by United States immigration authorities, was revealed today when the American Civil Liberties Union announced it would protest to Secretary of Labor Davis.

Miss Hewitt arrived Thursday on the liner Resolute to teach music at the Mammit school, a labor union preparatory institution at Pawling, N. Y. Her admission was denied on the grounds that her entrance would be in violation of the antialien contract labor law.

McADOO OUT OF POLITICS "FOR GOOD"

Former Cabinet Member in Refusal of Suggestion He Run for Governor

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Sept. 8. (AP)—William G. McAdoo, former Cabinet member under President Wilson, said today he is "out of politics for good."

He made the statement in response to suggestions he run as a "dry and progressive" candidate for Governor of California at the elections this fall.

"I am well satisfied practicing law and will not be an opponent of James Rolph, Jr.," he said.

McAdoo stopped here briefly en route to Yosemite Valley with his family.

Daughter-in-Law of Grant Leaves Funds in Trust

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—The will of Mrs. Frederick Dent Grant, daughter-in-law of President Grant, filed in the District of Columbia Supreme Court today for probate creates two trust funds to continue through the lives of her two children, their children and for twenty-one years beyond the lifetime of her youngest grandchild.

Mrs. Grant, widow of Maj.-Gen. Frederick Dent Grant, died last Friday. No estimate of the value of her estate was made.

The will executed in 1926 divides her personal estate equally between her son and daughter, Lieut.-Col. Ulysses S. Grant III, and Princess Julia Grant Cantacuzene, except that Col. Grant is to receive the letters and papers of his father and grandfather, President Grant.

Young Quartet Held at Reno

RENO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The marital aspirations of four Los Angeles young people came to an unprecedented end in the Washoe County Jail here today when Sheriff Hillhouse arrested Leroy Hoffman, 16 years of age; William Okel, 15; Aileen Dietz, 14, and Margaret Hebert, 16.

The four had come here to get married, they told the Sheriff, and were carrying total assets of $3.28. They were driving an automobile registered to J. D. Okel of 1867 Lucile street, Los Angeles. Sheriff Hillhouse has advised Los Angeles authorities of their arrest.

Eight Killed by Blast on Ship

ATHENS (Greece) Sept. 8. (AP)—Eight persons are known to have been killed and it is feared many others suffered a like fate tonight as a sailing vessel, filled with oil, exploded in front of the Standard Oil depots at Drapetsonias Harbor near the Piraeus.

The vessel was blown to pieces by the blast and its flaming fragments set fire to eighteen other sailing boats and one steamship which burned rapidly.

Father Shoots Child and Self

EASTLAND'S DAUGHTER WILL MARRY BROKER

REDWOOD CITY, Sept. 8. (AP)—With the County Clerk's office opened on Sunday for their benefit, Miss Alice H. Eastland, 21 years of age, daughter of Thomas B. Eastland, Hillsborough capitalist, and Frederic Augustus Potts, New York broker, filed their declaration to wed here yesterday. The wedding, a peninsula society event, is to be performed at the Eastland home Thursday. Potts gave his age as 26 and said he lived at Red Bank, N. J.

HIGHWAY CONTRACT LET

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The State Department of Public Works announced the award of an $83,416.30 contract to the Basich Brothers Construction Company of Torrance for the grading of 4.1 miles of roadway between Redwood City and the Willow Road in San Mateo county.

NEGRESS ACCUSED OF THEFT

HANFORD, Sept. 8.—Walter Parr has accused Hattie Williams, 30-year-old Negress, of taking a pocketbook from him at the municipal auto camp grounds last night. Mrs. Williams was arrested on a charge of robbery on complaint of Parr, and is awaiting a hearing.

CURTIS DENIES PERMIT CHARGE

Vice-President "Amazed" by Campbell's Story

Lowman Also Takes Slap at Former Dry Agent

Calls Him Best Romancer of Century

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—A new prohibition controversy broke out today in Washington as high government officials retorted to charges made against them in the first of a series of articles on dry-law enforcement by Maurice Campbell, former prohibition administrator in New York.

Vice-President Curtis said he was "greatly amazed" at Campbell's statement that he influenced the issuance of alcohol permits. Seymour Lowman, Assistant Secretary of the Treasury, accused of ordering a relaxation of brewery supervision in New York during the 1928 campaign, described Campbell's story as "the greatest romance of the century."

WILL "TELL INSIDE"

The first of the Campbell articles, copyrighted by the New York World and published locally by the Washington Post, purported to start telling the "inside story" of dry-law enforcement. Campbell declared that he proposed to demonstrate that Treasury officials are "not sincere" and that "prohibition can not be enforced, chiefly because of politics." In addition to Vice-President Curtis and Mr. Lowman, Campbell charged several other officials, including Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, with political interference with his activities.

The Vice-President's influence, Campbell asserted, caused him to issue one permit against his better judgment to a concern soon afterward caught illegally diverting alcohol. He stated further that Mr. Curtis's campaign managers made life miserable for him with pressure to issue permits to companies "which, in my view, were dubious."

CURTIS "AMAZED"

"I was greatly amazed," said Mr. Curtis today, "to read the statement in Maj. Campbell's article on prohibition enforcement that I, while a Senator, had 'used my influence' in Washington and caused him to issue an alcohol permit.

"I have never used my influence either directly or indirectly to have such a permit issued, and if my name was used by anyone it was done without my knowledge or consent. I did not at any time back campaign managers or anyone else by my influence in Washington for the purpose of obtaining alcohol permits, as asserted by Maj. Campbell."

Attacking Lowman, who before July 1 was in charge of prohibition enforcement in the Treasury and still supervises customs and the Coast Guard, Campbell said the Treasury official "frankly declared that the voters of New York should have beer to soothe their parched throats" before the 1928 Hoover-Smith election.

"HORSES DIED"

"I have read Chapter I," commented Lowman in a formal statement, "and would judge that the story is the greatest romance of the century.

"Maj. Campbell was a horse doctor in the Army. The horses died. He was a moving-picture magnate. The company went bankrupt. As prohibition administrator he failed to dry up New York. He had a free hand.

"As an author, his imagination beats that of Dante. I have nothing further to say now."

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon was out of the city and could not be reached for a statement in reply to Campbell's charges involving him.

'Lost' Tacoman in Los Angeles

TACOMA (Wash.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Earl A. Williams, Tacoma schoolteacher who disappeared Saturday under circumstances which led police to believe he might have been murdered, tonight telegraphed to his wife that he is in Los Angeles. "Here, but how. Will write details later," the cryptic message said.

Better Wheat Prices Sighted

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—Better prices for wheat were predicted by Chairman Legge of the Farm Board today on the theory the use of farm stocks for livestock feed and better-than-normal export demand will convince the trade wheat is on a domestic basis.

The chairman said farmers can afford to feed wheat at $1 a bushel.

STAGE RUNS WILD AS TIRE BLOWS OUT

WATSONVILLE, Sept. 8. (AP)—Fifteen passengers escaped unhurt when a westbound Pickwick stage blew out a front tire and ran wild through an apple orchard near here late today. When the heavy stage left the road it crashed through a fence, demolished a bridge, tore out a large walnut tree by the roots and uprooted apple trees before coming to a stop.

SILO GAS FATAL TO FOUR IN FAMILY

HEBRON (N. D.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Four persons were asphyxiated while cleaning a silo on a farm near here today. The poisonous gas is believed to have formed from decayed silage in a pit at the bottom of the silo. The dead are: Tony Neiderhardt, 58 years of age; his two daughters, Freda and Martha, and a son, John.

BANK CLERK ACCUSED

SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—A Federal complaint was issued late today against Joseph Gietsen, 37 years of age, for the past seventeen years a clerk in the Wells Fargo Bank and Union Trust Company, charging him with falsification of the bank's records in the amount of $14,000.

VIDOR WILL DIRECT TIBBETT

Noted Film Guide Chosen by M.-G.-M. for "Southerner;" Dorothy Lee Cast in "Hook, Line and Sinker;" Carmel Myers to Appear on Stage

BY MURIEL BABCOCK

King Vidor will direct the next Lawrence Tibbett picture, "The Southerner."

King Vidor

This, an original story by Bess Meredyth and Wells Root, will be, as you may have guessed from its title, laid in the South. What is better, it will give Tibbett, the screen's first baritone, an opportunity to let his voice boom out in a lot of grand old southern melodies and Negro spirituals.

It will be started, according to studio announcement, as soon as "The New Moon" the current Tibbet production is completed. It will be Vidor's second picture this year, and follows "Billy, the Kid," which the previewers are about unanimous in pronouncing one of the best bets of the season. Vidor, of course, did "Hallelujah."

The story is a modern one. This, too, is not surprising, inasmuch as Miss Meredyth and Mr. Root are known as experts on stories of today.

Youthful Actress Chosen

Young Miss Dorothy Lee, who has been coming along at a fast gait on the R.-K.-O. lot, is going to play the lead in "Hook, Line and Sinker," the new Robert Woolsey - Bert Wheeler picture.

DOROTHY LEE

Miss Lee, as movie-goers who saw "Cuckoos," "Rio Rita" and "Dixiana," know is a petite brunette. Her work in the past hasn't been entirely confined to pictures, in fact, she appeared in "Rah, Rah Daze" at the Mason only a few months ago. The bureau of matrimonial statistics volunteers the information that she is engaged to marry James M. Fidler, publicist.

"Hook, Line and Sinker" will go into production shortly.

Stage Role for Carmel Myers

Here comes Carmel Myers with a neat part in a stage play.

Arthur Collins, who is producing "Death Takes a Holiday" on the Pacific Coast, told me last evening that Miss Myers would play the important role of the vampire in the drama.

CARMEL MYERS.

"Death Takes a Holiday" was done last December at the Ethel Barrymore Theater in New York. It is an adaptation of an Italian drama.

Collins, who did "Fata Morgana," with Elsie Ferguson, recently here, plans to complete his casting and start rehearsals by Friday. The play may open here at the Biltmore, or may start on its way in San Francisco.

Miriam Hopkins Signed

"The Best People" which Paramount produced at its east coast studio must be quite a picture. A lot of people seem to be getting good contracts out of it.

Today it's Miriam Hopkins, who was plucked from the cast of the Aristophanes Greek comedy, "Lysistrata" to appear in "The Best People."

Under the terms of her contract—a long-term one—she will continue on the stage this current season, but will appear before the cameras in at least another picture this fall.

More Modern Youth for Joan

Joan Crawford's next for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer will be "Within the Law."

And next after that—according to news yesterday—will be "Girls Together," a story of modern and youthful femininity by Mildred Cram. The narrative, which, very probably in picture form, will be along the lines of "Our Modern Maidens" and its sequels, will be published this fall in College Humor.

"Little Orchid Annie" Again

Another stage note. "Little Orchid Annie" in which Ruth Taylor once appeared at the Mayan, is due for revival. It opens on the 29th inst., in San Francisco at the Geary Theater and comes here later. No cast is yet announced and it understood that the comedy has been well worked over.

Boulevard Jottings

Wallace Beery's laryngitis is better. So much better, in fact, that Wally goes to work today. He will report at San Pedro where the "Dark Star" cast is on location, making a fishing village scene . . . William Collier, Sr., is working with John Ford on the script for Ford's next picture for Fox. Collier is not only helping to concoct the tale, but he's writing in a part for himself. It is a naval story . . . Dorothy Arzner, Paramount director, is off to New York, where she will find her next piece of work. Hector Turnbull has gone, too.

Heard At the Studios

Frank Conroy, Theater Guild actor, has been given a role in "The Royal Family," which Paramount is doing in New York. This is the picture based on Edna Ferber's and George S. Kaufman's story of the Barrymore family. Ina Claire, Frederic March and others have roles.

Word comes that Universal will make "The Cohens and Kellys in Africa" in a Spanish version. They are looking for a Latin Irishman and a Latin Jewish gentleman to fill the Charlie Murray, George Sidney roles.

Two new stars' bungalows are going up side by side on the Pathe lot. One is intended for Constance Bennett, the other for Ann Harding. Incidentally, Miss Harding left yesterday for San Francisco with her sister, Mrs. Norman Evans, who is visiting here from New York. They will return the end of the week.

TOY HART'S HEART TOY OF FICKLE

Girl of Prophetic Name Seeks Love Balm Now of Second Suitor

Miss Toy Hart, who twice in two years has sued different men for breach of promise to marry, followed her second suit on file yesterday with an action to confirm her in possession of the $750 automobile she says was given her by her jilting sweetheart, Samuel Stotsky. In addition to the automobile Miss Hart wants $100,000 heart balm.

The latest value Miss Hart places on her plighted troth represents a 100 per cent increase over the worth of her affections assertedly flouted in 1928 by Garry Haynes, bond broker, who, says Miss Hart in another breach-of-promise suit, sought her hand in marriage and sent her a bouquet each day for six months. Haynes was sued for only $50,000. This action is pending but no court order has been made on it for several months.

Stotsky asked Miss Toy to marry him February 1, last, according to her complaint. Since then it is asserted, although Miss Toy has repeatedly asked him to carry out the terms of his asserted agreement, he has refused to do so, she says.

MORE FUNDS GIVEN ISLE CHAMBER

Honolulu Official Budget Increased $3000 to Build Up Stronger Staff

An appropriation of $9000 for the maintenance of the Honolulu branch office of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce was increased to $12,000 a year by the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors yesterday. It was pointed out by A. G. Arnoll, secretary and general manager of the chamber, that the increase is necessary to efficiency.

Secretary Arnoll told the board that when men of ability are placed in the office they are soon lured into island industries by a better salary.

The office, now in charge of J. David Larson, former secretary of the Long Beach chamber, acts as a contact office for shippers, planters and merchants doing business with the Pacific Coast.

Charge Against Hart Dismissed

Vagrancy charges against Herman Hart, asserted Chicago gangster and member of the gang of Frankie Foster, accused of the slaying of Jake Lingle, Chicago newspaper reporter, were dismissed yesterday by Municipal Judge Bogue at the request of Deputy City Prosecutor Hamilton on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

Hart, at the time of his arrest, was said by police to have been slated as brewmaster of a brewery which the Foster gang expected to start here.

DOG STAR'S SALARY BASIS OF LAWSUIT

Charging that he failed to receive payment for the use of Peter the Great, Jr., cinema police dog, for a "demonstrator," John Stiglitz, his owner, yesterday filed suit in Municipal Court for $225 against Carl Spitz, dog trainer. S. S. Hahn, attorney who filed the complaint, asserts that Spitz used the dog for twelve days during June, July and August, 1929, at an agreed rate of $10 a day to show prospective clients what police dogs could be trained to do, and that he failed to pay for the use of the dog. Hahn also asks $105 for Stiglitz's services.

ALHAMBRA DOCTOR SUFFERS DOG BITE

Dr. Maude Pettefer of Alhambra was injured at Manhattan Beach yesterday. While trying to protect a small black spanaiel from the attacks of a larger dog, she was bitten on the left arm by the infuriated animal when it sprang at her. Dr. Pettefer was rushed to Alhambra where her husband, Dr. Ambrose Pettefer gave her first aid. The wound was cauterized. Dr. Pettefer has spent the summer in her cottage on the Strand at Thirty-first street.

PLAYGOERS HAIL GRACIOUS STAR

Katharine Cornell in Debut of Importance Here

'Dishonored Lady' Presents Her as Borgia

Biltmore First-Nighters Pay Tribute

BY PHILIP K. SCHEUER

Katharine Cornell, lovely Borgia lady, came farthest west to the Biltmore Theater last night; and an assemblage of playgoers, tuxedoed and gowned, recognized her with an insistent applause that would hardly die down. The occasion was the performance of a curiously tragic, unremittingly dark drama such as might have been spun by some sorcerer of the middle ages. Having as its origin the strange case of Madeleine Smith of Glasgow, a murderess who set Scotland and the larger world by the ears some years past, the play presents primarily a study in scarlet. Madeleine Smith is Madeleine Cary, and Madeleine Cary is Madeleine Smith; but where are your sympathies?

Your sympathies are extended to Miss Cornell, who, in a flawless execution of technique, actually wrenches your heart when she has no right to. "Dishonored Lady" is well named; Madeleine Cary would be the first to tell you. "I'm like that. I'm rotten through and through," she cries there at the end; it might have been Iris March, wearer of a green hat, speaking. And Madeleine Cary is right again when she gives warning to Dennis, Marquis of Farnborough—"Your loyalties are all mixed up." To be sure; and ours, too.

RIGHTNESS QUESTIONED

"Dishonored Lady" is an absorbing document, a narrative of a crime and its sequel. Its justification is, first, that it brings Miss Cornell to Los Angeles for an appearance on the stage; second, that it presents its facts chronologically and with respect for theatrical laws. Yet in the last analysis it is off-center; it is not always a good show.

I am not referring here to the fact that it is tragic; that in itself would be no handicap; but rather to its unfulfillment as a unity of the theater. This play by Margaret Ayer Barnes and Edward Sheldon leaves us like an expiring breath, a breath as completely inadequate of expression as that which carries Madeleine Cary's curtain line across the lights to us. Madeleine Cary's curtain line is, "Ah, well."

This is after she has been acquitted of the charge of murdering Jose Moreno; acquitted because a devoted friend, Larry Brennan, lied on the witness stand for her; after her father, a heart-broken shadow, has been driven from his home in sorrow to forget if he can; and after the Marquis, her fiance, has heard from her own lips the careless, uncaring passion that preceded her crime passional.

OTHER SCENES GRIP

Perhaps, after all this, her "Ah, Well" is life, life having a way of being undramatic—but this is Act III, Scene 2, of a play in the theater.

Other scenes, other acts, are not disappointing. Last night's audience was held vise-like through the many inevitable episodes which led at last to—nothing. I do not know of any moments in recent years, indeed, which equal, in sheer power, those inspired by the Miss Cornell in the apartment of Jose Moreno. It is dawn; Moreno has just gasped his end; Madeleine Cary must go about the ugly business of destroying the evidence of her crime, must draw from his pocket a letter which would hopelessly incriminate her. As she finishes, the police are heard at the door. It is a monumental piece of acting, Miss Cornell's; the best curtain in the play.

A thoroughly competent supporting cast lent illusion to the dark world of Madeleine Cary. Ruth Fallows earned a niche of her own by her work as Rosie Walsh, sweetheart of the murdered man. The victim was realized, with swarthy accents, by S. Herbert Braggiotti. Fred L. Tiden played the woman's father, and Paul Harvey her best friend. Charles Francis had the role of the Marquis, and Harvey Stephens that of the man from the District Attorney's office. Others were Portia Morrow, Lewis A. Sealy and Jimmy Daniels.

But the significance of the evening was that Katharine Cornell, an actress of graciousness, ravishment and authority had come to town—an honored lady of the stage in short, as a dishonored one of the script.

Ex-Pugilists Play Roles in 'The Squealer'

As likely looking convicts, all the available ex-pugilists in the city were engaged for the jailbreak sequence in "The Squealer," now showing at the R.-K.-O. Theater, according to an announcement. Many of these will be remembered by followers, the list including Sid Marks, Young Abe Attell, Jack Silver, Ice Richie, Jack Miller, Jimmy Lyle, Red Fitzsimmons, Al Smith, Barney Tooley and John Lester Johnson.

In the Columbia underworld drama the leading roles are played by Jack Holt, Dorothy Revier, Davey Lee and Matt Moore. Harry Joe Brown directed.

The current vaudeville program at the R.-K.-O. is headed by Charles Withers in "Withers' Opry." Other acts are "Scooter" Lowry, Harrison, Swan and Lucille and La Marr and Boice.

Ellis Portrays Two Characters

Robert Ellis is appearing on the screen at two local theaters this week. He has widely different roles in "The Squealer" at the R.-K.-O. and "What Men Want" at the Majestic.

Ellis is seen as a gangster in the former production, which is a Columbia feature, while he has a sympathetic character role in the latter picture, a Universal product.

Comedy Solves Parental Mix-ups

Minor Watson
Enacts the leading male role in "It's a Wise Child," now attracting attention to the Belasco Theater.

Belasco Story will Play on Warner Screen

Although David Belasco is principally known as a producer of plays, he is also entitled to credit as an author, having written several plays. One outstanding piece was "The Girl of the Golden West," which comes to Warner Brothers' Hollywood Theater Friday, with Ann Harding in the name role.

Belasco, not only wrote the play, but produced it as well. The drama ran in New York for nearly two years, with Blanche Bates, Frank Keenan, James Kirkwood and Lowell Sherman in the original cast. That was in 1905.

In the film, James Rennie plays the part of Johnson, the road agent, while Harry Bannister has the role of Jack Rance, the Sheriff. "Old English" closes Friday.

Action Scope in Films and Stage Noted

The opportunities which the screen affords for dramatic presentation as compared to the stage is illustrated in "The Bad Man," according to Howard Estabrook, who wrote the screen version and dialogue for this melodrama now showing at Warner Brothers' Downtown Theater. The story embraces a wide scope of action, only part of which would be set upon the stage.

"It is still a moot question whether the screen should, in adapting successes from the stage, confine itself to the limited locale with which the stage must be content," declares Estabrook. "I am willing to admit that there are dramas so well constructed as stage plays that to tamper with them in their screen adaptation would be unwise. However, a play of the type of "The Bad Man," with its sweeping action and opportunity for outdoor shots is far better for the scope that the screen can give it."

Actor Relates Anecdote About English Talkie

Bramwell Fletcher, who appears as Bunny in "Raffles" at Pantages Hollywood Theater, was "pioneering" in British talkies as recently as fifteen months ago. He has amusing anecdotes of his first talkie, "To What Red Hell!" which was the first talkie made in a studio near London, and also near — too near—a railway line.

When officials had the prehearing of the picture, at 3 a.m. in one of the few London cinemas then wired for sound, there was an extraneous "blackground" noise which rose and fell, at times competing with the actors' voices for attention. It was the rattle of trains passing the imperfectly sound-proofed studio!

Most of the film, in which Fletcher was starred, had to be remade, which was barely done in time to enable him to reach New York for early rehearsals of "Scotland Yard," in which he made his American stage debut.

VACATION PLANNED BY ALAN CROSLAND

Alan Crosland is planning a vacation after he completes the direction of "Children of Dreams." He has worked steadily for Warner Brothers for five years and among other pictures handled the production of Warners' first operetta, "Viennese Nights."

Now working on the second Romberg-Hammerstein operetta, "Children of Dreams," Crosland will complete his task next week.

CAMERA TESTS NOT USED IN ENGLAND

Jameson Thomas, English actor, never took a camera test until he arrived in Hollywood recently, it is said. "In Europe, the producers take a look at the actor's most recent picture, and if they like him, he gets the role," Thomas explains.

CANNERIES FILMED

Complete operations of salmon canneries were photographed as interesting backgrounds in Radio Pictures' "The Silver Horde."

Patio Cabaret Proves Popular at Playhouse

Audiences continue to be attracted to the patio cabaret which is an added attraction at the Hollywood Playhouse where "Good Old Days" starts its second week tonight.

Kolb and Dill, stars of the production, have had erected a large mahogany bar in the Hollywood Playhouse patio and refreshments are served to patrons during intermission. In addition there is a musical program furnished by the Kolb and Dill Croonnetts.

"Good Old Days" is also attracting interest, it is said, in view of the fact that several members of the supporting cast are well known to motion-picture audiences. Marguerite De La Motte and Franklyn Farnum formerly were prominent in films.

Hill Billies to Appear in Stage Show at Chinese

The Beverly "Hill-billies" are coming to Hollywood. These phantom mountaineers whose voices have been heard over the radio have been signed for the stage show in connection with "Hell's Angels" at Grauman's Chinese Theater. They will make their bedut tomorrow.

Mister Tall Feller (Glen Rice,) who introduces them over the microphone will officiate at the Chinese. Ezra sings and plays the violin, Lem handles the guitar, Dave yodels with his guitar, Hank manipulates a violin and Zeke plays the concertina.

The report is that Glen Rice discovered this group living in the hills of Beverly and persuaded them to come to the radio station every night except Monday.

Noted Group in M.-G.-M. Picture

The M.-G.-M. combination that proved successful in producing "Our Dancing Daughters" is again in evidence in "Our Blushing Brides," which is scheduled for the Boulevard screen starting Thursday. It includes Joan Crawford, Anita Page, Dorothy Sebastian and Director Harry Beaumont.

The lives of three modern girls are followed in the picture and their love affairs with three boys, played by Robert Montgomery, Raymond Hackett and John Miljan.

"On Your Back" will end its engagement tomorrow.

FILM COMEDIAN SETTLES ISSUE

Shakespeare or Bacon Wins But Actress Doesn't Recall Which

Students seeking enlightenment on the oft-debated question, "who wrote the works of the Bard of Avon, Shakespeare or Bacon?" should interview Edward Everett Horton, comedian of "Holiday," which is now showing at the Carthay Circle Theater.

Ann Harding, star of the film, confesses that Horton's deep interest in the subject was so thorough and exhaustive that she is now confused as to which it was. It seems she casually expressed her own opinion that Shakespeare himself authored the immortal tragedies, comedies and poems. This happened between scenes at the studio, and started the discussion. Horton said little.

Next morning, the comedian and his valet appeared on the set with twenty odd volumes, all written to prove or disprove Shakespeare's place in the hall of fame. There were so many that Miss Harding became too confused to remember who had the most volumes in his favor, Shakespeare or Bacon. Or, any way, so the story goes.

TWO SIGNED FOR MAYAN PRODUCTION

Fred Scott, Leota Lane Added to Player Cast of "Temptations of 1930"

Fred Scott, the radio singer developed by Pathe into a film player, and Leota Lane, who has appeared in several Broadway successes, have been signed by Franklin Productions for "The Temptations of 1930," which starts on the 22nd inst. at the Mayan Theater.

Scott was featured in "The Grand Parade" and "Swing High" by Pathe. Leota Lane is as well known on the stage as is her sister, Lola Lane, on the screen.

In addition to the 100 girls LeRoy Prinz is training for the dances and ensembles, "The Temptations of 1930" will offer a score of specialty people in novelty acts. With the opening two weeks away, day and night rehearsals are in order, it is said.

Viennese Star to Appear at Loew's State

LOTTI LODER

Lotti Loder, Viennese stage star imported for motion pictures, and LeRoy Prinz, impresario, will exhibit their talents, before and behind scenes, in the Fanchon and Marco "New Yorker" stage idea starting Thursday at Loew's State.

Miss Loder will exhibit the personality which won her note on the stages of the capitals of Europe, prior to her acquisition by Warner Brothers for motion-picture work.

Prinz staged the last Earl Carroll "Vanities," and has about twenty-seven other New York successes to his credit. From now on he will be active in the staging of forthcoming Fanchon and Marco ideas.

Norma Shearer in "Let Us Be Gay" will be the featured screen attraction.

Star Becomes Comedienne in Latest Vehicle

From her dramatic role in "The Trespasser," Gloria Swanson, emotional actress, has become again Gloria Swanson, the comedienne. The star has turned to the field of comedy to achieve further success as the dashing madcap in "What a Widow!" which has its world premiere at the United Artists' Theater Friday.

The story, by Josephine Lovett, with dialogue by James Gleason and James Seymour, is built for laughing purposes, it is said, with the comedy enhanced by the settings of smartness for which Miss Swanson is noted.

In the matter of clothes she has surpassed all her previous records, according to report.

Starling Farce Well Received at Vine Street

Lynn Starling's engaging comedy, "A Cup of Sugar," with Dorothy Mackaye featured, is proving popular at the Vine Street Theater, where it is showing currently.

Lorin Raker, who stepped into the role opposite Miss Mackaye on a few days' notice, has come in for a large measure of praise from audiences, it is said.

Douglas Gilmore, Kathryn Givney, Dina Smirnova, Boyd Irwin, Maurice Brierre and Charles Moore complete the cast. The play is in its second week.

New Picture in Spanish Booked

Ernesto Vilches, Rosita Moreno, La Argentinita, Luis Yance, Juan Pulido, Barry Norton, Ramon Pereda and other Spanish-speaking players are featured in the Spanish production, "Galas de la Paramount," which will open at the International California Theater Friday.

"Galas de la Paramount" also includes in its cast Maurice Chevalier, Nino Martini, Eugene Pallette, Clara Bow, George Bancroft, Mitzi Green, Buddy Rogers and William Powell. The picture has several scenes in Technicolor.

Recitalist to Appear Today

Ethel Elliott Swan, dramatic recitalist, will present a reading of Booth Tarkington's comedy, "Mister Antonio," in the May Company's Exposition Hall this afternoon.

In Mrs. Swan's interpretation, the itinerant Tony, "Mister Antonio," whose philosophy is to laugh his way through life, breathes a new spirit of optimism, it is reported. The recital will be presented in collaboration with the University of California extension division.

FOLLIES SHOW PLEASES

The production "Smiling Eyes," now playing at the Follies, holds up to the standard established by previous shows. Following Grover Frankie's ensemble display, a script of smart dialogue is unfolded, and the comics, Charles Fagan and George Clark, entertain with snappy lines and humorous situations. Jacques Wilson is the soubrette, and pleases with songs and dances.

SHIPPING BOARD HITS RAIL PLAN

Joins Intercoastal Lines in Espee Rate Case

Protests Plea for Favorable Differential Cut

Examiner Disque's Findings Rapped in Brief

BY WALDO DRAKE

The United States Shipping Board yesterday joined forces with intercoastal ship lines using the Panama Canal against plans of the Southern Pacific Company to meet competition of coast-to-coast all-water lines. By reducing the 10 per cent favorable differential accorded the ship lines over transcontinental rail lines, the Southern Pacific seeks to divert a large portion of traffic via its rail-and-water "Sunset-Gulf route."

The Shipping Board has filed a brief of exceptions with the Interstate Commerce Commission against the Southern Pacific plan, declaring it would "divert a large portion, if not all, of the intercoastal water traffic and thus cripple the water carriers." The brief is in exception to a proposed report of Interstate Commerce Commission Examiner William A. Disque, which would recommend a scale of rates on coast-to-coast freight over the Southern Pacific's rail lines from California points of origin to Houston and Galveston and thence to North Atlantic ports via steamers of the Morgan Line, owned by the Southern Pacific. These proposed new rates would lower the present 10 per cent differential favoring the intercoastal lines.

"It is inconceivable," says the Shipping Board, "that Congress would spend hundreds of millions of dollars in the building of the Panama Canal if other legislation made it possible for a government agency to nullify its investment in large measure by granting such relief to transcontinental railroads, as would result in the diversion of a large portion, if not all, of the intercoastal water traffic and thus cripple the water carriers."

The brief further charges that Examiner Disque's recommendations are "in conflict with the declared purpose of Congress as set forth in the Merchant Marine acts, the Panama Canal Act and the Transportation Act." The document stresses the point that the Morgan Line is not part of the American Merchant Marine, in that it is part of the Southern Pacific system and not "within the purview of the various acts of Congress having in view the development and maintenance of an adequate American merchant marine."

WHALER BUNKERING CREATES SITUATION

A definite precedent relative to bunker fuel is expected to be established in the outcome of the case between the Harbor Department and agents of the giant Norwegian whaling steamer Kosmos, which loaded 137,430 barrels of fuel oil here on August 31, last, as "bunkers."

The Harbor Department has billed owners of the Kosmos $368.78 for full pilotage charges, on the basis that not all of this fuel oil is to be used by the vessel herself during her Antarctic whaling operations, but that a material portion of the oil is for the seven small "killer" steamers which catch whales for the factory ship in the Ross Sea. The ship's agents contend that the ruling applies which provides that ships calling here for bunkers and stores only will pay but half-pilotage.

Port Traffic Manager Jay G. Starr yesterday countered these claims by pointing to the Harbor Department ruling which says that a vessel is entitled to half-pilotage rates only when the fuel, stores and water taken aboard are "for use of that vessel only." Mr. Starr declared that the case of the Norwegian whaler C. A. Larsen, which was accorded courtesy of the port in 1928, is not applicable in the present dispute, because free pilotage was given the C. A. Larsen as a courtesy to Admiral Byrd and his party.

Mrs. Eva D. Edwards, 83 years of age, Covina pioneer, returned home yesterday aboard the Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Shinyo Maru after a 15,000-mile tour of the Asian interior.

Fifty cabin passengers came in from Shanghai and way ports on the liner and she discharged 1000 tons of freight. She will sail for the Orient tomorrow afternoon after embarking seventy-five travellers and loading 500 tons of cargo.

A total of 47,000 stems of bananas will have been discharged at the port during the forty-eight hours ending tonight. Yesterday, the Norwegian motorship Benjamin Franklin completed unloading of 12,000 stems from the Canal; today the British liners Parthenia and Pacific Enterprise will each finish discharge of 15,000 stems of Canal Zone bananas, while this morning the little motorship Camina is due from Tomato Bay with 5000 stems.

Several hundred members of the New England States Society and their friends will make a tour of the port next Saturday as the guests of the Harbor Department. The fifteen-mile tour will get under way from the First-street landing at 3 p.m.

Mrs. William A. Young, Jr., wife of the vice-president and passenger-traffic manager of both the Panama Mail Steamship Company and W. R. Grace & Co., sailed for New York last night aboard the Panama Mail liner Gautemala.

Also among the steamer's eighty passengers is Gabino Mata, former Secretary of Agriculture for Salvador, en route to Acajutla.

Capt. Jakov Misetich yesterday brought his seventy-seven-foot purse seiner Lucky Star to port under her own power after she had struck a submerged rock Sunday while fishing off Pelican Bay, Santa Cruz Island. She was raised on dry dock at the Garbutt & Walsh yards for survey and repairs.

Total of State and Municipal Borrowings Up

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—For the eight months' period ending August 31 the average annual output of new issues of State and municipal bonds over the past ten years was just over $900,000,000. For eight months of this year the total, as reported by the Daily Bond Buyer of New York, is $961,758,465, showing an increase of almost $100,000,000 over the corresponding period in 1929.

In the record year, 1924, flotations for the eight months' period exceeded the current year by slightly more than $100,000,000. Since the close of the war the annual volume of municipal financing has fluctuated within a remarkably narrow range, the indicated average monthly output of new issues being just over $100,000,000.

The following table prepared by the Daily Bond Buyer of New York, compares municipal bond sale totals in July for the past ten years:

Tobacco Profits Lower for Year

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Universal Leaf Tobacco Company and subsidiaries reported today consolidated net income for the year ended June 30, last, of $964,466, after all charges, including taxes, against $1,311,677 for the preceding year. Gross sales aggregated $14,466,322 against $21,253,782 a year ago.

After payment of $508,740 in preferred dividends and $400,731 in common dividends, $56,995 was carried to surplus against $453,496 the previous year. Surplus account which stood at $5,039,380 a year ago was depleted by $941,378 for stock dividends on common stock and by $500,000 for setting up a contingent liability reserve. After other lesser adjustments the surplus account on June 30, last, stood at $3,647,292.

BUILDING COMPANY TELLS EARNINGS

Consolidated net earnings of Starrett Corporation after all charges for eight months ended August 31, last, were at the yearly rate of $3.07 per common share as against $3.50 a share for the last fiscal year, according to a statement issued yesterday by the building and investment company. Col. William A. Starrett, president, said that present improved operations assure increased earnings for the remaining four months so that net earnings for the full year should be equal to last year.

REVIEW SUPPORTS STOCK INVESTMENT

"In the present period of readjustment which is following the sharp break in the great bull market of last year, common stocks have been widely condemned, and their faults lie glaringly exposed," says the September number of Coupon Clippings, monthly financial magazine published by Revel Miller & Co. True merits are easily overlooked, it is pointed out, and likewise, the basic cause for the present ill repute of common stocks is neglected.

GAS UTILITY EXPANDS

CHICAGO, Sept. 8.—Missouri Kansas Pipe Line Company is now distributing natural gas in Tell City, Ind., Bowling Green and Whitesville, Ky. This brings the number of cities being served by Missouri Kansas from its own pipe lines to twenty-seven.

"The larger radio stations have talented performers for all types of entertainment and the lists are always full. Of course, if anybody has a specialty that is really new and novel or can actually do better work than our present staff, naturally we want to meet them. But, so far, at least, although the public makes a fine audience, it has not been able to contribute very materially to programs."

So explains one local radio station as the reason why auditions are not granted to the general public.

It is to be hoped that if "the waiting lists are always full" a little exercise will be given them now and then. No matter how excellent a program or an artist may be—the public gradually becomes restive and enjoys a change. There is only one situation where mankind will at least endure if not always enjoy the same artists "from now on"—that is in matrimony. Of course, they listen to their employers, too, but they're paid for that. But in radio, as on the stage or in the talkies, the cards of entertainment should be shuffled and dealt over and over again. The difficult part of it is that the public will not tell when they are too pained to listen—they simply twirl the dial to something else.

THEY TELL US THAT

Jo and Vi over KHJ at 4 o'clock tonight. They celebrate an event of double importance, their sixth wedding anniversary and their radio debut. A surprise party on Vi without letting her know has possibilities.

"The listeners test their wits by detecting and correcting the mistakes deliberately injected into C.B.S." "What's Wrong With This Picture?" at 8 o'clock over KHJ." Now there's a whoopee night for musical detectives.

KFWB phones to say at 8:30 p.m. they're going to honor the "Bad Man." It shouldn't be so bad to dial.

KECA has a trio of N.B.C. programs starting at 5:30 p.m. and lasting until 7 p.m.

KECA at 7 o'clock offers fifteen minutes of "Hollywood Hams." They're honest about it, anyway. But they're good, too.

At 6:15 o'clock tonight KFI boosts you to the Mayan Theater stage to listen to a program about the "Temptations of 1930."

We had a visitor the other day—Earl Kass, who will sing tonight over KFI at 6 o'clock. We have many friends come in each day—but some we look forward to meeting again and he is one of them. Earl is blind but it has heightened his artistry and you will like his singing.

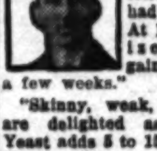
When television does come some studios will be full of "air-door Johnnies" waiting for the beautiful Miss Whoosis to get off the air. As it is, without television he'll be taking a sporting chance.

Oh, yeah, Dick Creedon phoned to say the S. & W. Forum over KHJ tonight is—well, scrumptious. Sol Hoopi and his Hawaiians; A er Uh Euphonium—an instrument that plays itself, and Ted Osborne in a skit titled "Radio, As You Don't Like It" are highlights.

OIL MERGER SUIT SUMMARY PREPARED

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Summary of the evidence and testimony of witnesses for the government and the Standard Oil Company of New York and the Vacuum Oil Company given at hearings in the suit to prevent the proposed merger of these companies has been prepared by Fred L. Williams, special master, and presented to the United States Court of the Eastern District of Missouri. As the final argument has been set for October 6 and 7, it is not considered likely that a decision will be reached before the end of this year.

I Was Skinny, Rundown. Gained 34 lbs in Few Weeks



"I was so skinny and run-down friends thought I had a fatal disease. At last I tried Ironized Yeast and gained 34 pounds in a few weeks." —Paul Blanch.

"Skinny, weak, nervous people are delighted as new Ironized Yeast adds 5 to 15 lbs. in 3 weeks. Changes "scarecrow" body quick to strong, well-developed form. Blotchy skin clears like magic. Nervousness, indigestion, constipation end overnight. Sound sleep, pep quick.

Two great tonics in one—special weight-building Brewers Yeast and strengthening Iron. Pleasant little tablets. Far stronger than unmedicated yeast. Results in ½ time. No yeasty taste, no gas.

Don't be "skinny," tired, unattractive. Get Ironized Yeast from druggist today. Feel great tomorrow. Money back from manufacturer if not delighted with results. —[Advertisement.

NEW GIANT IN COPPER FORECAST

Phelps Dodge-Nichols Merger to Make Third Largest in Industry

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) It is expected that after the merger of the Phelps-Dodge Corporation and the Nichols Copper Company is consummated, there will be developments in the plan to consolidate the Phelps-Dodge and Calumet and Arizona Mining companies. Should that plan go through, as is deemed likely, the combined companies would constitute the third largest copper unit in the country, with assets aggregating approximately $340,000,000.

The present status of the plan to combine the Phelps-Dodge Corporation and the Calumet and Arizona Mining Company is that the engineers of each company are examining the physical properties of the other in an endeavor to arrive at a true estimate of their value. That survey, which has been in progress for several months, should be completed within a few weeks, it is said. The directors of each company then will examine the report on their properties made by experts of the other company and compare with their own appraisals.

In the meanwhile it will be necessary to appraise the other assets of each company, a process which will take some time longer. Ultimately when all data have been assembled, it is expected that a basis of exchange of stock will have been reached.

No discussion of terms of combining have been formally held by the boards of either company so far, but individual views have been expressed. They have revealed quite a variance between ideas of Phelps-Dodge interests and the Calumet and Arizona management. Ideas of exchange of stock range all the way from one and three-quarter shares of Phelps-Dodge stock to one of Calumet and Arizona, to a ratio of four for one on the basis of the present market for the respective shares. The one and three-quarter-to-one ratio would be about right. On the basis of number of shares outstanding the ratio would be about two-and-one-half for one.

New Seaboard Head Elected

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) John M. Lovejoy, well-known Oklahoma oil operator, was elected president today of the Mexican Seaboard Oil Company succeeding Harris Hammond who was elevated to the position of chairman of the board of directors.

C. P. Watson, also an operator in Oklahoma, was elected vice-president of the company. Mexican Seaboard has extensive holdings throughout Oklahoma. Mr. Hammond has been president of the organization since its inception.

Stocks of Zinc Show Increase

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Stocks of zinc in the hands of American producers on the 1st inst., were 122,635 short tons, against 117,381 on August 1, last, an increase of 5254 tons, according to the American Bureau of Metal Statistics.

Shipments in August were 35,775 tons, against 32,235 in July, and 51,980 in August, 1929. Production of zinc in August was 41,029 tons, against 40,038 in July, and 55,708 in August, 1929.

HURRICANE DAMAGE TO UTILITY SLIGHT

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8.—Officers of the Southern Cities Utilities Company today received word from W. H. Davieson, manager of the subsidiary, Compania Electrica De Santo Domingo, operating in the Dominican Republic, that damage done to the electric system in the hurricane was much less than first reported. Damage was mostly confined to city of Santo Domingo properties, which will run about $25,000 and is covered by insurance. Street-lighting service in the city is expected to be resumed tonight.

GAS WAR IN EAST STILL ON

Opposition to Shell Expansion Partly Responsible for Price-Cutting; Coast Status Stronger

BY EARLE E. CROWE

With gasoline prices in New York City at 12 cents retail, exclusive of tax, it is difficult to foresee the large refining and marketing companies in that territory showing much of a profit this year. The tank wagon price following yesterday's cut by Standard of New York, is 9 cents a gallon.

For most of this year the refining and marketing companies in the larger eastern centers have been waging a bitter hand-to-hand conflict. Margins of profit have been virtually erased, and in most instances transformed into losses. The same economic reasons accounting for the gasoline troubles on the Pacific Coast are behind the eastern price war.

HOSTILITY SHOWN

Trade reports, however, intimate antagonism to the eastern expansion of the Shell Union Oil Corporation is responsible in a large measure for the price cutting. Shell Eastern Petroleum Products, Inc., the eastern marketing unit for the Shell Union, has effected an entrance in virtually all the eastern markets and is already an important factor.

Opposition to the Shell expansion has even taken the form of attacks on the yellow color of the Shell stations as objectionable and incompatible with civic beauty. Municipal ordinances aiming at the prohibition of this color on service stations are popularly attributed to the American opposition of the Shell Union.

While the east coast companies are still cutting the heart out of gasoline prices, the west coast is apparently on the road to improvement. Nobody will contend that marketing and refining companies are making money in California on the existing structure, but at least the losses are less than before the end of the last price war.

CALIFORNIA BRIGHTER

If the new crude-oil curtailment program goes through successfully, the refiners on this Coast are hopeful of definite improvement in gasoline prices. But if this program fails, the gasoline end of the business might as well be written off so far as profits are concerned.

For that matter, it is doubtful if there is much justification for the manner in which the marketing companies are selling their products. No other industry selling a low-profit commodity is in the retail business to the same extent the oil companies are. Tremendous investments in real estate, leases, equipment, etc., are carried by the oil companies to operate retail stores for the direct sale to the public of only gasoline and lubricating oils.

Oil companies might better take a leaf from the book of the chain-store merchandiser and the manufacturers who utilize these outlets. Most makers of low-profit goods are more than willing to distribute through the large chains selling numerous articles in volume. These manufacturers leave the job of selling to expert merchandisers, and are not interested in the prestige and advertising supposed to flow from directly owned retail stores.

Rubber Spot Prices Break to Record Low

LONDON, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—There was great alarm in the rubber industry today as the decision of the Dutch East Indies government not to restrict production sent spot prices tumbling to 7⅝ cents a pound, the lowest ever recorded.

Activity in the leading shares was frozen today, and all prices were marked down as a precautionary measure by the dealers. The fall ranged from 50 to 75 cents lower than Friday's quotations.

The decrease in American consumption and increased production have resulted in large supplies of unmarketable stocks. British losses during the steady decline of a month have been competently placed at $600,000,000. Many concerns have gone out of business.

While the bottom was falling out of the rubber market today, copper strengthened in a sharp rise.

Twelfth Area Bank Loans Off

Security loans of reporting member banks of the Twelfth Federal Reserve District for the week ended the 3rd inst. were announced by the Federal Reserve Bank yesterday at $442,000,000, against $462,000,000 a week ago, decrease of $20,000,000. The loans a year ago were $418,000,000.

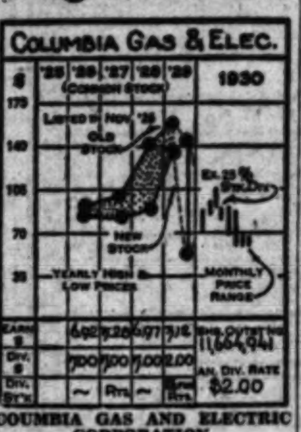
Rate of Steel Output Climbs

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Steel ingot production for the twenty-six working days in August is estimated by the American Iron and Steel Institute at 3,095,293 gross tons, with operations for the month at 59.46 per cent of rated capacity, compared with production of 2,933,399 tons, with operations at 56.35 per cent of capacity for the twenty-six working days in July and 4,939,086 tons for twenty-seven working days in August of last year, with operations at 93.28 per cent of capacity.

The figures are based on reports from companies which made 94.27 per cent of the open-hearth and Bessemer steel ingots last year.

WHAT'S BEHIND YOUR STOCK



COLUMBIA GAS AND ELECTRIC CORPORATION

Columbia Gas and Electric Corporation is probably the leading company in the United States in the rapidly growing field of natural gas. With tremendous natural gas reserves conveniently located to the densely populated territories of New York and New Jersey, Columbia is joining hands with United Corporation whereby the two giant utilities will probably pool their efforts, Columbia supplying the fuel, United, the outlet, through its many sources in the Middle Atlantic States.

Almost 6,000,000 acres of reserve gas fields are controlled by Columbia in West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Pennsylvania and New York. Production was obtained last year from only 14 per cent of the total acreage under control, the remainder being held in reserve for contingencies. As the tremendous expected demand for the product in the area of metropolitan New York and contiguous territories is felt, these reserves will be utilized.

Columbia's property holdings at the end of 1929 were $612,500,000, before $142,083,700 reserve for renewals, replacements and depletion.

Earnings for the first quarter of the current year were 78 cents per share as against 98 cents per share in the same quarter of 1929.

Common stock (no par)	11,664,941 shares
Funded debt	$106,172,000
Preferred stock ($100 par)	$98,947,000

Current data: Drop in company's net earnings in the first quarter of this year is attributed to unseasonably hot weather which cut down the amount of heating fuel used, and to generally bad business conditions.

Utility Holding Company Plans New Acquisition

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive) Public Utility Holding Corporation of America plans to acquire through an exchange of stock the Class A common stocks of the United States and Overseas Corporation. Holders of a substantial majority of Class A stock of the latter company who also hold considerable common stock have agreed to the exchange.

A new issue of $3 cumulative preferred will be created by Public Utility Holding Corporation.

For each ten shares of United States and Overseas stock, Public Utility Holding Corporation offers three shares of $3 cumulative preferred stock of no par value, five shares of common stock with common-stock purchase warrants and seven detached common-stock purchase warrants. FORECAST OF COTTON YIELD OUT

Federal Figure on Crop Yield for 1930 Fixed at 14,340,000 Bales

WASHINGTON, Sept. 8. (AP)—The drought apparently had little effect on the cotton crop, which was indicated today by the Department of Agriculture from conditions existing the 1st inst. as being 14,340,000 bales, a reduction of 22,000 bales from the production indicated a month ago.

The indicated crop is 488,000 bales smaller than last year's and 688,000 bales less than the average crop of the last five years.

The conditions of the crop on the 1st inst. was 53.2 per cent of normal, compared with 62.2 on August 1 this year, 55.4 a year ago and 56.8, the September 1 ten-year average, indicating a yield of 152.2 pounds per acre, compared with 155.2 pounds on August 1, 155 pounds last year and 155.1 pounds, the ten-year average.

The total abandonment of acreage after July 1 was placed at 2.2 per cent, leaving 44,791,000 acres for picking, on which acreage the department's estimate of the indicated total production was based. The area in cultivation July 1 was 45,815,000 acres, and the average abandonment after that date for the ten years, 1920-29 was 3.5 per cent. The acreage to be picked, based on the average abandonment, used a month ago in computation of the August indicated production, was 44,252,000 acres.

The acreage for picking this year, the condition of the crop on the 1st inst. the indicated yield per acre, and the indicated total production in bales of 500 pounds gross weight, by States follow:

State	Acreage (000 omitted)	Condition	Yield	Production (000 omitted)

Insurance Unit in Convention

Executives, branch managers and general agents of the Union Automobile Insurance Company will gather here tomorrow for the annual convention of the company, arriving in a body on the steamship Harvard from San Francisco where they are being entertained today, George Newberger, president, announced yesterday. The company is licensed to operate in twenty-three States and maintains its head office in Los Angeles. The convention will be continued throughout the balace of the week.

Net writings for the first half of the current year totaled $2,017,877 as against $1,334,416 for the same period last year while assets increased over the six months' period by $546,287 to a total of $2,781,713. In addition to automobile liability the company writes plate glass, accident and health, and burglary insurance.

COTTON MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The government cotton crop report pointing to a yield of 14,340,000 bales, or about 300,000 bales above the average of recent private estimates, was followed by active selling and a break of about 50 to 60 points in the cotton market here today. The new October contract sold off to 10.75, and March to 11.18, and prices were within a few points of the lowest around 2 o'clock.

WRIGLEY SCANS TRADE SKY

Chewing-Gum King Believes Last Quarter of 1930 will Show Decided Upturn

BY JOHN F. SINCLAIR

(Copyright, 1930, in all countries by North American Newspaper Alliance.)

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—William Wrigley, Jr., Chicago business man and sportsman, believes that the last quarter of 1930 will be better in his business than that of 1929.

The Chicagoan sees nothing basically wrong with business itself. He thinks it is sound at the core, and that as soon as the bad effects of a prosperity spree have spent their force conditions will move forward again, as they always have in the past.

"My idea is that business was on a 'prosperity drunk' for several years. Many manufacturers increased their output and expected that they could keep on doing this as long as they were in business. The supply was constantly exceeding the demand—some stocks were selling at thirty times their earnings or more. When this condition prevails, 'the morning after the night before' is sure to put in an appearance.

"Business was riding for a fall and the fall was postponed very much longer than most people thought it would be. I think that when the surplus merchandise has been gradually absorbed, it will be necessary for factories that have been closed for three or four days a week to start up very nearly full time this fall because there will be a demand for their product," Mr. Wrigley said.

Mr. Wrigley believes a tremendous wave of economy and a fear that the present low prices of commodities now prevailing will still go lower are really what are holding business back from a new advance.

"My personal view of the general business situation is that it will be healthier than it has been for several years. There is plenty of cheap money—wages have not been reduced, and, now that the surplus stock manufactured during the hurry-up night-and-day period is about exhausted, we should notice a very considerable improvement in the general business situation."

Mass production demands mass buying, says John P. Frey, American Federation of Labor official, in the Magazine of Wall Street, because he is convinced that the high rate of production and the high mechanized industry to which American business is committed cannot be sustained except at the present wage level.

"If coolie labor, with its low wage and debased standard of living, was to replace the mass of wage earners in the United States, most of our basic industries would close their doors," said Mr. Frey.

It's the home market in the United States upon which business prosperity depends, because the wage-earning producer is the largest consuming purchaser.

Undoubtedly, Mr. Frey agrees with Henry Ford's statement that "there is not a factory in America that was built for shutting down."

Mr. Frey gives a particularly apt example to illustrate his point. He says that the United States at present is in the position of the patient having difficulty in breathing. Does the doctor reduce the volume of oxygen? Instead, the clothing is loosened, the windows are opened, and perhaps oxygen is artificially administered. Unless the circulation of oxygenized blood is maintained the patient will collapse.

"So it is with wages and prosperity. The circulation of money is necessary. Under our present industrial system the circulation of economically sound wages is more essential than ever before," says Mr. Frey.

So this labor leader repeats his thesis that mass production demands mass buying; and mass buying demands a continually increasing purchasing power.

OPPOSITION THREATENS CAB DEAL

Bond and Stock Holders May Fight Proposal of Raskob Interests

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—Opposition to the plan by which Raskob interests, who control a majority of the Checker Cab Manufacturing Corporation stock propose to acquire control of Parmelee Transportation Company may develop from Parmelee bond holders as well as from minority stockholders of Checker Cab, according to reports current today in local financial centers.

The bondholders may base their opposition on grounds that acquisition of control of the company by Checker Cab would destroy its present freedom to purchase its cab equipment in the best available market, while the Checker Cab minority stockholders may oppose the proposed surrender of Checker Cab's holdings of bonds and preferred stock in the Parmelee company for a common share interest.

Checker Cab owns $1,442,000 of outstanding debentures and all of the preferred stock of Parmelee Transportation Company.

Preliminary to the acquisition it is understood that Checker Cab plans to issue nearly 60,000 shares of its own stock at $25 a share for the control of the Motor Cab Transportation Company in New York. This property together with Parmelee bonds and 10,000 shares of Parmelee preferred stock would be transferred to Parmelee Transportation in consideration of the issuance to Checker Cab of 422,000 shares of Parmelee common stock and the consideration involved would be slightly less than $4,000,000.

If the plan is approved by Parmelee directors at a meeting scheduled for the 9th inst., Checker Cab would own 66 per cent of the total outstanding Parmelee common stock. It is likely that on approval of the plan Checker Cab would offer Parmelee minority stockholders the right to exchange their shares on the basis of four shares of Parmelee for one share of Checker Cab.

FLOUR PROCESS UNIT INCREASES DIVIDEND

NEW YORK, Sept. 8.—Directors of Novadel-Agene Corporation today declared a quarterly dividend of 75 cents on the common stock, placing the issue on a $3 annual basis against $2 previously. They also declared an extra of 25 cents and the regular quarterly of $1.75 on the preferred. All dividends are payable October 1 to stock of record the 20th inst.

LATE REACTION CHECKS UPTURN

Early Advance of Moderate Proportions Halted

Gains Largely Canceled in Profit-Taking Raid

Sales for Session Heaviest Since August 13

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The stock market strove valiantly today to extend last week's rally. Prices did move higher until the final hour, when realizing and some short selling, inspired by the weakness of the commodities and the absence of any constructive news caused the earlier gains to dwindle or disappear. The close was irregular, although net changes in the leaders were small.

Perhaps the most encouraging development, from the viewpoint of the bulls, was the increase in activity on the rise and the dullness of trading on the late decline. Sales totaled 2,241,000 shares, the first time since August 27 the 2,000,000-mark had been exceeded and the largest aggregate since August 13. In the last fifty minutes only about 350,000 shares changed hands.

Nevertheless, the public's participation remained negligible.

The firm opening was followed by a professional buying movement in which short covering and bull pool operations were the dominant factors. A handful of the prominent shares squeezed to new highs for the movement, among them United States Steel, which touched 173 1-4, and the advance brought in numerous fair-sized buying orders.

General Motors A was a strong favorite. Others included General Electric, Westinghouse Electric, American Telephone, American Can and Allied Chemical.

The presence of an average profit of 5 or 6 points on the movement of the past few sessions proved too tempting, however, and many operators sold out rather than attempt to carry the rise beyond moderate limits. Expectations United States Steel Corporation's unfilled tonnage figures, to appear on Wednesday, would show a decline for August, a poor month, gave the diminished short interest renewed courage and the late break started in the steel group.

The utilities showed some firmness, although prices shared in the general unsettlement at the close. American Water Works held 2 points of a 3-point rise. Peoples' Gas advanced 11 points.

Thermoid was taken in hand by the bulls for a rise of nearly 2. Diamond Match retained all but a fraction of a 5-point spurt, making another new high. Southern Pacific together with General Motors and American Tobacco "B" closed 1 to 2 higher.

Westinghouse Electric, General Electric, Radio and Standard Oil of New Jersey closed fractionally lower, while American Telephone yielded all but a shadow of an extreme rise of about a point and a half. Sears, Roebuck and Gillette closed 2 to 3 lower.

The September crude rubber "A" contract sagged below 9 cents to another new low.

European exchanges recovered, led by sterling. The German mark and Spanish peseta also improved. Latin Americans were slightly firmer.

LOS ANGELES EXCHANGE

Stock Trading on Local Market Manifests Stronger Undertone as List Gains Fractionally

Although some irregularity crept into yesterday's operations on the Los Angeles Stock Exchange traders opened the week's dealings with a display of optimism aided by an early upturn on the New York board. The improved sentiment was indicated by a ready absorption of occasional offerings and a steady, though quiet buying demand which lifted the market fractionally on the whole. The exchange will be closed today in observance of Admission Day.

Transamerica, while slackening from its rapid trading pace Saturday, continued to hold the spotlight with a turnover of 7200 shares. The issue reached 25 5-8 early in the session, but reacted toward noon and ended finally at 25, down 1-8 net.

Rio Grande and Richfield dominated the oil market with a turnover of 1500 shares each. The former closed high at 16½ and the latter after reaching 17 dropped to close at 16 5-8, off 1-8. Other petroleums under a light trading either held steady or recorded minor recessions.

Superior Oil, in which 160 shares were sold Saturday at 12 5-8, was not traded, but had a closing bid of 17½. Only seventy-two shares of this issue had been traded on the exchange this year up until Saturday and only forty shares crossed the board last year. Four days ago the company brought in a well at Kettleman Hills which is now beaned down to about 9000 barrels daily, any further cut being regarded as dangerous. The company has about 150 other wells throughout various fields.

Pickwick Corporation, which in the past week has been under considerable selling pressure, dropped an additional 40 cents to hit a new bottom at 3.50. Claude Neon, which turned suddenly active Saturday, reacted ½ to 38.

Preferred stocks continued to play an important part in the market activity with two Edison issues and San Joaquin prior preferred 7's hitting new peaks for the year. The Edison 5½'s and 6's gained 1-8 on a turnover of 1300 shares each. San Joaquin jumped 1½ points to 121.

Sales totaled 17,245 shares valued at $505,236; previous day, 13,347 shares valued at $401,523.

LOS ANGELES CURB

Trading in Intercoastal Trading Corporation shares in the dollar issues and in the Lincoln Drilling shares in the penny list continued to lead the activity on the Los Angeles Curb yesterday. The trading company shares on a volume of 3000 ranged between 13½ and 14 5-8, closing at 13 3-4, off 1-8. The oil issue with total sales of 8600 shares touched a new high at $1.95 and closed up 12½ cents at 1.87½.

Mexican Seaboard on a turnover of 1000 shares closed unchanged at 22 5-8. Arkansas Natural Gas "A," Cities Service Common, Consolidated Steel common, Cord Corporation and Samson Tire were all fractionally higher at the close. General Motors was up ½ to 46 3-8, a new high since its listing on the Curb. Hancock Oil "B" moved up 1-8 to 17 1-8, also a new high.

Security Company units at 54 were up 1 point and Southern California Gas Corporation 6½ per cent preferred at 104 was up 1½. Fokker Aircraft, Goldman-Sachs Trading and Grigsby-Grunow were fractionally lower.

Bandini Petroleum in the penny list gained 30 cents to $4.55 and Barnhart-Morrow at 15 cents was up 9 cents. Exeter Oil at $1.10 was off 5 cents while Kinner Airplane at 50 cents was up 5 cents.

Sales totaled 31,460 shares, valued at $129,989; previous day, 16,000 shares, valued at $84,275.

NEW YORK BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The bond market gave another good account of itself today. Demand showed further extension into the lower priced groups, resulting in scattered selling of highest-grade issues, but the latter on the whole remained firm and the average price of thirty obligations pushed to the highest level in about three years.

The political troubles in Argentina led to scattered selling of the Latin Americans. Argentina 6s were offered in small blocks at concessions of 1 to 2 points, while there was sympathetic weakness in Buenos Aires 6s, Chile 6s and Peru 6s and 7s. European loans were steady.

As the bond market swings upward, the trend toward secondary issues is becoming more noticeable. The cheaper rails are profiting most, and among today's leaders were Chicago Great Western 4s, St. Paul 5s and International Great Northern 5s which gained half a point.

Schulco 6½s gained 2 to 3 points. Oil bonds were active and firm. Phillips Petroleum 5¼s made a new high at 97½.

A feature of the generally firm utilities was the Postal Telegraph 5s which converted a ½-point advance into a net loss of 2⅛, sagging to 90, a new low.

United States governments continued apathetic, fluctuating irregularly.

The quotations represent sales of bonds (in thousands of dollars) and the high, low and closing prices in order given. To expedite transmission, the close is omitted when the same as the low, and both low and close when same as high.

Wheat Futures Ease off After Early Advance

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Unloading of wheat by owners collecting profits and persistent hedging pressure proved more than the Chicago wheat market could stand today and prices eased downgrade. Scattered selling by tired owners and by commission houses placed more wheat on sale than there was buying power to absorb it. Trade was not large and the market was nervous and easily influenced. Chicago wheat was firm at the start because of strength in Liverpool, but this influence proved only transient. Corn ranged downward along with wheat. A sensationally bullish estimate of the 1930 corn crop by an unofficial crop expert resulted in only sporadic buying and had little market influence.

Wheat closed nervous and unsettled, 1⅛ @1⅜c net lower than Saturday's finish. Corn closed weak, ⅞@1⅛c down, oats ⅛@¼c off and provisions declined 10 @12c.

After the opening flurry of buying, the wheat trade settled into the rut of indifference which has characterized trading here of late. The visible supply increased 3,382,000 bushels for the week and is 191,088,000 bushels, compared with 184,408,000 bushels at this time a year ago. Canadian country deliveries Saturday were 6,806,000 bushels, against 2,880,000 bushels last year.

Corn was nervous, with liquidation of the September delivery in evidence. The visible supply total increased 843,000 bushels for the week and is now 4,[illegible] bushels, compared with 3,021,000 bushels a year ago.

Provisions weakened because of scattered commission-house selling and because the recent buying was absent.

Complete New York Stock Exchange Report

NEW YORK CURB STOCKS

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—The most ambitious bull drive in several weeks encountered stiff opposition in today's curb market, but the list closed irregularly higher. Total transactions were 465,000 shares, the largest since August 15.

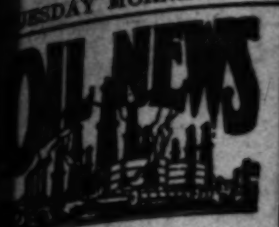
The move centered in the utility shares, which made substantial progress for a time, but with late unsettlement on the big board, profit taking and bear selling appeared, cancelling most of the advances. Net gains at the close were most numerous among the industrials and specialties.

American Superpower was sent up ¾ but lost half its gain. Electric Bond & Share was lifted above 85 for the first time in weeks, but closed at 83½, off ⅝. Electric Power Associates gained more than a point, and Electric Power & Light warrants mounted 2⅝. American & Foreign Power warrants lost 1⅜ and American Gas & Electric 1.

The new Diamond Match shares were admitted to unlisted trading privileges and turned over in fair volume. The common closed at 24½, and the preferred at 26⅞. Deere closed up 3¾. Cord Corporation rallied a point to 8⅝. Great Atlantic & Pacific advanced 12½ and Ruberoid jumped more than 4 points to a price of 70.

Intercoast Trading jumped more than 2 points in sympathy with the recent strength of Transamerica on the big board. U. S. and Overseas gained 7 points on announcement of a plan of merger with Public Utility Holding. United Founders which controls U. S. & Overseas and Public Utility Holding, closed up a fraction.

The closing price is omitted when same as the low, and both low and close when same as the high.



BY POTTER FLINT

The Chanslor-Canfield Midway Company's Hobson A-2, two southeast of the Seacliff field, cleaning up since its completion than a week ago and yesterday was producing at the rate of barrels of oil a day from a depth of 7479 feet.

According to company officials, Hobson A-2 will be allowed to and if sand troubles increase indications are that the project will deepened to determine possibility of making a complete water shut-off and assure a steady flow of clean oil.

Intermittent swabbing has been necessary in this project because of sand, and a compressor has been installed to better production. The project is believed to definitely prove that deep production may be obtained southeast of Venice, and two major oil companies holding acreage near it are considering to protect their property.

Steady

Daily production in the Signal Hill field recorded a slight rise over the week-end, due to the recompletion of the Plymouth Oil Com-

MARKET FLASHES

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (AP)—Stocks irregular; Auburn Auto soars on squeeze of shorts.

Bonds firm; Argentines ease on light offerings.

Curb firm; numerous specialties show strength.

Foreign exchanges irregular; sterling strong.

Cotton weak; bearish government report.

Sugar quiet and steady.

Coffee higher; trade buying.

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—Wheat easy; increased visible supply and larger Russian offerings.

Corn easy; larger country offerings.

Cattle steady; hogs steady to strong.

pany's No. 10 in the extreme southeasterly portion of the field. Plymouth's No. 10 died recently when an adjoining project circulated heavy mud into the producer and after it was cleaned out to bottom it came in for approximately 2100 barrels of oil a day. The entire field yesterday was producing at the rate of 108,000 barrels of oil.

The Sovereign Oil Company's No. 1 at Signal Hill has been placed on production and is putting out 300 barrels of oil daily, while Jack Johnston's Castle No. 1 now is flowing 100 barrels daily.

To Recement

Failing to effect a complete water shut-off the Richfield Oil Company will recement Miley-Hobson No. 4 in the Seacliff field. Bottom of the hole is below 3600 feet. Richfield's Hobson-State No. 3 at the end of a 600-foot pier continues to flow 300 barrels of 26-deg. gravity oil per day. Present intentions are to allow it to produce and later deepen to the Miley zone about 400 feet deeper.

Elects Officers

Word was received here yesterday by the Milham Exploration Company, subsidiary of the Mexican Seaboard Oil Company, that at the regular meeting of the board of directors in New York City, that John M. Lovejoy, was elected president, succeeding Harris Hammond, who has been the president of Seaboard since its organization nearly twenty years ago. C. P. Watson, according to the report, was elected vice-president. Mr. Hammond was elected chairman of the board of directors for the ensuing year.

Into Oil Sand

Oil showings have been encountered in Graham & Loftus's No. 1 in the East Coyote district. This project is drilling below 6400 feet and interest shown by operators in it is increased due to the showings penetrated at that depth.

The deepest test drilled in the East Coyote district was by the Union Oil Company. Failing to find production at that depth the company quitclaimed its holdings. Graham & Loftus is prospecting in territory that has proven shallow production from 1200 to 2500 feet.

Sidetracking Down

The Western Gulf Oil Company is sidetracking in Diamond Bar No. 1 wildcat located on the Diamond Bar ranch near Puente. Bottom of the hole is at 6600 feet. Thin streaks of oil sand were encountered higher in the project but insufficient to justify a production test.

Deep One Completed

The Union Oil Company yesterday brought in Farwell No. 19 in the Santa Fe Springs oil field for 200 barrels of 32-deg. gravity oil per day from a depth of 7660 feet. The oil is cutting about 9 per cent.

Union's Sansinena No. 11 on the south flank of the Puente hills has been plugged back from a total depth of 4800 feet to 3630 feet and is bailing for a test. This project was good for about 100 barrels of oil from a depth of 1000 feet but was deepened. The company's Orchardale No. 1 wildcat due east of Santa Fe Springs is making progress with the drill below 4490 feet.

This is no "rube" County Fair!

REPRESENTING THE GREATEST AGRICULTURAL COUNTY IN THE UNITED STATES . . in farm products . . Los Angeles County's ranch and horticultural experts . . make a stupendous and concerted effort to show what they are doing . . through the LOS ANGELES COUNTY FAIR . . and you'll be pleased.

Here, adjacent to Pomona, in immense and permanent buildings, the Los Angeles County Board of Supervisors have housed every phase of county-wide agricultural culture and progress, activity and industry.

THIS IS NO LUKEWARM SIDESHOW AFFAIR . . for smart-cracking tourists . . but it IS a human-interest exposition . . demonstrating products and methods . . whereby the farm-and-ranch scientists of Southern California . . have prospered through this period of depression . . by products of quality that have kept their profitable price.

You'll see WHY Pomona Valley holds three State thrift records through the old-fashioned, small-town MUTUAL Building and Loan Association OF POMONA.

And, during this time of September 12th to 21st, almost every man you see working at the Fair is a Pomona Valley business man who is donating his time, money and energy, to put the agricultural interests of Los Angeles County in YOUR show-window for YOUR profit. If you don't attend, we'll be sorry. Please COME.

"TIMES" THEATER GUIDE

MOTION PICTURES

Carthay Circle, Carthay Center—"Holiday." A film play of quality and delight with Ann Harding at her best in defense of youth.

Chinese, 6925 Hollywood—"Hell's Angels." It took Howard Hughes four years and $4,000,000 to produce the colossus of the air; and it was worth it.

Criterion, 642 South Grand—"All Quiet on the Western Front." Erich Remarque's masterpiece of the war receives splendid treatment. Lew Ayres.

Egyptian, Hollywood Boulevard—"Common Clay." Old fashioned dramatics nicely revived by Constance Bennett.

Figueroa, Figueroa at Santa Barbara—"Anybody's War." Moran and Mack appear in a comedy which amuses.

Filmarte, 1228 North Vine—"Turksib." An uneven account of the building of a railroad, parts of which are splendid.

Forum, Pico at Norton—"A Notorious Affair." Billie Dove does a Parisienne twist in a comedy mix-up.

Loew's State, Broadway at Seventh—"Man Trouble." One of the best of the underworld stories, if you are still partial to them. Milton Sills and Dorothy Mackaill.

Majestic, Bdwy. at 9th—"What Men Want." The idle rich frolic about in a story of adventure and romance.

Million Dollar, Broadway at Third—"Manslaughter." Powerful dramatics from Claudette Colbert and Frederic March.

News Reel Theater, Broadway near Sixth—Current Events.

Pantages, Hollywood at Vine—"Raffles." Mystery doings in high society with the distinctive Mr. Colman in charge.

Paramount, Hill at Sixth—"Animal Crackers." The four Marx brothers in an informal evening of puns and capers, and don't miss them.

Ritz, Wilshire at La Brea—"The Big House." A prison story of unusual interest. Wallace Beery.

R.K.O., Hill at Eighth—"The Squealer." Jack Holt is a convincing gang leader who sacrifices himself in the final scene.

R.K.O. Orpheum, Broadway at Ninth—"Rain or Shine." Nonsense in wild delightful disorder by Joe Cook.

Tower, Bdwy. at Eighth—"Borrowed Wives." Mystery and mix-ups and Vera Reynolds.

United Artists, Broadway near 9th—"Follow Thru." An all-star cast makes a strenuous effort to play the game.

Uptown, Western at Tenth—"The Big House."

Warners' Downtown, Hill at Seventh—"The Bad Man." Walter Huston parading a fiendish grin in Porter Emerson Browne's old western epic.

Warner's Hollywood, Hollywood Blvd. at Wilcox—"Old English." More of the charming sentimentality at which George Arliss is a past master.

STAGE

Belasco, Hill at 11th—"It's a Wise Child." A splendid cast enacts this modern treatment of an old theme. Recommended to those who take comedy with a grain of salt and lots of pepper.

Biltmore, Fifth and Grand—"Dishonored Lady." Reviewed in today's Times.

Hollywood Playhouse, Vine near Hollywood Blvd.—"Good Old Days." Talk and back talk from Kolb and Dill.

Mason, Figueroa at Pico—"The Missing Witness." Hysterical courtroom highlights, all familiar. Maude Fealy.

El Capitan, Hollyw'd Blvd. nr. Highland—"The Poor Nut." The campus sap becomes a hero overnight and it's worth seeing. Elliott Nugent.

Vine Street, 1615 N. Vine—"A Cup of Sugar." The delightful comedienne, Dorothy Mackaye, returns in a farce about husbands and various wives.

BURLESQUE

Follies, Main at Fourth—Burlesque.

HONGKONG, Septiembre 8.—Dice una noticia que circuló aquí hoy que fueron muertas 200 personas en un ataque reciente de aeroplanos cantoneses sobre la ciudad sitiada de Nanningfu, en la provincia de Kwangsi. Dicha ciudad es una fortaleza de los rebeldes de Kwangsi.

Los habitantes se negaron a rendirse, y dice la información que están resistiendo contra las fuerzas combinadas de Kwantung e Ynan. Debido a la escasez de subsistencias, fueron evacuados 40,000 civiles durante una tregua del combate. Los extranjeros que quedan en la ciudad están viviendo en lanchas en él río, listos para irse a toda prisa en caso necesario.

Triunfó de la Mora en las Elecciones de Jalisco

GUADALAJARA (Méjico) Septiembre 8.—Hoy ha proclamado el partido nacional revolucionario la victoria aplastante de su candidato, el coronel Ignacio de la Mora, en las elecciones para gobernador de Jalisco. Con motivo de éstas, resultaron heridas cinco personas en las inevitables reyertas.

La Señorita "Brasil" Coronada Reina de la Belleza

RIO DE JANEIRO (Brasil) Septiembre 8.—El título de "Señorita Universo" fue conferido hoy a la señorita Yolanda Pereira, representante del Basril en el concurso internacional de belleza. Para el segundo puesto quedaron empatadas Fernanda González, de Portugal, y Alicia Diploraclou, de Grecia. Correspondióle el tercer lugar a la señorita Beatrice Lee, que era "Miss United States."

Las ganadoras fueron elegidas de entre un grupo de veintiséis muchachas, que han triunfado en anteriores concursos análogos en todas partes del mundo. En la competición no se permitieron los trajes de baño.

Cantatriz de Opera que se Divorcia en Méjico

NUEVA YORK, Septiembre 8.—Nanette Guilford, que algunas veces ha sido llamada la prima donna bebé de la Compañía Metropolitana de Opera, ha conseguido divorciarse en Méjico del violinista Max Rosen, según anunció hoy su abogado. Los motivos alegados han sido incompatibilidad y falta de manutención. La acción fue interpuesta en Sonora, y la parte contraria no litigó.

Los Metodistas no Apoyan la Limitación de la Familia

OXFORD (O.) Septiembre 8.—El congreso metodista episcopal de Ohio desechó una moción de su comité de reformas, que trataba de la cuestión de limitar la familia. El comite referido llamó la atención acerca de la actitud de otros cuerpos eclesiásticos, que han recomendado la divulgación, en ciertos casos, de consejos médicos sobre limitación de nacimientos, y encareció que hiciera lo propio el congreso de Ohio. Esto provocó tempestuosa protesta por parte de muchos delegados y la moción fue rechazada.

La Muerte Reclama a una Famosa Artista

STAMFORD (Connecticut) Septiembre 8.—Rhoda Holmes Nicholls, artista famosa e inventora de muchos implementos que usan los acuarelistas, ha fallecido ayer en su casa a los 76 años de edad. Era considerada como uno de los primeros pintores de asuntos venecianos en este país y fue una de las primeras artistas que aplicó una técnica especial en la pintura de sombras, la que, desde 1880, ha dado a sus cuadros el brillo y la profundidad de las pinturas modernas.

NOTAS LOCALES

Se Invita a los Ciegos a Trabajar Utilmente en el Taller Industrial

Una compasión mal entendida por parte del público sentimental es responsable de que se vean en las calles de Los Angeles grupos de ciegos que discurren lentamente tocando mal diversos instrumentos, pero recogiendo abundantes monedas. Esos pobres seres privados de la vista podrían emplearse en forma muy úntil interesante, según afirma David Glen Reeder, agente de ventas del Taller Industrial del Estado para Ciegos, sito en el 1340 de Pico Oeste. Habló Reeder ayer en el "City Club" sobre "El Problema del Ciego Mendicante".

Todos los ciegos que sean ciudadanos del Estado tienen el privilegio de trabajar en dicho taller haciendo tapetes, tejiendo canastos y poniendo asientos a las sillas. Reciben jornales de uno a dos dólares por día.

RUBBER MARKET

NEW YORK, Sept. 8. (Exclusive)—The local rubber market today broke through the 8-cent level when September sold at 7.90c at the opening, a decline of 40 points from Saturday's closing. All other positions followed with declines of 10 to 50 points and in the new from 10 to 84 points. This was caused by London being quoted at 3⅞d, off ⅛d. Despite this our market rallied later when better cables and the buying of new contracts by large commission and wire houses caused a steadier tone. New York spot closed at 8⅛c, off ⅛c.

failed," recently stated Mrs. Harriet A. Welch, 695 E. [illegible], Los Angeles.

"I was in such a weak, run-down condition that the least exertion would completely exhaust me. There was a terrible aching through my shoulders, and I was extremely nervous and could not sleep. My appetite was very poor and my liver seemed sluggish. Besides all this, I had severe bronchial trouble.

"I'm seventy-four years old and really didn't expect much help from Sargon — but it gave me a surprise! I've taken four bottles and those terrible pains in my shoulders and the nervousness have disappeared. I have a fine appetite, eat anything I want and sleep just fine. That weak, exhausted feeling is gone, and I can be on the go all day and not feel tired.

"Sargon Soft Mass Pills regulated my liver and bowels without any nausea or griping. I'm glad to recommend Sargon to everyone, because of the great benefit I got from it."

Sargon may be obtained at Owl Drug Stores and leading Drug Stores in Los Angeles and other cities.—[Advertisement.]

CITY'S OWN STEP FOR ARMY CHIEF

Summerall Reviews Local Regiment

Officers and Men Given Highest Praise

Defenses will be Inspected Today

To the strains of martial music the One Hundred and Sixtieth Infantry Regiment of the California National Guard passed in review last night before Gen. Charles P. Summerall, retiring Chief of Staff of the United States Army, and as the bugle gave the first retiring order the distinguished officer warmly congratulated the officers on the fine military appearance and conduct of their units.

"Splendid, fine indeed," Gen Summerall said to Brig.-Gen. Walter P. Story and Col. Harvourt Hervey as the last rank of Los Angeles' Own swung snappily past the reviewing group.

The review was colorful as rank after rank swung by, sabers flashing and accoutrements of the soldiers gleaming, while the band played out the regiment's own march.

Gen. Summerall was attended at the review by Brig.-Gen. Story, Col. Hervey and their staffs. Following the review there was a reception [illegible]

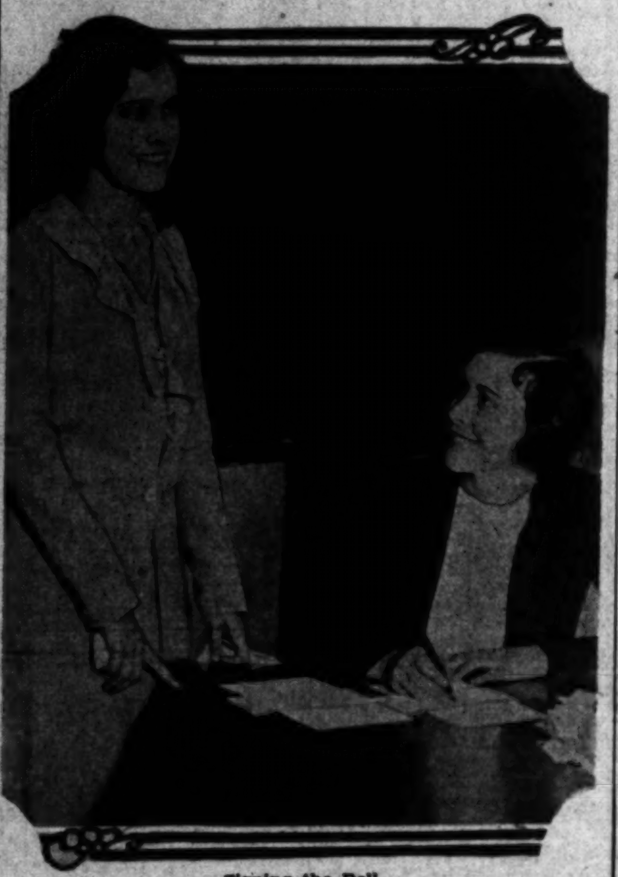
TROJAN FRESHMEN REGISTER

Increase in Enrollment Indicated



Signing the Roll

Regina Gerardi (sitting,) enrolls Genevieve Hale, daughter of U.S.C. law-school dean, as first-year student.

FRESHMEN students from all parts of the world started their scholastic work at the University of Southern California yesterday with the opening of freshman week, in which a four-day period is provided for registration and arrangement of class schedules.

New plans, policies and problems of the academic year 1930-31 were outlined and discussed at the first general faculty meeting held in the president's suite in Bovard Auditorium. President Von KleinSmid presided and introduced more than eighty new faculty members.

"There is a larger number of men and women seriously engaged in the profession of education than in any other field except business," he declared to the faculty members. "The college and university of today is an expression of the American life of today. The great numbers of students applying for admission to colleges is the result of a definite influence. We must be brave and courageous to make experiments to meet live problems. While there is danger in too rapid progress there is death in no progress at all.

"Standardizing organizations and busybody associations and agents must realize that education is a science, a definitely organized procedure, fully recognizing and realizing its task. In spite of the present feeling of unrest regarding education procedure there has not yet been created a more effective organization or procedure.

"Activity on the part of the teachers in colleges and universities must meet the problem. When graduated from college or university, we hope memories will not consist of grade points, required subjects, number of semesters, and course groupings, but rather a clear presentation of the actual problems of life and adjustment to those problems. The biggest factor in college in the attainment of this objective is the teacher; the biggest influence in the life of the student is his instructors."

The number of students who registered yesterday indicates that approximately 8000 will be enrolled for the new term, Theron Clarke, registrar, said. The estimated freshman enrollment indicates an increase of 300 students over last year, he said.

November will be the formal opening of the new $750,000 Physical Education Building, directly west of the Administration Building. Housed in the new gymnasium, in addition to separate gyms for men and women, are administration offices, three swimming pools, dance studio, five handball courts, locker-rooms, training quarters, archery, golf, boxing and wrestling rooms.

Enrollment of upper classmen will take place Friday and Saturday, with regular classes to begin next Monday.

DATE SET FOR TUNNEL PROGRAM

Official Opening of New Sepulveda Highway to be Observed 27th Inst.

The West Los Angeles division of the Chamber of Commerce yesterday designated the 27th inst. as the date on which a celebration will be held to mark the official opening of the new Sepulveda tunnel and highway. An automobile caravan will set out at 2:30 p.m., from the intersection of Sepulveda Highway and Ventura Boulevard and proceed in two lines to the north tunnel entrance, where brief ceremonies will be conducted.

Led by costumed horseback riders reminiscent of days of the Dons, the procession then will continue through the tunnel to Beverly Boulevard where State, county and city officials will give short talks, followed by an entertainment program. The day's festivities will end with a barbecue free to the public. Tickets are available at all chambers of commerce.

Nine and two-tenths miles of the right of way required in construction of the new thoroughfare, which links San Fernando Valley with the harbors, was donated to the city by property owners, the step hastening completion of the project by about three years. Donors include the Alphonso Bell interests, Gen. M. A. Sherman, Holmby Hills Corporation, Associated Arts Corporation, Ratteree Land Company, Frank Meline Company and Roy Jones.

Fashion Fete to Prove City Style Leader

The leadership and prestige of Los Angeles as a world center of style and fashion will again be celebrated in the spectacular "Modes of Autumn, 1930" festival to be presented by downtown merchants.

Beginning tomorrow night in a pageant of color and light which signalizes the simultaneous unveiling of downtown store windows, and continuing through the remainder of the week, there will be much of interest.

CHINA TRADE TO BE SIFTED

Views of Southland on Remedies to be Given at Senate Quiz Here Opening Tomorrow

Views of Southern California foreign traders relative to the reasons for the falling off of American trade with China, will be added to those already expressed by traders in other sections of the country, when the first of a series of three United States Senate hearings is conducted here, beginning tomorrow, as a part of a Federal investigation of commercial relations between this country and China.

Called by a subcommittee of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Senator Pittman of Nevada, the meetings have been arranged by Clarence Matson, foreign commerce manager of the Chamber of Commerce, and will be held in one of the organization's meeting-rooms, starting at 10 a.m. Sessions tomorrow and on Thursday and Friday, will consume about two hours. Governmental details of the hearings are being arranged by Raymond A. Walsh, secretary of the Senate subcommittee.

The names of eighteen business leaders of Los Angeles active in trade with China, have been submitted to Secretary Walsh by Mr. Matson, suggesting that they be called as witnesses. Gaylord B. Kirker, who for the past three years served in the Orient as a Los Angeles county foreign trade commissioner, operating under direction of the chamber, will be called, and other names include J. G. Gilfillan, radio manufacturer; T. W. Simmons, aircraft exporter; James H. Smiley, manager of the Los Angeles office of the United States Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce; E. W. Clark, Union Oil Company; C. M. Fuller, Richfield Oil Company, and Mrs. B. A. Ochs, importer of oriental goods.

The purpose of the hearings is to obtain data which will form the basis of a report to the United States Senate and President Hoover as to whether there should be legislation or treaty changes in order to improve the situation existing at present with reference to America's trade with China.

STECKEL ALONE FILES FOR JOB

Test for Police Chief May be Restricted Affair

Friday will be Last Day for Revealing Intention

Ex-Chief Davis, Now in East, May Apply by Wire

Unless there is a last-minute rush by applicants to take the civil service test for the office of Chief of Police indications are that but few will attempt to pass the examinations, set by the Los Angeles Civil Service Commission for the 18th and 19th inst.

Friday is the last day for filing and up to yesterday Chief of Police Steckel was the only qualified applicant to file, although the test has been thrown open to police of all ranks and civilians alike, if they have had ten years' experience in police work and have resided in Los Angeles one year.

One of the requirements is that applicants must have the equivalent of a high-school education and it is reported that this is a stumbling block in the path of a number of high-ranking officers in the police department who joined when brawn was one of the chief qualifications.

Another qualification is that the applicant must have five years' experience in a supervisorial capacity, and this is said to prevent younger men in the department from taking the test.

It has been expected that Deputy Chief Davis, who was Chief for several years before the emergency appointment of Steckel, would file. Davis, however, is in the East with the police pistol team.

The test was announced after the team had departed but Davis, if he is aware of what is to take place, may wire that he will be an applicant and then fill out the blank after he returns, according to civil service attaches.

The last test was held more than three years ago. It was a promotional examination limited to ranking officers in the department, without other educational requirements beyond experience in police work. Davis passed that test and was appointed from the eligible list which since has expired.

There will be a test for the creation of an eligible list of policemen held on October 4 by the civil service department. The time for application closes on the 27th inst., and many are expected to apply.

LOS FELIZ BABY GOLF FORBIDDEN

Council Refuses Permits by 12 to 1 Vote, Balking Additional Business

The City Council yesterday refused to clutter up Los Feliz Boulevard with business and by a vote of 12 to 1 refused two applications for miniature golf courses on the boulevard. The applicants were J. C. Gregory and A. B. Gordon, at Rodney Drive, and Nella M. Mead, between Hillhurst avenue and Commonwealth avenue. Councilman Webster gave the sole vote in favor of the courses.

The applicants, in their argument, contended Los Feliz Boulevard already is infested with business structures. Representatives of the Los Feliz Boulevard Improvement Association, opposed to the golf courses, admitted this, but declared these businesses are operating illegally, their temporary permits having expired.

Councilman Randall read a report from Director Coombs of the Planning Commission, who says six real estate offices, a pottery stand and a fruit market are operating illegally, while the status of five flower shops and a nursery is doubtful.

Randall said he will present this report to the City Prosecutor.

Science Party will Inspect La Brea Pits

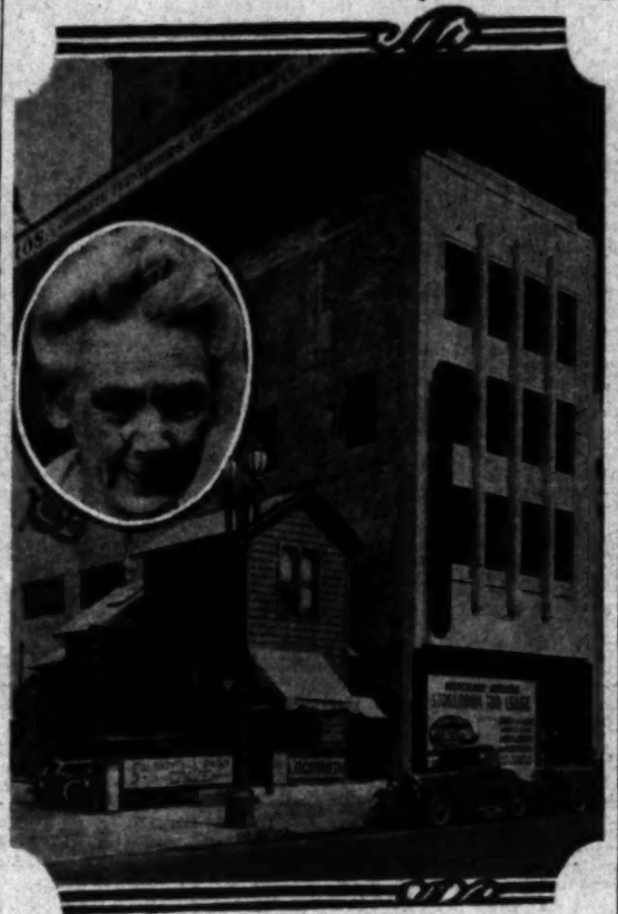
Philip F. Schneider, geologist, of Syracuse, N. Y., and his sister, Miss Elizabeth Schneider, who, in company with Dr. Harry E. Radcliffe and his wife, represent a party of scientists working for the American Science Association of Washington, D. C., and the Nature Magazine, are visiting Los Angeles.

The party has been traveling through the region formerly peopled by the so-called cliff dwellers. A complete pictorial record was made of the trip. While here Schneider will make an inspection of the La Brea pits.

About thirty years ago as a guest of the Union Pacific Railroad, Schneider and a number of other scientists opened up the famous dinosaur beds of Wyoming. The party is registered at the Roslyn.

HOME—BE IT EVER SO VALUABLE

Record Set for Costly Dwelling



Skyscrapers Its Neighbors

Home of Miss Abigail Stark at 723 South Flower street in the midst of downtown office and mercantile buildings, and (inset) Miss Stark.

BE IT ever so valuable, there's no place like home.

This is the attitude taken by Miss Abigail Stark of 723 South Flower street, who is believed to own the highest priced piece of real estate in Los Angeles devoted to single family residence purposes.

The "family" using this residence is Miss Stark herself. For the past fifteen years she has lived there alone, impervious to suggestions that she sell the home site that has been in the family sixty years.

Catherine Stark, her mother, purchased the property in 1870 when Seventh and Flower streets were considered well out in the country. The original grant was made in 1864, when the city of Los Angeles deeded the property to O. W. Childs, who sold it to a man named Brophy in 1868. Brophy, in turn, sold it to Catherine Stark, making but three transfers on record since the original subdivision.

Property in this vicinity sold in 1870 for a few dollars per acre, but now, with the development of this section, the lot is worth $8000 per foot or more, according to J. Francis Potter, manager of the Flower Street Improvement Association.

To all of the many persons who have made offers for the land, Miss Stark has the same answer:

"It is my home. I don't want to sell it. If I want to live there, it's my business."

So the aging house still stands. It cannot be remodeled, as it is within a fire district. In front of the house is a key-making stand, and the front porch has been cut away to make room for bootblack chairs. The rear of the lot is used for parking purposes.

This summer a high concrete building was constructed on the adjoining lot to the north, and the walls of this building, two feet away from the Stark residence, practically shut off all light from one side.

Nevertheless Miss Stark carries on, and intends to continue to carry on.

Flower street, in the meantime, continues to develop. Almost within a stone's throw are a number of height-limit buildings, including Barker Brothers, the California Club, The Roosevelt Building, the Richfield Building and the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation Building.

But the little four-room brown frame house of the Stark family still stays.

COUNCIL DENIES PROTESTS

Protests were denied by the City Council yesterday against the improvement of Westwood Boulevard between Santa Monica Boulevard and Pico Boulevard and against the installation of lighting appliances in Carmelina avenue between Darlington avenue and Wilshire Boulevard.

SYSTEM TO END PADDING OF PAY ROLL

County Efficiency Body Works Out Scheme to Put Stop to Peculations

A system making it impossible to pad pay rolls in departments of the county government is now being worked out by the Los Angeles county bureau of efficiency, it came out yesterday in course of the meeting of the Board of Supervisors.

The matter came before the board in a query from Supervisor Wright, who asked whether something could not be done to prevent a repetition of the charges recently lodged against Harry H. Imy, former chief clerk in the office of the County Architect, who stands accused of padding pay rolls in the department he worked in to the extent of $9000.

Supervisor Wright's question was answered by Sidney T. Graves, chairman of the board, who declared that following the Imy incident the bureau of efficiency immediately began an investigation and now is devising a system for all departments which, it is hoped, will make pay-roll padding an impossibility in the future.

Seeley Estate Set at $250,000

Calvin M. Seeley, who died August 26, left a $250,000 estate, according to his will, filed for probate yesterday. Personal effects were given to members of the family and $1000 was given to Mrs. Helen Seeley McGaffey, 121 La Doux Drive, Beverly Hills, a daughter.

The residue was left in trust, the income to be paid to the widow during life, and afterward to Mrs. McGaffey, and to Seeley M. Pruyn, nephew of the decedent.

MEDICAL SPECIALISTS MEET HERE IN 1930

The Pacific Coast Association of Eye, Ear, Nose and Throat Specialists voted to meet in Los Angeles for its 1931 convention, it is announced in a dispatch from Vancouver. The announcement states further that Dr. Chester H. Bowers of Los Angeles has been elected president. The society, which conducted its 1930 sessions in Victoria, B. C., in conjunction with the British Medical Association, embraces physicians and surgeons from all States west of the Rockies and from Canada.

LIP READING TAUGHT

Special classes in lip reading for beginning students are now being held at the Fremont-avenue School in daily classes from 1 to 4 p.m., and at Metropolitan High School on Monday and Wednesday from 7 to 9 p.m.

SEVEN THOUSAND NAMES ADDED TO SCHOOL ROLL

Enrollment in the city schools is running well ahead of the enrollment last year, although the increase is not as great as was anticipated, according to a report on attendance during the first week of the school year made by Supt. Bouelle to the Board of Education at its meeting last night.

The total enrollment during the first week of the present school year was 251,616, which is 7027 more than enrolled during the first week of the previous school year.

The greatest increase recorded is in the senior high schools, where 52,866 enrolled this year, against 50,495 last year, an increase of 2371. There was an increase of only 982 in the elementary schools, the figure for this year being 143,381, while last year it was 142,399. In the junior high schools there was an increase of 1542, from 30,234 last year to 31,776 this year. Evening high schools enrolled 21,562 students last week, against 20,236 the corresponding week last year.

Although the Los Angeles Junior College gives a two-year course, last year was the first year of its existence and, therefore, it had only a first-year class, which numbered during the first week 1225. With the addition of another class this year the enrollment went to 2031.

VENICE STRAND LEASES BARRED

Permanent Injunction Aimed at Oil Drilling Issued

Statutory Provision Held to Forbid Tideland Work

'City Owned' Contention said to be Without Merit

Permanently enjoining the city from leasing Venice beach and tidelands for oil drilling, Superior Judge Falk yesterday filed an opinion basing his decision on the State law prohibiting the State or its subdivisions from leasing submerged or tide, lands. The permanent injunction granted yesterday was applied for by Lewis J. Stone, actor, whose home at Venice adjoins the municipal beach. Judge Falk heard argument ten days ago.

In his opinion, Judge Falk reviewed the fact that in 1917 the State of California granted Venice and its successors all right and title in its tidelands, to use them for promotion of commerce and navigation. By annexation, Los Angeles took over these rights.

STATUTE QUOTED

Continuing, the judge adds that the plaintiff asserts that the city and its Department of Playgrounds and Recreation "threaten" to lease tideland for oil prospecting and for building a pier into the Pacific. This, the plaintiff contends, is in violation of Chapter 536, Statutes of 1929, which reads as follows:

"On and after September 1, 1929, no lease for drilling for oil . . . shall be made, executed or delivered by the State or any official thereof, or by any political subdivision of the State or any official thereof for tidelands, whether filled or unfilled, submerged land, overflooded lands or the beds of navigable rivers or lakes."

ARGUMENT ANSWERED

Dealing with the city's contention that the leasing of city-owned lands is a municipal affair, controlled exclusively by the charter and ordinances of Los Angeles, the judge says:

"Suffice it to say, as not hereinbefore, the property intended to be leased is not 'city-owned lands.'"

His opinion continues:

"In the instant case, it appears that the city of Los Angeles, by and through its duly appointed officers, attempts to do an act not only void and unauthorized but directly contrary to the express provisions of a statute. The taxpayers of Los Angeles have certain rights in the tidal and submerged lands held by the city, which interest sufficiently entitles them to maintain an action enjoining the city from doing an unlawful act in respect thereto."

OTHER POINTS

After enumerating five other points on which the plaintiff Stone asks an injunction be made permanent, Judge Falk concludes:

"Since the first point decided herein holds that the city of Los Angeles and its officers are without legal authority to execute such leases, a determination of the issues last above mentioned is immaterial and can avail the plaintiff of nothing. Let the injunction issue as prayed for."

Attorney Baldwin Robertson represented Stone and the Venice beach residents.

BOARD PUTS OFF DRILLING CURB ACTION

A new county ordinance regulating the drilling of oil wells and test holes which is designed to protect underground water supplies from pollution is under consideration by the Board of Supervisors.

The ordinance, recently drafted by the County Counsel's office, was presented yesterday but after considerable discussion was laid over.

The new measure would make it unlawful to drill a well, or test hole, in the production of gas and petroleum oil without first obtaining an inspection and a clearance from the County Mechanical Engineer and a license from the County Tax Collector. The license fee is fixed at $600. The penalty for a violation of the law would be a fine of $500 or six months in jail.

SEWER ORDINANCE VOTED

The Council yesterday adopted the final ordinances for the sewering of Ogden Drive and for the improvement of the following streets: Marlin Place between Haskeel avenue and Gloria avenue, Orchid avenue between Franklin avenue and Hollywood Boulevard, Bonvue avenue between Glendower avenue and a point near Catalina street, Lecouvreur avenue between L and J streets, Sycamore avenue between Franklin and Hawthorne avenues and Eighty-ninth street between Figueroa street and a point westerly.

STATE FIESTA AT LA MESA

Admission Celebration Today will be on Site of Historic California Battle

The historic battle of La Mesa, where American troopers triumphed over the native California-Mexican soldiers January 9, 1847, and paved the way for California to become the thirty-first State of the Union, will be recalled today when thousands gather at the site of the engagement to celebrate Admission Day.

Marking the eightieth anniversary of California's admission to the Union, the celebration will honor the decisive victory of Commodore Stockton over Gen. Jose Maria Flores, one of the most important military engagements in American history.

A colorful program and barbecue will be held near the administration building of the Los Angeles Union Stock Yards on Downey Road, north of Leonis Boulevard, on the historic site. The celebration is to be in charge of the La Mesa Club and the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West.

With that and other celebrations in Southern California, official business of the county will be at a standstill throughout the day, which is a State-wide holiday, and many banks and business houses and schools will close to honor the State's birthday.

At the battle site the festival will include a real western rodeo, and a picturesque parade of beautifully gowned senoritas, gay caballeros and other early California figures with horses prancing in bright trappings.

The program will include the romantic dancing and singing of the period and exhibitions of horsemanship. Adolpho Rivera is in charge of the events. Addresses are to be made by Sheriff Traeger, Carl B. Wirsching, Earl Le Moine, Andy Vaughn and P. D. Crittendon.

The Lancer

Harry Carr

I LEAVE it to the psychologists to make what they can of this killing of a Mexican woman by her husband—twenty-three knife wounds—and all these other knife killings, following the murder on the sands of Ensenada.

When I was a police reporter, we always knew, when a woman had killed her husband, that we could look for ambulances dragging in more slain husbands. There are spasms of shootings, eras of poison cases and now a gust of knife stabbings.

A STUDY OF THE PRIMITIVE

Richard Walton Tully, the dramatist, who has made a study of such things, accounts in an interesting way for the tendency of certain races to use certain weapons in their killings.

He believes that the tendency of southern races to use the dagger and the poison cup goes back to primitive days; days of thick overgrown jungles. It was easier to use a short weapon in thick underbrush. Poison came from the myriad poison plants and the continual suggestion of insects and serpents whose weapon was poison.

The traditional treachery of southern races and the crude brutality of northern races date back to times when southern races found their best method of fighting was concealment in thick growths; when northern races, looking out over vacant snow plains, could trust only in boldness and ferocity.

NOTHING TO WORRY OVER

France, with all the money in Europe and sitting on the top of the world, will be able to endure the heavy sarcasm of Mr. William Randolph Hearst with Christian fortitude.

ROCKING THE BOAT

The best thing the City Council could do by way of dealing with miniature golf would be to stop meddling with it.

Financial conditions have shown a notable improvement in Los Angeles and this is without question due in part to the golf linkettes. At a time when we needed it worst, a great lot of tied-up money was suddenly put into building and a great many frozen assets in the way of vacant lots suddenly began yielding incomes.

Don't rock the boat, gentlemen!

HORSES, HORSES, HORSES

With international polo, our minds turn to horses.

Although the breeds are better our horses have certainly lost in stamina since the days of old California when a ride of seventy-five miles was regarded as nothing.

Mr. Derio Orena, one of my friend whose experience goes back to pre-gringo days, says the change for the worse lies in the manner of breaking. Saddle horses are now broken at two years. He says in the old rancho days, they were never saddled until four years old—after they had acquired their fullest strength. Also they were al trained to the long swinging lope; not to the trot, which was less jarring to their spines.

LOVE SHOOTING TOLD BY WIFE

She Admits Wounding Mate and Self in Rage

First Story of Pair Blamed Bandits for Act

Physicians Declare Couple Probably will Live

Confessing, according to a Sheriff's office report, that she shot her husband, Frank J. Bailey, 30 years of age, in a fit of jealousy and then shot herself, Mrs. Utahna Lucille Bailey, 23, yesterday was held in the General Hospital on an accusation of assault with a deadly weapon with intent to commit murder.

After calling Bailey to her at their home in Clearwater at midnight Saturday, Mrs. Bailey fired a 22-caliber rifle bullet almost completely through his body beneath the heart and then turned the gun on herself, inflicting a similar wound, officers reported. The couple were discovered Sunday morning by a milkman and taken to the hospital.

The man and woman originally declared they had been shot by bandits while riding in their automobile, officers reported. Later, Mrs. Bailey stated she became jealous as the result of seeing another woman riding in the automobile with her husband the previous day.

Neither the man nor woman is believed to be fatally wounded.

FINAL RITES FOR PIONEER TO BE TODAY

Mrs. Elizabeth Sweetman will be Laid to Last Rest in Woodlawn Cemetery

Funeral services for Mrs. Elizabeth J. Sweetman, pioneer resident of California, will be conducted at 11 a.m. today in the chapel of Nolan & Sharp, Venice. Interment will be in Woodlawn Cemetery, Santa Monica. Mrs. Sweetman died Sunday at the summer cottage of her daughter, Mrs. William J. Gardner, 315 North Venice Boulevard, Venice.

MRS. ELIZABETH J. SWEETMAN

Born in Illinois, Mrs. Sweetman came west with her parents in a covered wagon in 1852. The family settled first in Oregon, moving to Northern California a year later. After marriage, Mrs. Sweetman came to Los Angeles in 1872 and lived for many years in an adobe house at what is now Fifth and Hill streets. Her husband was a mining engineer and cattleman. He died some years ago, leaving her alone to witness their four daughters observe their golden wedding anniversaries.

Mrs. Sweetman's daughters are Mrs. Gardner, Mrs. Emma Ledbetter, Mrs. Lizzie Cuddeback and Mrs. Mary Doyle. She also leaves one son, John F. Sweetman of Rialto; twenty grandchildren, twenty-five great-grandchildren and nine great-great-grandchildren.

Funeral Rites Conducted for Dudley Ayres

Funeral rites for Dudley Ayres, stage and radio entertainer who ended his own life in San Francisco Friday, were conducted yesterday at the Wee Kirk o' the Heather, Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Dr. Henry Kendall Booth, pastor of the First Congregational Church at Long Beach, officiated. The services were followed by cremation at Forest Lawn.

Mr. Ayres's body was found in his garage less than an hour after he had delivered his regular daily talk at radio station KYA. He had shot himself through the head. A note to his wife attributed the act to a fear that he was on the brink of insanity.

Mr. Ayres, who was 40 years of age, was well known in Southern California. He had played leads with stock companies in Los Angeles, San Diego, Long Beach and Pasadena.

COUNCILMEN PROVIDE FUND FOR CITY WATER

In accordance with an agreement previously entered into with the Board of Water and Power Commissioners, the City Council yesterday appropriated $480,000 from the reserve fund to pay for the unmetered use of water by city departments during the present fiscal year. Heretofore the Bureau of Waterworks and Supply has made no charge for this type of service, but the general city government paid a very large proportion of the bond charges on water bonds, a function the bureau now will assume entirely.

CHANGING OF HIGH SCHOOL NAME ASKED

"John Marshall" Objected to by Advocates of "East Hollywood" as Title

The Board of Education was asked at its meeting last night by representatives of civic associations in the East Hollywood section to reconsider the question of a name for the new high school which is soon to be erected at Tracy and St. George streets to serve that section.

The board has already voted to name it John Marshall High School, but with one exception the persons who appeared before it last night asked that it be named East Hollywood High School. The other suggestion was that it be called Griffith Park High School. Sentiment in the district was virtually unanimous for calling it East Hollywood High School, however, all the other speakers declared.

The speakers included Councilman Randall, within whose district the section lies; former Councilman Barnes of that district, who appeared as a representative of the Hollywood Junction Business Men's Association; E. J. Nyquist, president of the East Hollywood Improvement Association, and George F. Mosey, representing the Citizens' Committee of the First District.

No action was taken by the board on the request last night, but a promise was made that the matter will be settled within a week. Meanwhile it was announced at the meeting that bids for the building of the school will be received tomorrow and that it is expected to be built and ready for occupancy by the opening of the next school term.

EVANGELIST ACCUSED BY DETECTIVES

Affidavits Making Charge of Worldliness Read in McPherson Suit

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Sept. 8.—Affidavits made by Nick Harris detectives regarding asserted activities of Aimee Semple McPherson were introduced today in a civil suit affecting ownership of property of the Four Square Gospel Church in this city.

The local branch of Mrs. McPherson's church recently voted to withdraw from the parent organization after charges of worldliness against the woman pastor were aired at a meeting of the congregation.

Rev. H. E. Alford, pastor of the seceding members of the congregation, and E. J. Pollock, church secretary, testified at the trial before Justice of the Peace Morton in local Justice Court today. The hearing will be resumed Wednesday at 2 p.m.

The board of directors of the branch church voted on October 14, 1929, to cast off Mrs. McPherson's authority.

Five Hundred Attend Rites of W. W. Tritt

Attesting the esteem and affectionate regard in which W. W. Tritt, assistant superintendent of schools and widely known Los Angeles educator, who died last Friday, was held by his many friends and associates, more than 500 persons gathered at the Hollywood Cemetery chapel yesterday morning to pay their last tribute to one who for more than a generation had taken a leading position in educational affairs here.

Educators, principals from practically every school in the city, business associates, brother Masons and friends from every walk of life made up the group of mourners who filled the chapel. Floral tributes, crowding one upon the other, lined the chancel, the aisles and overflowed into the vestibule and entrance way.

Following a brief Christian Science service, members of the South Gate Masonic Lodge, of which he was a member, performed the Masonic rites for a departed brother, after which he was laid to rest in Hollywood Cemetery.

The Board of Education at its meeting last night voted to send a resolution of sympathy and respect to the widow of the deceased.

Loeb Balks at Traffic Ticket

Arthur M. Loeb, who charged he lost an eye in 1927 as a result of an attack made on him by H. J. Kimmerle and DeKalb Spurlin during a meeting of Julian Petroleum stockholders, was arrested last night, accused of refusing to accept a summons for violation of a traffic regulation.

Officer Crawford states Loeb ran through a signal at Seventh and San Pedro streets. When Loeb declined to accept the "ticket," according to Crawford, the policeman took him into custody and booked him at Central Station.

COUNTY SEALER REPORTS DOINGS

Weighing and Measuring of Commodities Checked

Nearly 32,000 Devices Found Inaccurate in Use

Merchants Seldom to Blame, Declares Official

Out of a total of 225,601 inspections made during the fiscal year ending June 30, last, 31,912 scales, gasoline pumps and other weighing and measuring devices were found to be defective, according to the annual report of Charles M. Fuller, head of the Department of Weights and Measures in Los Angeles county, filed yesterday with the Board of Supervisors.

"These inspections," the report states, "cover every variety and size of scale, from small and precise diamond balances and prescription scales to the largest auto truck and railroad track scales. We inspected thousands of gasoline pumps, tested graduates of less than an ounce and gauged gasoline trucks of more than 3000 gallons capacity.

MANY INCORRECT

"The necessity of this work is emphasized by the fact that 31,912 scales, gasoline pumps and other weighing and measuring devices were found to be giving incorrect amounts and were either adjusted to accuracy by our inspectors, condemned for use until repaired and rebuilt, or condemned and confiscated."

The report shows that 225,601 inspections in 30,964 places were made during the year, an increase of 2450 over the year before.

Relative to the figures on defective weighing and measuring devices, County Sealer Fuller in his report declares:

"The figures are not intended as a reflection on the merchants. In the majority of cases they are honest and want to do the right thing. A scale is subject to wear and tear the same as any other delicately adjusted mechanism that is in constant use.

BALANCE NO TEST

"It may balance perfectly and yet be so out of adjustment that when the test weights are placed on the platform, error will be revealed. On account of the nature of the commodity handled this is especially true of gasoline measuring pumps.

"We found 8563 computing scales incorrect. Of this number we adjusted 6012 to accuracy, condemned 2391 for use until repaired, rebuilt and then retested by us, and confiscated and destroyed 160.

"More than 14,000 tests were made of gasoline measuring pumps and devices. We found 3067 incorrect and out of this number 2324 were condemned for use until overhauled and repaired. It would be very much worth while if these devices could be tested every six months instead of once a year as many things happen to cause inaccuracies."

Carpenter Bust by Giorgi Given Science Academy

A bust sculpture of Ford A. Carpenter, member of the board of governors of the Los Angeles County Museum of Arts and Sciences, the work of Federico A. Giorgi, Los Angeles artist, was presented by the artist last night to the Southern Academy of Sciences, at the banquet given by this organization, at the University Club.

Giorgi is an Italian born in Rome, but now a citizen of the United States. He recently completed a bust of L. E. Behymer, which now is being exhibited in Hollywood.

Some of his work in Los Angeles consists of the Herculean figure now adorning the Elks' Temple entitled "Lady of the Sky." In 1915 he was winner of the gold medal at the Panama Pacific International Exposition in San Francisco.

PREACHERS PICK OFFICERS

Dr. William C. Hodgson Heads Methodist Group; Clyde Plummer Indorsed for Sheriff

Dr. William C. Hodgson, pastor of University Methodist Church, was elected president of the Methodist Preachers' Meeting at the annual business session conducted by the organization yesterday at First Methodist Church. Rev. Charles A. Kent, pastor of South Pasadena Church, was elected vice-president and Dr. H. B. Sellers of Euclid Heights Church was re-elected secretary-treasurer. The new program committee is composed of Dr. J. L. Gillies, chairman, and Drs. L. T. Guild and C. B. Dalton.

A resolution indorsing the candidacy of Clyde Plummer for Sheriff was adopted by the 400 ministers present, following addresses in which it was stated that the Women's Christian Temperance Union, the Anti-Saloon League and several influential newspapers are supporting Capt. Plummer.

"INTOLERANCE" URGED

Picturing the degradation that he said exists in many non-Christian countries, Dr. Lewis Thurber Guild, formerly local district superintendent of the Methodist Church, told his audience that "an intolerant Christianity is needed today to win the world for Christ."

"Intolerant Christianity has won out in the past and it can win again," said Dr. Guild. "The great need today is not the teaching of ethics and philosophy to Buddhists, Mohammedans and Hindus, not the mere statement by Christians that Jesus was a great teacher but the demand that allegiance be paid to Him as God. No method short of this intolerant attitude toward inadequate religions can match the of Mussolini and the sophistry of craft of Judaism, the treachery Gandhi. Neither a state church nor a ritualistic church can accomplish the salvation of humanity. What we need is an evangelical fanaticism, a Christianity afire with zeal, dead in love with Jesus Christ, the Christ who is not merely an improvement on Buddha or Mohammed but who is God Himself."

CONDITIONS IN INDIA

Dr. Guild, who recently returned to Los Angeles from a tour of the world, declared that for England to withdraw from India would mean chaos in that country. He spoke of the prevalence of phallic worship in India and added that "newspapers don't want to print these things."

Admitting that Mussolini has accomplished much good for Italy, Dr. Guild expressed his doubt concerning the endurance of Il Duce's regime, which he said is founded on force and espionage. Discussing Germany, he said that that country is done with Kaiserism and that the German people are bent upon establishing a government that shall truly represent all of the people.

Praising Japan for her forward strides, especially in the educational realm, Dr. Guild said that Japan is bidding for the good will of the world and expressed the hope that Congress will repeal "that law which was an insult to the Japanese people."

Note in Bible of Clergyman Hints Suicide

In the worn Bible that had never been very far from Dr. C. H. Hobbs, 79 years of age, in his long career as a clergyman and physician, was found yesterday a note causing his relatives great concern.

DR. C. H. HOBBS

Dr. Hobbs had left the home of his daughter, Mrs. Betty Stones, 2119 Longwood avenue, August 29, last, with only $5, realized from pawning his watch. It was supposed he had started to "hitch-hike" to Texas to carve out a new career. The note signed by him found yesterday suggested something much more disquieting.

"I am tired—wanting rest, with rest as the only thing at my command," read the note in part. "Self-imposed rest is no worse than the progressive homicide I have been undergoing these few, long, long years."

Mrs. Stones has asked the police to send out an alarm, and implores any who may have seen her father to communicate with her. Telephone, ORegon 6440.

PRESBYTERIANS OPEN MINISTERS' MEETINGS

The first of a series of fall meetings of the Presbyterian Ministers' Association was conducted yesterday at the Bible Institute. Rev. Theodore P. Smith, president, presided. Speakers included Dr. John M. MacInnis, in charge of educational training work of the church, and Dr. Arthur H. Briggs, State superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League. Meetings will be conducted the first, second and third Mondays of each month.

TRAFFIC HELP PROMISED CITY

St. Louis Officials to Aid with National Survey

Expert May be Employed on Peak Travel Problem

Downtown Parking Question Also Part of Project

Results of the nation-wide survey of traffic conditions by the legislative committee of the St. Louis Board of Aldermen will be made available to Los Angeles, Capt. Robert B. Brooks, director of streets and sewers, of St. Louis, said yesterday at a luncheon given by the Los Angeles Traffic Association in honor of the visitors at the Biltmore.

Capt. Brooks made known the willingness of the St. Louis officials to co-operate with Los Angeles in a response to addresses of welcome by David R. Faries, vice-president of the traffic association, acting chairman in the absence of Robert S. Breyer, president, and by Mayor Porter.

ST. LOUIS PROGRAM

The St. Louis traffic expert pointed out that downtown property values are built up by the community and declared that it is ridiculous to abandon such values for lack of ample gateways to the business district. He told of a program started in St. Louis in 1923 with the voting of $87,000,000 for major city improvements, including street widening, a civic center and water and sewer works.

Los Angeles plans served as models for activities in the middle western city, he said.

At a business session of the traffic association, it was indicated that Dr. Miller McClintock of the Harvard Bureau of Economic Research may be engaged to undertake a survey with relation to plans for the reduction of peak traffic and transportation loads and for an increase in downtown parking facilities. Chairman Faries placed the matter in the hands of the executive committee.

SCOPE OF SURVEY

Secretary Lindersmith read a letter from Dr. McClintock in which the traffic specialist made known the scope of the proposed study. Checks would be made of downtown motor and pedestrian traffic and, with the co-operation of private concerns, door counts at stores and the principal office buildings would be carried on. As to parking, Dr. McClintock said that the pressure of new building ultimately would eliminate the majority of parking lots.

J. A. Baldi, president of the Yellow Cab Company, spoke on the problems created by the taxicab. He said that approximately 700 taxicabs are being operated in Los Angeles and declared that 500 would suffice to serve the public. About 200 cabs cruise through the business district during the noparking period in the late afternoon, he said, adding that they create a traffic menace.

LAW SUGGESTIONS

The secretary presented copies of twenty-four suggestions of proposed motor vehicle legislation. The suggestions were submitted at a recent meeting of the Motor Vehicle Conference of California.

Among the suggested changes are an amendment to the financial responsibility law to provide that the financial responsibility act would apply in the event of the nonpayment of a final judgment of $50 or more, in place of the present $100; an amendment with reference to issuing a duplicate pink certificate when original is lost or destroyed to permit or require the Division of Motor Vehicles under proper conditions to require filing of a bond before issuing a duplicate.

The St. Louis party of Aldermen plan to leave Los Angeles today for San Diego on their way home.

Wife Divorces Critical Mate

Mrs. Vivian Darling Blair yesterday was granted a divorce from James Roscoe Blair by Superior Judge Yankwich on grounds of cruelty.

"My husband spent money on good times and compelled me to work," Mrs. Blair testified. "Although I bought my own clothes, he criticized my taste and complained that I paid too high prices." The Blairs married July 26, 1927, and separated June 30, last.

RED ORGANIZERS REFUSED TRIAL ON RIOTING CHARGE

Over the protest of the defendants, Municipal Judge Wood yesterday dismissed charges of rioting and inciting a riot against Frank Spector and Carl Sklar, Communist organizers. In ordering the dismissal Judge Wood said the move was not based on any probability that they might not be guilty, but because they are now serving terms of from three to forty-two years each in San Quentin and Folsom prisons, respectively, and even if found guilty would probably not serve jail sentences imposed.

"The dismissal is ordered in the interests of the public welfare," the court said. "These two defendants are taking advantage of the opportunity which they have made by acting as their own attorneys to express their peculiar views on government and economics at heavy cost to the public. The most they could expect, at the end of a very expensive trial, would be a dismissal of the charges against them, and by this dismissal at the present time they are denied none of their constitutional rights."

Judge Wood then ordered Spector and Sklar returned to the County Jail to await call as witnesses for the remaining eight defendants on trial for their parts in the Plaza riots of February 26, last. Spector, rising to his feet, protested against the dismissal, declaring "it shows the cowardice of the State," but his speech was interrupted by his guards, who removed him from the courtroom and took him back to jail.

Work of selecting a jury for the trial of the other defendants was then resumed. It had not been finished last night, and will be resumed tomorrow when court convenes after the holiday.

GIRL SUES TO STAY KNIFE AIMED AT MATERNAL HOPE

Miss Alma Hodges, 16-year-old patient in General Hospital, where physicians in consultation have decided an operation is necessary to save her life, does not wish to live if deprived of the ability to bear children, she indicated in an injunction suit filed by her guardian, Mrs. Grace Wells, 1655 West Twenty-second street, yesterday.

The petition states that the operation is "without reason and without physical necessity," but the physicians, headed by Dr. N. N. Wood, superintendent of the hospital, against whom the suit is directed, say differently. They state that Miss Hodges is suffering from an ailment of certain vital organs which make it "extremely problematical" if she lives without the operation.

Mrs. Hallie Holmes, 1808 South Hoover street, the girl's mother, says she is only 15 years of age. She adds that she opposes the girl's marriage to Roy White, who says he has been engaged for the past two years to marry Miss Hodges. He says Mrs. Holmes, the girl's mother, has consented to the marriage twice before, but has withdrawn her permission.

Superior Judge Gates signed a restraining order against hospital authorities yesterday, and set the date of the hearing the 16th inst.

ESCAPADES AT CATALINA LAID TO "ROGUISH" WIFE

Indiscretions at Catalina and elsewhere were asserted against his wife by Kenneth G. Dickson, a garage owner, who yesterday obtained a divorce from Julia R. Dickson in Superior Judge Guerin's court. Dickson complained that when his wife went to the island resort, he was informed that she acted in such a "roguish" manner with strange men that her girl companion quit her and told the husband.

Dickson asserted that his wife participated in a revel in a radio shop, sitting on the radio dealer's lap, handing out 10 for beer for the party, and dancing with men to the strains of a radio. The husband complained of his wife's asserted association with another man, adding that the two once were mistaken for husband and wife. Later, the husband recited, this man threatened to "fill him full of lead."

The husband complained that Mrs. Dickson urged women friends to lure him into compromising situations where he would be caught, but that he eluded these traps. Dickson won a decree on a cross-complaint, his wife having charged him with leaving her nights, taking his best clothes, although telling her he was going to work at his garage. Attorney Llewellyn Overholt represented the husband.

ACTRESS FIGHTS MOTHER'S MOVE TO CONTROL WAGES

If Sally Wray, motion-picture and stage dancer, is able to earn a fat salary every week, she is able to spend it, she declared yesterday in an affidavit filed by her attorney, A. Brigham Rose, contesting action of her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Schupbach, who seeks to be appointed the dancer's guardian.

Mrs. Schupbach declared that her 20-year-old daughter is "squandering" her salary, although it was admitted the young woman has an automobile and $1400 in the bank. Miss Wray asserted she will be 21 years of age December 3, next, and that she is no squanderer of money. She added that, in her opinion, her troubles were due to her stepfather, Fred Schupbach, who, since last August, she asserted, has been attempting to "seize" her property.

Miss Wray also asserts that her mother has been trying to collect her daughter's salary from her employers, and that the older woman's actions caused the dancer to lose a position with a revue. She further states that she has been giving her mother $30 to $35 a week for the past five years, and has supported her, although the latter's husband was financially able to do so.

The restraining order, petition for which will be heard by Superior Judge Stephens tomorrow, asks that her mother and stepfather be restrained from molesting her or her employers, and that if a guardian be found necessary, one of her choosing be appointed.

MRS. M'ADAMS'S MIND DECRIED

Physician Says Will Maker Was Mentally Weak

Angelus Temple Benefactor Called Incompetent

Senile Dementia Declared to Have Gripped Patient

Weak mentally and bodily, was the opinion expressed of Mrs. Catherine M. McAdams by Dr. A. J. Fitzgerald, testifying yesterday at the will contest hearing in Superior Judge Allen's court. Two relatives of Mrs. McAdams are contesting the [illegible] a will in which she left the bulk of her estate to Angelus Temple and affiliated organizations.

Dr. Fitzgerald testified that he attended Mrs. McAdams in her last illness. He testified that she died of enlargement of the heart and of [illegible].

"She was weak mentally as she was bodily," the physician asserted on the witness stand. "She suffered senile dementia, age insanity. She was in a condition where she was easily persuaded and deluded. She believed that she was healed of [illegible]. I asked her, if that was so, why she had sent for me, a physician. She seemed to have a [illegible] deluded condition.

"She was in no condition to do business in a business way. In my opinion she was not competent."

[illegible], Ruby and Bruce represent [illegible] E. McKeand, an uncle, who is contesting the will. N. H. Nelson appears for Mrs. Mation E. McCabe, a cousin, also a contestant. Randall [illegible] Reed represents Rev. Joseph W. [illegible] of Angelus Temple, the executor, and Tanner, Taft & O'Dell represent the beneficiary.

PAYMENT ASKED FOR MEDICINES

Suit Demands $97,670, as Damage in Deal Involving Patented Remedy

Demanding $97,670 assertedly suffered through failure to pay for certain patent medicines furnished by Dr. Robert A. Armstrong yesterday sued the Radium Research Foundation, Merle G. Farnsworth, and John [illegible], who he says agreed to pay him $12.50 to $20 for each "amount" of medicine supplied.

The medicines are known as "lue[illegible]" and "halanum," and Armstrong claims to be the original and sole distributor of them. He says the defendants are preparing substitute remedies dangerous to patients, and asks the court to enjoin their sale or distribution.

Blind Persons Sent Appeal to Use Workshop

Misplaced sympathy on the part of the gullible public is partly responsible for the fact that "the blind of Los Angeles are menaced by blind persons who follow the line of least resistance, taking [illegible] money for poor music when they might be usefully employed," according to David Glenn Reeder, representative of the State Industrial Workshop for the Blind, [illegible] West Pico, who spoke at the City Club yesterday on "The Problem of the Mendicant Blind."

"All blind persons who are citizens of the State have the privilege of working at the workshop, making mops, weaving baskets and bottoming chairs, for which they receive from $1 to $2 a day," he said.

Vernon Stiles Again Defendant in Divorce Suit

Vernon Stiles, nationally known singer, faced his wife's third attempt to divorce him yesterday when Mrs. Hester H. Stiles filed a complaint on grounds of desertion.

Mrs. Stiles's two previous complaints, one filed in the form of an answer to her husband's divorce action, named Mrs. John R. McGinnis as co-respondent and were accompanied by separate actions against Mrs. McGinnis for alienation of affections.

One such suit, transferred to Federal court on account of diverse citizenship of the parties involved, recently was dismissed "with prejudice," indicating a settlement out of court and prohibiting a similar suit on the same grounds.

Suspect Hunted in Knife Killing

Sheriff's office investigators yesterday were seeking four suspects in connection with the fatal stabbing of one Mexican and serious injury of a second in two drunken [illegible] last Sunday.

Jose M. Velasco of Glendora was held for questioning following the finding of the body of Felix Loera, [illegible] years of age, of Duarte, stabbed to death near Rock Town, Duarte. Three other Mexicans also were sought for the beating of Manuel [illegible], 25, of Puente, who was injured severely about the head with a beer bottle when he sought to flee after a dispute with the men, according to a Sheriff's report.

[illegible] CLASSES OF[illegible]

The principles and practice of [illegible] are now offered at the Los Angeles High Evening School in [illegible] classes from 7 to 9 [illegible] and Thursdays in [illegible]. Demonstration sales [illegible] leaders are given each [illegible] the direction of Merle [illegible], instructor.

SHE DENIES ROLE OF ROBBER'S AIDE

Beverly Hunt

Accused by police as a robbery suspect, Beverly Hunt, 28 years of age, yesterday sought to explain why she was in the County Jail.

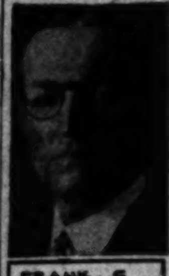
"All I was doing," she asserted, "was sitting in a parked automobile in Venice early Sunday morning when a man rushed up and said 'Cheese it, the cops.' I stayed there and was arrested."

Police declared the man, George Davis, 32, was identified as the man who a few hours before attempted to hold up a police officer in plain clothes and escaped. The Hunt woman and Davis denied knowing each other, according to police.

ELKS WILL HAVE MUSIC HALL DAYS

Event of 1900 Vintage to be Presented Tomorrow at Temple of Lodge

Turning back the calendar to the good old days of 1900, Los Angeles Lodge of Elks tomorrow evening in the temple opposite Westlake Park, will observe its forty-second birthday anniversary.



FRANK S HUTTON

"Old-Time Variety Music Hall Days" is the title given the program which will be held in the ballroom, transformed for the evening into a music hall of thirty years ago. Entertainment also will be presented in 1900 style, with the Cherry Sisters, the Strollin'-Through-the-Park-One-Day boys, acrobats, Florodora sextets, music-hall favorites, boxers of the John L. Sullivan type, and a free lunch of corn beef and cabbage.

The entire technical crew of Warner Brothers' studio has been placed at the convenience of the lodge. Oleson and Johnson, comedians' have promised to appear.

The program will follow a short session of lodge.

There will be no charge.

Thomas Heads Unit for Chest

C. S. Thomas, vice-president of George H. Burr, Conrad and Broom, Inc., will head committee No. 17 of the Community Chest campaign Central Division committee, a position he held last year, according to J. A. H. Kerr, Chest campaign chairman.

C. S. THOMAS

Thomas urges Los Angeles citizens to place the city in the front rank among Chest fund raising cities. "There are more than 300 leading American cities who have adopted the Community Chest method in dealing with their social welfare problems," Thomas stated. "Los Angeles is the third of these cities in point of population. However, we are not third in the amount of funds we raise for charitable purposes."

Thomas announces the following business men will aid him this year: Lawrence H. Wight; Carl H. Biggs; A. C. Karr; Harold D. Rowson; A. A. Wolk; Douglas M. Hodson; Walter J. Ward; Dunlap Castle; Carl J. Meyer, and John C. Wilfong.

County Farm Names Pour In

Names are still pouring into the office of Supervisor Shaw as suggestions for a title for the County Farm. Among the latest to reach him are "Honey Home," "Long View," "Sunset Home," "Rest Haven," "The Pension Home" and "Sunnyvale Acres." So far, the last seems to be the most popular.

Supervisor Shaw said last night that enough names have been suggested from which to pick one, which will be done soon.

Today's Bible Text

Study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, that ye may walk honestly toward them that are without, and that ye may have lack of nothing.—I Thess. iv, 11-12.

NO SUCH THING

Somebody says that the average American takes 18,968 steps a day. This is the bunk. It isn't that far to the garage.

THE RIGHT DAY

At Washington the firemen had their annual parade on a day when the thermometer was 102 in the shade. They had to be firemen to do it.

TOP OF THE MARKET

Seems that several New York magistrates had to pay liberally to higher-ups for their places on the bench. It is pretty tough when a judge has to pay scalper's rates for his seat.

THE WRONG LABEL

Tom Heflin, who has been compelled to run as an independent to retain his seat in the Senate, bills himself as a Jeffersonian Democrat. But Thomas Jefferson never declared war on the Vatican.

PARLOR GOLF

Somebody intimates that the crying need now is for a golf outfit in which the game can be played on a checkerboard. Then the easterners can gather in the chimney corner on winter nights and polish up their game.

THE MODERN MEXICO

President Ortiz Rubio is doing nobly in banishing illiteracy from the cactus republic. Schools are being established everywhere and the President is insisting that all the different States of Mexico expend at least 40 per cent of their revenues for educational purposes. If this is kept up for several years there will be few illiterates in the country. Mexico may easily become one of the great nations of the earth if she takes advantage of her wonderful resources.

GIVEN TO SLANDER

The publicity department of the Democratic National Committee as interpreted by Charles Michelson appears to be dedicated to slander and misrepresentation. President Hoover is the target for most of the bitterness and a stranger might think that he was the great enemy of the people and the betrayer of his country. The Democrats are entitled to a reasonable amount of criticism, but there is no warrant or justice in their doubting the patriotism of the big chief. A clean campaign is one thing; a dirty one has no defense.

THE WOMAN OF IT

The Senate has a right to pass upon the qualifications of its members, but if Senator Nye's committee investigates Ruth Hanna McCormick's campaign expenditures before she is a member of the Senate nobody will blame the lady for putting real detectives on the trail of Senator Nye, to uncover his methods and associates. It was reported that the Senator sensed the sleuths and wanted to know who was responsible. The lady is reported to have made answer: "I am. What are you going to do about it?" Which was really delicious if true. Meanwhile the era of investigation will never end.

W. W. TRITT

Los Angeles schools, indeed, the whole community, lost one of our most valued and best-loved public servants when death came unexpectedly to W. W. Tritt, for thirty-five years closely connected with the educational affairs of this city. At his funeral yesterday carloads of flowers and crowds of sympathetic mourners attested the high esteem in which he was held by the countless friends he made, not only in connection with his professional duties, but in his larger social and fraternal contacts.

As assistant superintendent of schools Mr. Tritt was a source of strength to Frank A. Bouelle, his lifelong associate, through a comradeship dating from their joint entry of Los Angeles High School forty years ago. He left his mark of kindly counsel and influence for harmony on the management of school interests to a degree that will be gratefully remembered by all who worked with him or under him long after his fine control has passed away.

WILBUR AT WORK

Dispatches from Washington setting forth the plans of Secretary Ray Lyman Wilbur for enlarging the scope of usefulness of the Interior Department supply additional indications, if any were needed, of the tremendous value to the country, and particularly to the West, of Dr. Wilbur's services. Gauged by his accomplishments in the comparatively brief time he has held the Interior portfolio, the importance of his retention to direct his unfinished work and the plans which he envisages for the department can hardly be exaggerated.

Dr. Wilbur has been called the most useful member of President Hoover's Cabinet. However that may be, it is certain that no abler man of broader gauge has ever served as Secretary of the Interior or has achieved more in a similar period of service. Large as have been his accomplishments, however, the work ahead is even larger and the need for his guiding hand is greater now than ever. Expert organization and planning, essential as they are, are not enough. Execution under the same able direction is required if the country is to receive the full benefit of the services for which President Hoover drafted Dr. Wilbur from his post as head of Stanford University.

Plans are under consideration for incorporating the Forest Service, the Biological Survey and the Public Health Service in the Interior Department. They would benefit by such a change. A national program of scientific reforestation, such as Dr. Wilbur has in mind and is qualified to direct, would be of immense value to the country and would be a logical companion work with other conservation measures of the Interior Department. The latter already has the National Park Service, to which that of forestry is associated.

But it is not necessary to seek new tasks that need Secretary Wilbur's supervision. The oil and gas conservation program which has been initiated under his regime is of immense national importance and has no more than got under way; it will need careful watching for some time to come. An excellent start has been made in co-ordinating various educational activities of other departments in that of the Interior. It should be continued.

Then there is Boulder Dam, of even more importance to the West. This is the biggest job the Reclamation Service has ever tackled and one which might be bungled with very serious consequences to life and property without a strong and competent hand at the helm. The somewhat unsatisfactory record of the Reclamation Service in some past projects does not give the public confidence that it has ability to handle Boulder Dam without a good deal of help. There are still complicated problems of organization and administration to be solved in connection with this great work, and they are more likely to be solved under Secretary Wilbur than anybody else who might be named at the present time.

The reorganization of the Indian Bureau is as yet purely experimental. For the first time in many years a specially qualified man has been placed at its head; but to say that this insures its progress on a satisfactory basis would be to say too much. Fifty years of failures and mistakes cannot be rectified by a wave of the hand.

The proposed transfer of public grazing lands to State control has not been consummated and remains a matter that requires a good deal of expert attention. And there are other matters.

It is plain that much of the potential service of Secretary Wilbur is still ahead. Stanford University doubtless feels the need of his return, but it can spare him better than can the nation for a brief period. The university, in fact, will receive far more credit, will have its prestige increased in a much greater degree, by his continuance of accomplishment at Washington than by anything he would be able to do at Palo Alto. There he would be just another college president. As Secretary of the Interior everything he does contributes to the university's reputation as well as to the national benefit. There is hardly an American college that would not consider it a great honor and a great privilege to be able to lend its President to the nation's service for a few years and would not feel amply compensated by the knowledge of so substantial a contribution.

THE UPSET IN ARGENTINA

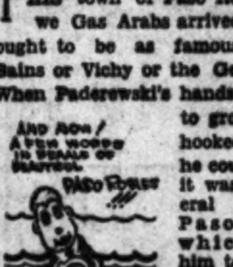
The deposition of President Yrigoyen of Argentina appears to have been caused wholly by his arbitrary handling of domestic affairs, but an improvement in the foreign relations of that country is expected to be the result. While the Yrigoyen government has nominally been on good terms with other nations, including the United States, it is no secret that real cordiality has been lacking and the Yrigoyen-named delegates to various Pan-American conferences and affairs have frequently upset the harmony of the gatherings. A case in point was the recent Pan-American Trade Conference at Sacramento, where some of the official Argentinians pulled out without apparent reason.

The new government, of course, cannot be judged for some weeks, but it can hardly have a more irritable disposition than President Yrigoyen displayed on several occasions, such as when he recalled the Argentine Ambassador at Washington and failed to appoint a successor and when he canceled appointments to an inter-American arbitration conference. The courtesies to President-elect Hoover when he visited Argentina in 1928 were notably lacking in warmth, and this was widely commented upon at the time.

Washington has been slow to recognize governments seizing power by force, but is under no obligation to apply any such principle except in Central America, where there is an agreement to that effect. In the cases, therefore, of both Peru and Argentina, the Secretary of State has a free hand and may extend or withhold recognition as circumstances seem to dictate. But the mere fact that President Yrigoyen was demonstratedly unfriendly to the United States would not, of course, justify a hurried recognition of a successor government.

The LEE SIDE o' L.A.
BY Lee Shippey

THIS town of Paso Robles, where we Gas Arabs arrived last night, ought to be as famous as Aix-le-Bains or Vichy or the German Spas. When Paderewski's hands threatened to grow stiff and hooked, so that he could not play, it was the mineral waters of Paso Robles which restored him to the world of music and so great was his enthusiasm over the qualities of the waters that he bought 3000 acres and has a beautiful home here. His country's chance for freedom during the World War recalled him to Europe and he became Poland's Premier, but he still owns his home in Paso Robles and when he comes to California this winter will make headquarters here. L. E. Behymer, our own famous impresario, was here the other day to see about it.



AND NOW! A FEW WORDS IN PRAISE OF PASO ROBLES
PASO ROBLES

President Obregon of Mexico also found the Paso Robles waters most helpful, and many other notables have come here for them. Rear-Admiral Robley Evans—Fighting Bob—was brought here on a stretcher and walked away a well man. A Premier of Greece, an English lord and many others who know Europe as well as America have found it the best place on earth for their troubles.

And yet, somehow, Paso Robles is very little known.

Paso Robles Mummies

When Father Serra's followers established Mission San Miguel, nine miles from Paso Robles, 133 years ago they were horrified to find here what they first took to be mummies, and then idols. They were mud figures of human beings. But they were only "casts" which had drawn the sickness out of Indians. For centuries the Indians had been coming here and plastering themselves with mud from the mineral springs. When they removed those casings they hardened like pottery and still are to be found here.

When the Southern Pacific built to San Francisco it decided to make these springs world famous. Stanford White was brought here to design a hotel—the Paso Robles—and it stands today as a marvel of old-fashioned comfort. It is humorously called the "House of a Thousand Chimneys," for in every room or suite of rooms there is a fireplace and the top of the big, roomy building is ornamented with a forest of chimneys.

Such Men Deserve More Than Medals

We often had heard of that hotel and of A. L. Richmond, the man who runs it. Richmond is the man who first made the Barbara Worth, in El Centro, famous. Many a big man who invested in Imperial Valley and helped it grow great owes his first good impressions to Richmond. Richmond found himself in a place in which men were men, ready to fight an uphill fight. The sort who wanted to coast down hill didn't come there. So when important visitors came he saw that they met the right men and saw the right things. Later he bought the Arlington in Santa Barbara and when the earthquake demolished that, denting him for $550,000 with no insurance, he showed his Imperial Valley spirit by starting again with courage and faith.

You never see any billboards along the highways advertising Richmond's hotel. He is a leader among hotel men in the fight for the preservation of roadside beauty. Of such is the kingdom of heaven.

Gas Arabs Blush With Shame

But when we reached Paso Robles we started to dodge that lovely hotel and seek an auto camp instead. We had been lost for hours in the Devil's Den country. We were unshaved and dirty. We were in shirt sleeves and had no coats along—camping in Sequoia we had needed only sweaters. Henry, eldest of our twenty-mule-team quartet, had a stubbed toe and couldn't wear shoes. Our dusty Ford had camp equipment strapped all over it and looked like a gypsy car.

So editorial we left the rest of the party outside while we went in to cancel our reservations and make apologies. There were men in dress suits in there, but when Richmond saw us he embraced us. Then he went out and embraced our helpspend, picked up the stubbed-toe boy in his arms and carried him inside. We had to follow.

We felt awful and looked worse. Our faces were dry and cracked and burned. But after a swim in the hot sulphur plunge we felt fit for anything—especially dinner—and had a skin you'd love to touch. Never before had anything taken the weariness and dispiritedness from us as that plunge did. And never have we heard so much joyous laughter, for all that part of the plunge which was roped off for children was full of them. Infantile paralysis germs could not live in that mineral water and Paso Robles is full of children just now.

Whitley's New Dream

Sitting in the lobby of the Paso Robles we saw H. J. Whitley, the genius responsible for the San Fernando Valley development and for much of the development of Hollywood. About six years ago Whitley became a Paso Robles enthusiast, after the waters had given him new strength. He bought 48,000 acres of ranch lands there and dreams of putting through one more great development project. He can't understand how fine fertile land with water on it, on a State highway and within reach of ocean winds can still be bought for around $50 an acre. But it gives one an idea of how much more valuable land is in the citrus belt than even a little way above it.

A BIG, BRIGHT STAR

An eastern magazine is offering cash prizes for the best list of history's important dates, the editor to be the judge of the contest. When all the lists are in it will be instructive to note how many, if any, include September 9, 1850.

Had the contest been conducted on this side of the continent the day when California was admitted to the Union would certainly have received a heavy vote. Those who followed Horace Greeley's advice years ago, and their descendants, all consider September 9, 1850, to be one of the important dates of history. And many who have since then listened to the slogan, "See America First," would mostly include our Admission Day in any compilation submitted.

Indeed, no American, proud of his country's record, will lightly pass up the day when the Stars and Stripes replaced the Bear Flag and a big bright star of the first magnitude was added to the azure field of Old Glory.

California has helped to swing westward the course of empire and hastened the complete balance between the Atlantic and Pacific seaboards, a consummation devoutly to be wished for the development of America as a harmonious whole. She has given our republic the window on the Pacific from which to view more clearly the era of vast fleets carrying the commerce between the Occident and the Orient. She has developed her own resources in advance of this new trade era and supplied our country its right place in the sun of changed world conditions.

If she had done no more than this California would have earned the honor of seeing her Admission Day written into the archives of the West as one of our most highly prized American anniversaries. But in addition she has built many prosperous and beautiful cities out of terrain at the time of her admission semidesert and uncultivated. In her eighty years of Statehood she has advanced from the primitive to a super-civilization more rapidly than any other commonwealth in any part of the world in any period of history.

Proof of this is seen in the 1930 census figures, where California heads the list of population growth with an increase of 64.6 per cent, far ahead of her two nearest competitors, Florida and Michigan. For the last decade the Empire State of the Atlantic has grown at only a third the rate of the empire commonwealth of the Pacific. No one county in the United States can show the richness and variety of agricultural products seen in the county of Los Angeles, wrested but a little more than fifty years ago from the wilderness.

What wonder that every Californian should think any list of important historical dates incomplete that did not include September 9, 1850!

WHY WORRY?

By James J. Montague

These far-seeing scientist fellows
Are a source of disquiet to me,
For they often allude to the shortage of food
That may come in 3000 A.D.
It seems to me thoughtless and sinful
Upon meat and potatoes to feed
Which, as now it appears, in a very few years
My grandchildren's children may need.

Whenever I toy with a beefsteak
I think, with a sorrowing sigh:
"If I wolf this today, bitter famine may prey
On some well-meaning soul by and by."
While the crumbs that were swept from my table
Might be fed, like the manna of old,
To some hungering wight with a large appetite
Long after I lie in the mold.

I ought to be sparing of pudding,
And partake of less custard and pie,
And thrust flapjacks away so they might serve to stay
The famine to come by and by.
But somehow when munching at meal times
The viands I love to be fed,
I eat like a horse without qualm or remorse,
For I cannot look that far ahead.

And, anyway, people of science
With marvelous minds are endued,
And already they've learned that the air can be turned Into tempting and nourishing food.
And so, when to meals I am summoned,
I munch and digest at my ease,
And I dreamily say, "Bully melon today,"
And add, with a grin: "Pass the cheese!"

A HURRICANE OF DESTRUCTION

BY ARTHUR L. MacKAYE

One of the earliest recorded hurricanes of destruction which has swept the Caribbean Sea and Santo Domingo was that which destroyed the royal fleet commanded by Prince Rupert of the Rhine, nephew of the ill-fated King of England, Charles I. When his royal uncle lost his head Rupert of the Rhine and his brother, Prince Maurice, took to the sea with a few loyal ships and sailed the ocean seeking booty and treasure. Rupert's Bay, in the Virgin Islands, still marks that distant day when the gallant prince made it the headquarters of his doomed fleet, which was destroyed in this great storm off the coast of Santo Domingo in 1653, just 277 years ago.

The following partial description of this old-time hurricane is taken from the historical novel, "The Pirate Prince."

"Suddenly in the west the sky became black, as though a curtain had been dropped from the heavens. This blackness began to bulge in the middle. The other ships now hurried to take in what sail they had on their yards. For some it was too late. Westward of the Dauntless and first to feel the oncoming fury of the terrific storm were the old Henrietta and the Seamew. Of all the fleet they were the two nearest together; the Seamew the more westerly. First there was a whine in the air. Soon this became a roar as if a dozen Niagaras were falling upon gigantic harp strings. The sound filled the world for those who heard it. There was an undertone of crashing chords.

"The Dauntless was not quite motionless, she quivered in all her stout timbers. On her decks were gallant men who would have boarded a bloodstained galleon without an instant's hesitation. Now as they gazed into the west, what they saw there caused their hearts to become faint, their knees weak; many were sick at their stomach. They feared, these men who had so seldom feared before.

"Under the swiftly moving, bulging blackness there kept pace a curious line of foam. It was as if the sea was being scooped up and thrown forward in dense white spray. Dimly seen behind this line of white was a monstrous shape which careened forward, driven by tremendous force. A moving mountain of torn and ragged water rolling upon itself, it thrust ahead foothills of gray, granite-like liquid that would swell upward only to be crushed flat again by the onrushing tidal mountain, which then thrust forward other buttresses with valleys between them.

"On rushed that white line of death and when it struck the Seamew it seemed to flatten her down into the sea, then plucked out her masts as though with an invisible hand and waved them in the blackness for a moment, as if in triumph. Now the swiftly following tidal wave appeared to reach out and grasp the forlorn hulk of the once proud warship. Raised out of her foam shroud, higher and higher, she was carried forward on the face of that monstrous wave with incredible swiftness. Always in advance was that white line of death. Quickly it reached out and battered down the doomed Henrietta. Over went the brave ship until her yardarms ripped into the tide beside her. And now through the black veil of the storm drift rushed forward that mountain of torn and tortured sea bearing upon its whirling crest the helpless hulk of the Seamew. Suddenly it shot out a foaming buttress of upheaving water that raised the prostrate Henrietta, broadside on, and the two ships were dashed together with a force so terrible that these stout vessels disintegrated at once and disappeared. They fell apart as if built of straw.

"From the quivering Dauntless the whole tragedy was visible as though from a stage, and men uttered a prayer who thought they had forgotten how. Orders were given to cut away the courses. A score of men leaped to the stays and halliards and hacked at them with their sheath knives. It was just in time, yet most of these men paid with their lives. With a force that dashed men to their death on the deck or picked them up and carried them overboard like bundles of straw, the hurricane struck the Dauntless, stern first. So terrible was this shock that the frigate was pushed down and forward. She buried her bow in the rugged water and was held there while the shrieking wind tore away every vestige of her sails.

"Then all who cared to look saw that black wall of water rush toward its prey. But at that moment two of the swirling buttresses shot out and the Dauntless rode in the valley between them. Thus was she caught on the upward heave of that rolling mountain of water and raced ahead as though to her doom, while the foam crest spilled over upon the high poop where living men still clung to ropes or bulwarks, numb in their helplessness.

"Gradually the crest of the tidal wave raced ahead of the half wrecked Dauntless, so that the ship slid down into the trough of the sea, to be caught up again by a following wave and hurled forward amid a chaos of spray and the roaring demons of the storm. But always the gallant frigate, as though imbued with a potent will to survive, overcame that death thrust of the waves. Again and again she was caught up like a buoyant chip and thrust through the blackness which enwrapped her, helpless, but defiant of destruction."

During the two and a quarter years of operation one air transportation service in Australia has carried 3002 passengers and 1375 tons of cargo.

FROM EYESORE TO BEAUTY SPOT

BY WILLIAM HAMILTON CLINE

Probably the greatest eyesore in all Los Angeles is the river named for it. And yet the traveler who enters the city via railroad has his first view of our community as he is brought along the banks of our disreputable river bed, as practically all trains enter that way. And in all candor it must be said, if we tried deliberately to make our poorest possible impression on newcomers, we could not pick out a more emphatic way. Yet it so easily could be otherwise.

Denver, a city a fraction of our size, used to have a similar eyesore. Cherry Creek bisects it and its banks long were catchalls for refuse, debris and detritus of every sort. Tin cans embellished it by the million and dead cats added their presence to all the rest. Its slow current was sluggish with garbage or worse, and its odor was literally a stench in the nostrils of all who approached its vicinity or were downwind from it. Meanwhile, the whole of Denver meekly apologized for its existence.

But Denver, unlike Los Angeles, has done something about its eyesore—has obliterated it, in fact, by making Cherry Creek one of its main scenic attractions—just as we might make of our river, had we the vision and the get-up to do it.

Along both sides of Cherry Creek, Denver has built concrete retaining walls, allowing ample channel for its flow at flood, and also has floored the creek bed with the same material. Then the banks on either side have been made into a speedway boulevard, meandering out from the city's business center to its delightful hill regions, connecting with its parks. This Speer Boulevard—named for the Mayor who visioned it—affords rapid transit, safety and variety of view, and greatly relieves the near-by city streets. Also, it has raised property values in that vicinity altitudinously and opened large, new, close-in districts to available uses.

Bridges of ornamental nature span the channel at intervals and connections are thus made with intersecting thoroughfares. Between the concrete walls and the roadways, flowers bloom and trees grow; bits of lawns rest the eye; at intervals, little parks are placed with seats for pedestrians and beds of bloom. Lights make it attractive o' nights and thus what was once Denver's chief cause for apology has become one of its proudest boasts of beauty.

Honolulu was faced with a somewhat similar problem; a part of its locale between downtown and Waikiki, salt flats and marshes, had become a sort of unofficial city dump. A wide roadway was flung across this terrain, the ground filled and beautified and the "Crossroads of the Pacific" pulled out of its mud and slime and refuse a real beauty spot, a garden of loveliness.

Our river affords no great problem in beautification. There is ample room for a wide flood channel and also for boulevards or speedways, with space for plantings to screen the stream lines and the channel itself. The cost would not be great; the city owns the land now; the only expense would be the actual physical work. It is practical; plans have been drawn for it more than once and doubtless may be found in the city's archives. Possibly a utilitarian use rather than an esthetic one—a truck highway rather than a pleasure boulevard—would be the ideal solution, but is there any real reason why a road of whatever sort should not have its border of beauty in a climate such as this? It only needs vision and action. We can so easily obliterate our eyesore, an' we will.

Once Westlake Park was a sumphole, a disgusting, stinking mudhole, that contaminated that whole region. Look at it now—and property values about it.

Denver did the job—and for only part of the year is its beautification enjoyable, in that its winters are so severe. Honolulu is doing it—mayhap has already accomplished its plans. Both are small cities compared to Los Angeles, with resources in kind. If these cities can and have—why not Los Angeles?

What a joy it would bring to every incoming traveler to see the beauty he expects, from his train windows, instead of the most disreputable, unkempt and altogether uninviting landscape the Southland has to offer, anywhere!

WHERE CAN I LEARN

Italian?

BY LOUISE L. TEMPLE

[Prepared in co-operation with the Los Angeles evening high schools. Questions concerning free evening classes will be answered if stamped addressed envelope is inclosed. Address Louise L. Temple, care of The Times.]

Free classes in Italian for adults are given by the public schools, both day and evening. The day class meets at the Public Library, Fifth and Grand, in the history room on Tuesdays and Fridays from 9 to 11 a.m. The evening classes meet from 7 to 9 p.m. at the Hollywood High School, corner Sunset and Highland, on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and also at the Los Angeles Evening High School, 4650 Country Club Drive, on Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Special stress is laid upon correct pronunciation. A basic foundation in grammar and correct conversational usage of the language also forms an important part of the course. The instructor, Signora E. Zana Rocco, is a cultured Italian lady, whose education was completed in the most select schools of Italy.

It's good when one is bent and old, with trembling limbs and muscles sore, to have some little store of gold, to keep the gaunt wolf from the door. It's pleasant to sit up and count the rubles, crowns and kindred junk, and know in all that fair amount there's not a single tainted plunk. They all were gained by honest toil, by honest trading in the mart; you played the game set forth by Hoyle, and tried no crooked wile or art. He cannot wear a happy smile when thinking, as the sun goes down, that by his systems fraught with guile, he robbed Smith and bunkoed Brown. He's looking backward all the time, as old men do, forevermore, and he remembers every crime that he pulled off in days of yore. There is no comfort anywhere for such a man, at Jordan's marge; and in a sort of sick despair he views the bundle that's so large. He is a happy man indeed, whose hoarded coins are free from stain; who gladly counts the chicken feed that gives him shelter from the rain. G.O.P. CONFLICT DUE TOMORROW

Fowler-Bull Chairman Fight will be Decided

Central Committee Facing Strong Tussle

Incumbent Suddenly Faced by Real Threat

BY THE WATCHMAN

The 303 Republican men and women elected in the recent primary as members of the Los Angeles County Republican Central Committee will meet in the City Hall tomorrow to effect an organization and name a chairman to succeed Col. W. E. Fowler.

Election of a county chairman, which a week ago was considered by the Fowler clique to be merely a matter of routine confirmation of the incumbent's ambition to be reelected, has taken on the aspects of one of the most intensive political scrimmages witnessed in local politics for many years.

A check of sentiment among the new committee members indicated yesterday that Fowler's control of the party machinery has been so seriously threatened by the opposition candidacy of Attorney Ingall W. Bull as to be in serious danger of overthrow.

VOTES SHOW TREND

A majority of the twenty-two Assembly District committee units have completed district organizations and are awaiting the general county conference tomorrow. Most of these have gone on record as opposing any commitment on the chairmanship until tomorrow's meeting. In the Fifty-eighth District, where Bull resides, the district body of sixteen indorsed his candidacy for the county headship and elected him district chairman, fifteen votes to one.

In the Sixty-fourth District, to which Fowler belongs, the county chairman lost control by a vote of nine to two, one of the members being absent. The division of sentiment among those supporting Fowler and Bull became increasingly apparent yesterday despite optimistic assertions by the incumbent's adherents.

And, as in the case of many other political maneuvers, conflicting and confusing reports and asseverations were scattered around.

SHARP DISAGREEMENT

Bull, who supported Dist.-Atty. Fitts in the recent gubernatorial election, was variously described by the Fowler faction as being a candidate of the Rolph-for-Governor group, or was pictured as a choice of the friends of Gov. Young.

And a comparing of notes between Fitts and Rolph partisans developed a sharp disagreement as to where Fowler's allegiance had been in the recent Republican Governorship race, some of the Fitts supporters positively claiming the county chairman as one of themselves and advisers of the San Francisco Mayor insisting that Rolph had had the benefit of Fowler's assistance.

Bull, a resident of Los Angeles for twenty-five years, during which time he has practiced law, was a law partner of the late Gov. Gage. He is Past Exalted Ruler of the local lodge of Elks and is a life-long Republican.

He announced yesterday that if elected county chairman, he will organize an active drive for all Republican nominees and will devote energetic attention to building up a strong body of Republicans in this county unequivocally dedicated to support the policies of the Hoover administration and to work for the renomination and re-election of President Hoover.

Death Annuls Jail Sentence

Leo L. Simpson, 35 years of age, serving a sentence of one year for bigamy, died early yesterday morning in the General Hospital. He was transferred to the hospital several weeks ago for treatment of tuberculosis on orders of Dr. Benjamin Blank, County Jail physician.

Simpson, according to court records, pleaded guilty to contracting a marriage without having been divorced from the woman he first married. He was sentenced to serve one year in the County Jail and was put on three years' probation last April.

Theft of Mail Brings Prison

After pleading guilty to a charge of theft of a letter containing $200 from an apartment-house mail box, Raymond Sproule, 20 years of age, was sentenced to five years at McNeil Federal prison yesterday by United States Judge Cosgrave.

It was stated by Postoffice Inspector Lowe that the defendant had served a previous term in prison for theft of a number of bonds.

Court Continues Tax-Dodge Case

Charges against Clarence Streeter, broker, were continued yesterday by United States Judge McCormick upon a showing that Streeter had made new offers of more than $20,000 in settlement of income tax charges.

Streeter is accused of evading the income tax and failure to pay the proper amount of income tax. The case was continued until November 25.

EUGENE STARK LEASES WILSHIRE RESTAURANT

Eugene Stark, former director of the Roosevelt, has taken a lease on the cafe property at Wilshire and Hauser boulevards. He will open a restaurant there next Monday night. Cabaret attractions, music and dancing will be conspicuous by their absence. The institution will be open for luncheon and dinner only, and also will cater to banquets and afternoon bridge parties. Before his service with the Roosevelt, Stark was manager of the Hillcrest Country Club.

by MYRA NYE

A delightful affair of yesterday afternoon was the tea given by Mrs. David E. Bradley at her home, 414 South Harvard Boulevard, in honor of her daughter, Miss Patricia Bradley, who is leaving tomorrow for postgraduate work at Wellesley. Fifty friends were bidden to the farewell function, which was smart in all its appointments with the decorative motif in sunshine yellow and jade green.

Those assisting the hostess in receiving and pouring were Miss Jane Rumbley, Miss Constance Bennett, Miss Paula Brandt, Miss Jane Reynard and Miss Wanda Yokum.

Accompanying Miss Bradley will be her mother and her brother, David E. Bradley, Jr. The latter will matriculate at Dartmouth. Miss Bradley is a member of Delta Gamma Sorority and was graduated in June from the University of California at Los Angeles.

Supper Dance

Mrs. Charles Jeffras entertained Thursday with a supper dance in Cocoanut Grove in honor of Mrs. Fred Aiken, who has recently returned from a trip abroad. Other guests were Mrs. Roy N. Strohn, Mrs. Carpenter Nave, Mrs. George MacAuley, Mrs. Isabelle O'Conner of San Francisco and Paris, Richard Wayne, Roy Seeley, George Reed, Arthur Braly, William Thompson, William Collins, Joseph Ferguson, George Boyd, Charles Adams and John Newton Russell.

Honoree

Many delightful affairs have been given recently in honor of Mrs. Frank Courtney (May Ridgeway) of Hongkong, who is the house guest of her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sutton. Mrs. Sutton entertained with two buffet supper parties, complimenting her sister and other affairs honoring Mrs. Courtney were given by Mrs. Cosmo Morgan, Mrs. William Caldwell and Mrs. Kenneth Preuss.

Mrs. John Vallely was hostess at a charmingly appointed dinner party given recently in honor of Mrs. Courtney and Lady Margaret Sharp of London. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Charles Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Preuss, A Webb, George Cole, M. Woodstock and R. Nosworthy.

Lady Sharp, who spends part of each year at her ranch at San Bernardino, formerly made her home in Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. Sutton and their son Charles Sutton, Jr., and Mrs. Courtney are planning to pass the coming week at Catalina.

Dinner party

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Preuss entertained at their home Saturday evening with a dinner party in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Aldrich Peck, who have just returned from their honeymoon in Honolulu. The guests, in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Peck, were Miss Alice McReynold and her fiance, Edwin Harbach; Mrs. Harold Bernard, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence English, Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Jarvis, Dr. and Mrs. John Schmoele and Mr. and Mrs. Richard St. John.

Birthday Anniversary

Miss Bertha Richbart, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richbart, 634 South Gramercy Place, entertained with a formal dinner-dance Saturday evening at the Sir Francis Drake Apartments in celebration of her birthday anniversary. Included among the guests was Sam Richbart, nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Richbart, who has just arrived from Buffalo, N. Y., to attend the University of Southern California.

Musicale

One of the interesting affairs of the past week was the musicale given Thursday evening by Judge and Mrs. Guy Bush, 158 South Serrano street, honoring Mrs. Charles C. Calhoun of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. and Mrs. Pietro Gentile. The musical program was provided by Mr. Gentile, Laurel Nemeth, soprano; the newly formed Los Angeles ensemble with Bessie Fuhrer Erb, violinist; Lucy Center, 'cellist, and Mrs. Bush, pianist; Ludivico Tomarchio, tenor; Jessie Heywood of New York, Helen Hayworth of Phoenix, and Ruth Bowes. A buffet supper was served to fifty guests.

Mr. Gentile recently returned from Washington, D. C., where he sang in concert at the White House for President Hoover.

Dinner and Bridge

Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Judson Claudius Rives at a dinner and bridge party which they gave at their home Friday evening were Messrs. and Mmes. Alexander B. Barret, Grove Fiske, Paul English, W. L. Homnand and Stephen Vavra.

University Club Luncheon

Mrs. Adeline Day Shorb of San Francisco, who is visiting in the Southland, is the recipient of much social attention. Wadsworth Harris gave an informal luncheon recently in honor of Mrs. Shorb at the University Club.

Novel Appointments

The Deauville Beach Club was the scene of a delightful bridge luncheon and shower, given in honor of Miss Mary Lou Saenger, Saturday by Misses Beatrice Brand and Lucille Umbdenstock. Fall flowers formed a pathway for a tiny bridal procession which formed the centerpiece for the luncheon table.

A surprise feature of the affair was the announcement of the engagement of Miss Lucille Umbdenstock to George C. Silzer, Jr.

Among the guest were Mmes. S. McKee Adams, Neil Shepard, Maurice Alexander, John Browne, Jr., Lilian C. Brand, Harold Buress, Frank Dearing, E. A. C. Hammond, Jr., Philip Lovely, Sidney Meeks, George Megica, F. O. Macklen, James Norton, Valdeimer Olson, Louis P. Saenger, Neil Shepard, Clayton Townsend, William Umbenstock, Byron Wolfe, Florence Windsor, Edward Wentz and Mrs. D. G. Hon of Glendale; the Misses Elizabeth Ashburn, Virginia Botsford, Katy Lou Crawford, Mary Esther Evans, Rachel Finch, Helen Gray, Hazel Harvin, Binnie Hickey, Margaret Jack, Maxine Lotta, Marjoria Martin, Anna Ewell Philips, Helen Pease, Celeste Ryus, Corinne Richardson, Virginia Seviek, Mary Lou Saenger, Erma Sorter, Helen Small, Margaret Tull, Elizabeth Tull, Betty Thompson, Blanche Weaver and Doris Wilder.

Will Return Home

Mrs. Joffie Hamlett, who has been visiting with her mother, Mrs. Jane Labory, 2635 South Hobart Boulevard for the past two months, will sail Saturday for Honolulu, where she makes her home.

Miss Dorothy Onions

MISS DOROTHY ONIONS, attractive daughter of Mrs. William Harry Onions of Rimpau Boulevard, has returned from a delightful trip in the East where she has been since mid-June. She and her mother made New York City their headquarters while they made side trips to Niagara, Montreal, Boston and Atlantic City. Before returning to the Pacific Coast by way of Lake Louise and Banff, Mrs. Onions and her daughter were honored with many delightful affairs in Cincinnati and Milwaukee, where they were the house guests of Dr. and Mrs. Frank Harback at their palatial lake house near Madison. Miss Onions will resume her studies at the University of California at Los Angeles, where she is a member of Alpha Chi Omega, Alpha Psi chapter, and of Spurs, national honorary organization.

Youth Confesses Stealing Cash in Registered Mail

When Charles A. McNeill, a youth, had a sudden inspiration, as he told United States District Judge Jacobs, that he could use $50 in money contained in a registered letter addressed to another person he did not figure the consequences, it appeared yesterday.

He pleaded guilty to a charge of theft from the mails and told the court that he opened a letter addressed to Mrs. C. A. McNear containing $50 and several notes. He said he started to return it to the postoffice, but on the way took out the $50 and sealed the letter.

He was sentenced to five months in the County Jail, to begin as of August 26, the date of his arrest.

Case of Ramos Dropped Due to His Ill Health

Because of ill health of the defendant the case of the government against Juan O. Ramos, formerly head of the Mexican division of a Los Angeles bank, and once a prominent figure in political and military affairs in Mexico, was taken off the court calendar yesterday by United States District Judge McCormick.

Ramos was accused of embezzlement of several thousand dollars of bank funds. He was arrested in Holland.

Lecturer will Discuss Salome

"Salome" is to be the subject of Dr. Bruce G. Kingsley's opera interpretation at Bullock's tomorrow at 10:30 a.m.

The story is a view of ancient Palestine in the court of the Herods with barbaric splendor featuring John the Baptist, his imprisonment and death, and the enchantress, Salome, whose artistry culminates in her dance of the seven veils. "Salome" will be presented during the Los Angeles Grand Opera Association season.

The educational programs at Bullock's are to be held on Wednesdays this season instead of Saturdays.

CHEF WYMAN'S RECIPES

The Times' free cooking school conducted by Chef Wyman has been discontinued for the summer. Date for resuming has not been set but will be announced later.

AVOCADO CANAPES OR SANDWICHES

Press the avocado through a sieve, and to one cupful of the pulp add one pimiento that has been pressed through a sieve, stir in a half a teaspoonful of Worcestershire sauce, one tablespoonful of mayonnaise, a half a teaspoonful of finely chopped parsley, and a seasoning of salt and paprika, if desired half a dozen stoned and finely chopped ripe olives may be added. Chill the mixture before using, if used for a sandwich, trim all the crusts from the bread, use no butter, but place a small piece of lettuce on the bread, spread with the avocado mixture, sprinkle with chopped hard-boiled egg whites and the yolks of the eggs that have been pressed through a sieve, add another lettuce leaf, and cover with another slice of bread. For canapes cut thin toast in rounds or use butter crackers, spread the center with the avocado mixture, and garnish the outside edges with the finely chopped whites, sprinkle the center with the egg yolk crumbs, and then add the little finely chopped parsley.

ROAST LEG OF LAMB WITH SAUCE

Wipe off the leg of lamb with a damp cloth, score it in three or four places, and in each scoring place a tiny piece of garlic, place the lamb in a roasting pan, have the oven hot and leave the cover off until the lamb is well browned on all sides, then cover and when it is half baked, pour over it the following sauce: Melt four tablespoonfuls of shortening in a saute pan, and add to it one-half of a medium-sized onion, one thinly sliced carrot, one-half of a crushed bay leaf, one tablespoonful of chopped parsley, and two stalks of celery, chopped, and one-half of a blade of mace, stir and cook until the vegetables are tender, then add eight pepper corns, one teaspoonful of salt, and three cupfuls of hot water, let this cook together until thoroughly blended. Pour the sauce over the meat and finish the baking. Basting from time to time. Just before removing from the oven add to the sauce four tablespoonfuls of capers, and one-fourth cupful of salt cooking sherry.

GRAPE TRIFLE

Wash and stem two pounds of grapes, red or black, place them in a sauce pan with about a half a cupful of water, place on a slow fire, and cook for fifteen minutes, drain off the juice, and rub the pulp through a sieve, combine the pulp and juice, and for every cupful of juice, and pulp use one tablespoonful of corn starch that has been diluted with a tablespoonful of cold water, sweeten to taste, and cook until slightly thickened, stirring constantly, allow to cool. Line a pudding dish with slices of stale cake, and pour the grape mixture over it, cover with a meringue and sprinkle the top with chopped nut meats.

IMPY BECOMES JEALOUS

There's truth in what we have been told,
That love will make the timid bold.
—Old Mother Nature.

Impy, the black chipmunk, was certain there wasn't another chipmunk in all the great world as beautiful as little Miss Frisky. You see, Impy had fallen in love with little Miss Frisky. She was a very shy little person. She seemed to Impy to be a very timid little person. Sometimes she would run away from Impy; sometimes she would stay for a little while, but if he tried to approach closely she would run away. It got so that most of the time while he was awake Impy was thinking of little Miss Frisky.

Impy had tried to find out just where little Miss Frisky lived, but so far he had not succeeded. He knew that it was not a great distance from his own home and he knew in a general way where it was. But, though he had hunted and hunted, he had not found the entrance. When little Miss Frisky did not come over to see him he would go to see her; that is, he would go over near where she lived. Sometimes he saw her and sometimes he did not.

Now it happened one morning that Impy waited in vain for little Miss Frisky to appear. Finally he started to look for her. He was almost over to the place where he thought she lived when he caught a glimpse of a chipmunk running along a fence rail. His first thought was that it was little Miss Frisky and he started after her as fast as he could go. But when he got a real good look at this chipmunk a little doubt crept into his mind.

"If that is Frisky, she certainly has grown overnight," thought Impy. "Yes, sir, she certainly has grown overnight. And the stripes on her coat are not just as I remember them. Can it be that there is another chipmunk?"

Just then he heard a rustle off to one side and, turning quickly, he caught a glimpse of little Miss Frisky herself. There was no doubt about it. Impy knew then that the other chipmunk was a stranger. He was just preparing to jump down in front of little Miss Frisky when he heard a rustling of leaves again; and there was the stranger racing after little Miss Frisky as fast as he could go. He paid not the slightest attention to Impy. Impy didn't know just what to do. In the first place, he was too much surprised to do anything, excepting to sit and stare.

"My goodness, that stranger is bigger than I!" thought Impy. "And he's chasing Frisky. Yes, sir, he's chasing Frisky! I wonder if he knows Frisky."

Impy started after the other two. Presently he came in sight of them. Little Miss Frisky was sitting on a big stone. The big stranger was sitting on another stone facing her. He not only was big, but he was handsome. Even Impy had to admit that he was handsome. Apparently little Miss Frisky thought so, too. When the stranger moved toward her she darted down between some stones. Impy could see her peeping out at the big stranger. It was quite clear that she admired him.

Right then and there jealousy filled the heart of Impy, the black chipmunk. He didn't want little Miss Frisky to admire him. He didn't want that big stranger around at all. He wanted little Miss Frisky all to himself. Almost before he realized what he was doing he had barked a sharp challenge to the big, handsome stranger. Instantly the stranger turned and barked back at him. Rage as black as his own coat filled Impy.

HOUSEHOLD SUGGESTIONS

A Loose Blade

If the blade has come loose from the knife handle, make a paste of three parts resin and one of powdered pumice. Heat the prong of the knife until red hot and press into the paste. When the paste hardens, the knife will be good and firm.

Use Your Imagination

The housewife will think up almost anything to make for improvement in the furnishings in her home. The same thing applies to cooking. A little imagination and thought when putting foods together make for very interesting dishes.

A Glass Tube

Don't try to give the patient who is unable to sit up a drink out of a glass and just trust to luck you will not spill it. Purchase a glass tube at a drug store and feed the invalid through this. It will cost much less than the danger done by your spilling.

Not Missed

Before putting the children's woolen dresses and suits into the suds for washing it is wise to run a basting thread around the badly soiled spots so as not to miss these important places.

YOUR BABY and MINE

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

Mrs. Eldred will be glad to answer all questions pertaining to babies and children. A stamped and self-addressed envelope forwarded to this office will bring a personal reply.

This department offers leaflets on weaning and feeding the child from 6 weeks to 6 years, prenatal care and diet for the nursing mother, constipation, eczema, outfits for the new baby, sleeping, walking, teething, thumb sucking, ammoniacal urine, bed wetting, training in cleanly habits, periods of nursing, cod liver oil, orange juice, hives, worms, vomiting, refractory children, prune juice, lime water, rupture, styes and boils and cradle cap. Before asking a personal question about one of these subjects, it is better to send a self-addressed stamped envelope for the leaflet you need. If your particular problem is not covered in the above list, Mrs. Eldred will be glad to give you a personal reply.

WHAT SHOULD THE HEALTHY YEAR-OLD BABY EAT?

Mothers undecided about the variety of food which may be given the baby of one year will find some valuable suggestions in the outline of this healthy baby's day.

"May I have your advice?" asks Mrs. H. J. W. "Son is a year old and weighs twenty-five pounds. At 5 months he had four teeth and weighed nineteen pounds. The doctor put him on a three-meal a day diet and he has had that ever since.

"Breakfast—Two to three ounces of orange juice. Six tablespoonfuls of oatmeal or cream of wheat. Six ounces of dried milk.

"Lunch—Two to three ounces of beef broth. Six tablespoonfuls of sieved vegetable—carrots, cabbage, peas or string beans. Six ounces of dried milk formula.

NO FOOD BETWEEN MEALS

"Night meal—Six tablespoonfuls of stewed fruit such as peaches, pears, apples or apricots, his six ounces of dried milk formula and some dessert such as jello, junket or cup custard. His hours are 7:30, 12:30 and 5:30 and he gets no food at any other times. He sleeps from 7 to 6 and takes two naps daily, of about an hour each.

"I would like to change to fresh milk. He doesn't care for the beef broth and I wonder if I could discard this, and can I stop sieving the vegetables? Also must I continue to boil his drinking water? Shall I give cod liver oil this winter? How? How about eggs, bacon and chopped meat? I read your column daily and find your answers to other readers have many times solved my own problems."

Baby is being beautifully fed, Mrs. H. J. W. You need not worry about the difficulty of changing from dried to fresh milk. Give one cup feeding of fresh cows' milk (grade A pasteurized milk from an ordinary cow, and not one giving too rich a milk,) and in a week give another cup feeding in place of another bottle feeding.

TRY MASHING VEGETABLES

You may discard the plain soup (to me this is valueless unless it contains vegetables,) since baby gets plenty of the vegetables in his diet. Try them unsieved and if they are not too laxative for him, you may continue just mashing them finely.

If your water supply is the usual good one in cities, you need not boil the water any longer. Cod liver oil is in order this winter or one of the irradiated ergosterols. Do not overdose, and don't forget that sunshine is necessary, too. Our feeding leaflet gives directions for giving cod liver oil. Irradiated ergosterols must be advised and doses suggested by a doctor.

Eggs and finely chopped meats are both quite all right in the menu of the year-old child. We offer also a leaflet called "Week's Menu for the Child from 1 to 2 Years," which is very helpful in balancing the diet properly. A self-addressed, stamped envelope will bring one or both of these leaflets to any interested reader.

T.A.T.-MADDUX LINE SETS UP NEW RECORD

The southwestern portion of the United States has just established another new commercial aviation record. The T.A.T.-Maddux Air Lines handled 843 passengers in the seven days ending last Saturday. This forms the greatest known volume of such traffic ever flown by any long-distance commercial aviation company in one week, according to a statement by H. W. Beck, traffic manager. The new high mark was attained by the western division, which includes 735 miles in California, seven in Nevada, 307 in Arizona, and 348 in New Mexico. Double or triple sections were required on Sunday, Labor Day, Friday and Saturday.

Health and D[illegible] ADVICE

THE GOOD PSYCHOLOGY OF BEAUTIFYING THE HOME

President Hoover has said, "America is a nation of 23,000,000 families living in 23,000,000 homes. To me, the foundation of American life rests upon home and family."

The fashioning of a home is one of the most satisfying of adventures. Everyone dreams of a home he will have some day, with roses climbing over the walls, beckoning curtains blowing in and out of the windows, and a warm cheery fire burning inside with lots of comfy chairs for old friends. While the savage has but a temporary resting place which he changes frequently for others, civilized man always longs for a home that is permanent, where he can have friendly trees growing in the yard, where there is something good to eat tucked away on the pantry shelves.

A large part of our leisure time is spent, or should be, in our homes. How important it is that our precious leisure hours be spent in pleasant surroundings. A home should be more than a place to hang your hat. It should be more than four walls surrounding a bed. It should be a place of inspiration, where one may really live and study and enjoy life. A home should be interesting and attractive. In it you should be able to spend joyous hours with your loved ones.

A real home is a place where you may welcome your friends, or where you may seek peace and quiet, as you choose.

The kind of a person you are is largely determined by the kind of a home you came from. It is well known that one of [illegible] in the world is to [illegible] in the right kind of [illegible] ment.

The home has a [illegible] with the physical [illegible] you eat your [illegible] meals. There you [illegible] sleep, recreation [illegible] most important [illegible] carried on in the [illegible]

HOME DECORATION TALKS—

COLORFUL FLOORS

More and more as I go into the new modern homes I find that the vogue for color has extended to the floors. No longer are floors dull, conventional, uninteresting. It is sound decoration to have them colorful, and our modern home owners evidently have at last accepted the great color movement. Now we find floors colorfully painted to lighten up interiors lacking natural brightness.

Old floors do not need to be torn up to be in accord with modern color practice. There is a wonderful new floor finish on the market, called Quick-Step. It is made by the General Paint Corporation, who also manufacture Flex. I have used Quick-Step myself. Any one can use Quick-Step, because it flows so smoothly. It's just as easy to work with as Flex and you know how easy that is.

I painted the somewhat worn linoleum in my kitchen a gay corn yellow last night and this [illegible] to walk on it. FILIPINOS GIVEN WARNING

Upland Police Tell Them that Molesting White Girls May Lead to Clashes

UPLAND, Sept. 8.—The few remaining Filipinos in this district have been given warning that any molesting of white girls may lead to clashes, and authorities are of the opinion no further warning need be given them.

The warning was carried to the Filipinos by one of their countrymen following a session at Upland Police Court following an asserted attempt of an islander to induce two little girls to enter his automobile.

The incident was reported to police by William Lee, 772 Third avenue, who said his daughter, Virginia, 8, and her little playmate, Bessie Kirk, 8, were walking a short distance ahead of him on Third avenue. As they crossed Tenth street, two Filipinos in a motor car stopped and invited the girls to ride.

Lee quickened his pace and the two Filipinos sped away in the car. Lee took the children home, and then reported the incident to police.

Efforts to find the two were unavailing, but one of their countrymen was called into the police station and instructed to warn the islanders to cease from molesting white girls.

Action of the Filipinos in trying to "pick up" the little girls served to increase feeling against the actions, since Eunice Lawyer, 15-year-old Alta Loma girl, was almost fatally slashed by a Filipino invading her bedroom at 2:30 o'clock one morning several days ago.

Five Injured by Automobiles in Orange County

SANTA ANA, Sept. 8.—W. W. Kays, 528 West Santa Clara avenue, mill superintendent for the Santa Ana Lumber Company, suffered fracture of both legs yesterday near San Juan Capistrano when he was struck by a passing automobile as he stood by his own car beside the highway. Marvin Hendricks, a companion who was near him escaped injury. Kays was taken to the Santa Ana Valley Hospital.

Three persons were hurt when a car driven by Judge Carl A. Stutsman of Department 20, Los Angeles Municipal Court, collided with two other cars at the junction of Mitchell avenue and Newport Road, Tustin, yesterday.

Belen Rico and two unidentified girls, all riding in the car of Tony Silva, Redlands, were injured. The three were treated at the County Hospital.

Silva's car was trying to pass a car driven by Lorenzo Ramies of El Modena on Newport Road and encountered Judge Stutsman's car as it was emerging from Mitchell avenue. Donald P. Burnett, 21, 271 South Grand street, Orange, was slightly hurt when his car overturned after a collision at Main and Walnut streets with a car driven by Ameres Chabes, 1016 Stafford street.

ANTELOPE VALLEY HAY SENT TO EAST COAST

LANCASTER, Sept. 8.—Antelope Valley has found a new outlet for its large crop of alfalfa hay, said by experts to be the most superior grown in the United States. A shipment just made consists of 300 tons and was sent by boat to New York and other eastern markets by the Westside Farmers' Association.

The hay left Los Angeles Harbor on a rising market, it is reported by Dr. Sherwin Gibbons of the shipping association. It is reported here today that alfalfa hay being shipped from San Francisco to New York is obtaining $31 to $32 a ton.

Heretofore Antelope Valley hay has found a ready market at Los Angeles, despite, at times, an oversupply in the Los Angeles market area. By shipping to New York, local growers believe their product will demand higher prices. At the same time Southern California demand will be strengthened by the boatload hay shipments into east coast centers.

RECORD-BREAKING TRIP COMPLETED IN ONE DAY

LONG PINE, Sept. 8. (AP) — A one-day trip from the highest elevation to the lowest in the United States—the 14,501-foot peak of Mt. McKinley to the below-sea-level sink of Death Valley—was recounted today by Norman Clyde, member of the Sierra Mountain Club.

Clyde made the long descent yesterday in seven hours—the first man to accomplish it between dawn and dusk. He hiked from the mountain peak down to this Owens Valley town in three and one-half hours. An automobile carried him to Death Valley, 276 feet below sea level and fifty miles east of here, in another three and one-half hours.

Clyde's descent took him through a temperature change of 85 deg.—from 2 below freezing on the windswept peak to 115 deg. in the shade in Death Valley.

GLIDER PILOT ENTERS NATIONAL CONTESTS

INGLEWOOD, Sept. 8.—This city will be represented at the national soaring and gliding contests of 1930, to be held in Elmira, N. Y., the 21st inst. to October 5, by Al Hastings, 118 North Oak street, who left yesterday to compete in duration, altitude, distance, spot landing and other contests of motorless aircraft.

Upon his return to California Hastings, who is an expert pilot and instructor, plans a glider flight from the top of Mt. Lowe. Feats of this nature have become a popular sport in Europe, but as yet have not been attempted in the United States.

ACCESSORIES STOLEN

HUNTINGTON PARK, Sept. 8.—Two Hoover steamers and two sets of attachments were stolen from an automobile owned by M. Rawak, of 6535 Pacific Boulevard, while his machine was parked at a curbing on Gentry street. The stolen property is valued at $300.

Valley Annex to Place Products at County Fair

VAN NUYS, Sept. 8.—Next Saturday is San Fernando Valley day at the Los Angeles County Fair at Pomona, and plans have been made by residents of the ten or twelve towns in the valley area to attend in larger numbers than ever before. This year San Fernando Valley will have a large plate display of the fair. For several days women from all over the valley have been sending in to the various chambers of commerce individual exhibits in the shape of canned fruits and vegetables and other sorts of household industrial work. Valley firms and agricultural leaders also will have on display trays of oranges, lemons, grapefruit, nuts and the many sorts of vegetables grown in this section. Most of the residents will attend the fair by automobile, though the Pacific Electric has arranged to carry a large crowd to Pomona and return. Mrs. Prudence Ward, secretary of the Van Nuys Chamber of Commerce; Wilber Price, secretary of the North Hollywood chamber, and C. C. Arrowsmith, secretary of the San Fernando chamber, have been instrumental in getting the valley exhibits together.

Death Claims Army Officer

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 8.—Death claimed one of Coronado's most picturesque residents this morning when Maj. William L. Kneedler, United States Army, retired, passed away at the Coronado Emergency Hospital.

Kneedler resided at 1004 Adella street. A veteran campaigner the soldier served with distinction against the hostile Sioux tribes in the Midwest, in the Spanish-American War and in the Philippine insurrection.

For several years the major served as President Taft's personal physician and accompanied him on his travels when he was president of the Philippine Commission and Governor of the islands.

He is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Martha K. Brix of Coronado and Mrs. Jessie Cummins of Detroit, and a brother, Harry of Philadelphia.

Kneedler, retired in 1906, had lived in this vicinity for twenty-eight years.

Gypsy Works Old Racket

SANTA ANA, Sept. 8.—The old-time gypsy fortune-telling racket today had been worked again in Santa Ana with Mabel Gilchrest the victim to the extent of four new $20 bills. Mrs. Gilchrest said she invited the gypsy woman to her home to have her fortune told. First the gypsy asked for 50 cents, then she asked for all her client's money, saying that money was Mrs. Gilchrest's curse. The gypsy woman put the money in a bag of rags and told Mrs. Gilchrest to let it remain under a pillow for three days.

After the gypsy woman had departed, Mrs. Gilchrest became suspicious and, upon investigating, found that her money was no longer under the pillow. Paper, fashioned to represent a roll of bills, was there instead.

Catholics Plan School Building

NORTH HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 8.—Construction of a $45,000 parochial school building in North Hollywood by the St. Charles Church parish is scheduled to begin by the first of the year, it is announced today by leading members of the church. The annual church fair is to be held soon and is expected to bring in sufficient funds to pay off the remaining indebtedness on the church here. This will clear the way for the school building. Present plans call for a building similar to the one recently erected at Van Nuys and which now has an enrollment of 300 children. Local Catholics assert that more Catholics would move into San Fernando Valley if there were more parochial schools in the valley area.

FORMER OFFICIAL DIES AT ALHAMBRA

ALHAMBRA, Sept. 8.—Edward A. Neiger, 52 years of age, former president of the Alhambra City Commission and for many years a business leader here, passed away today at his home, 135 North Fifth street, after an illness of three months.

He was a native of New York State, coming to California thirty-two years ago and residing in Orange county for ten years. He then came to Alhambra where he established a storage and transfer business of which he was president at the time of his death.

Mr. Neiger is survived by his widow, Mrs. Minnie R. Neiger; two sons, Roscoe and Ruel, both of Alhambra, and a sister, Mrs. Catherine Munger of Seymour, Wis. Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the chapel of Turner, Stevens & Turner.

SPECIAL DAYS AT RIVERSIDE FAIR

Entertainment Program Dedicated to Various Groups

Indian School Braves

These young men from Sherman Institute are not out for scalps but, on the contrary, are showing the dance of welcome they will stage for the pale-face brothers of Kiwanis, Rotary, Lions and other civic organizations to be entertained at the Southern California Fair, Riverside, the 23rd to 28th inst.

RIVERSIDE, Sept. 8.—Plans for the welcome and entertainment of numerous Southland service clubs, civic organizations and communities at the Southern California Fair, Riverside, the 23rd to 28th inst., have just been announced by August Rohrbacker, president of the Forty-sixth District Agricultural Association, which sponsors the event. Every fair day, according to Mr. Rohrbacker, will be dedicated to one or more of the prominent groups who contribute to the fair's success each year.

Opening day, Tuesday, the 23rd inst., will be in honor of Southern California newspaper men, Southern California schools and the Sherman Institute. Rotary Club and 20-30 Club day will be Wednesday, with Thursday dedicated to Kiwanis and the Lions' Club; Friday will be Zonta Club day and Saturday will be featured by Exchange Club and American Legion activities.

Southern California counties which will celebrate special days are Ventura, San Diego and Imperial on Wednesday; Riverside on Thursday; Orange and Santa Barbara counties on Friday, and Saturday has been set aside for Los Angeles city and Los Angeles and San Bernardino counties. Sunday, the final day of the fair, will be observed as all-Southern California day.

In addition to these numerous activities, the horse racing, flying and other amusement features, daytime and evening band concerts and other musical offerings will be presented by such well-known organizations as the March Field Band, Pomona College Glee Club, the Spanish Enchantadores and the Sherman Institute, Long Beach and Riverside military bands, officials state.

In spite of the early rush of entrants in both agricultural and live-stock divisions, officials say that the constant flood of additional exhibitors' entries makes it certain that this year's fair will eclipse all others in variety, quality and quantity of products shown.

SKIPPERS DEFY SHERIFF

Water Taxis Continue to Serve Gaming Ship at Ventura in Spite of Orders of Officers

VENTURA, Sept. 8.—Defying orders of Sheriff Clark and of the Frank Meline Company, water taxis of the gambling barge William H. Harriman carried passengers Saturday and Sunday nights from the Meline Pier in Pierpont Bay.

Raid upon the water taxis and a patrol for the pier, with the possibility of arrests of the skippers, were likelihoods as the Sheriff's office took up the matter with the District Attorney's staff. Whether the action would go under trespass or State gambling water-taxi laws was to be decided.

Following an announcement Saturday by V. Tudor, of the gambling ship staff, that the barge would operate with Pierpont Bay as its base, D. A. Riwer, manager of the Frank Meline Company applied to the Sheriff's office for protection against trespass.

Sheriff Clark, with a detachment of deputies, visited the pier and notified water-taxi operators that they were not to operate.

"They promised not to take on passengers and said they would advise me if they did," Sheriff Clark said today. After the deputies had left, the taxis started business and kept it up through last night, according to reports.

Ventura police halted the water taxis from running to the Ventura wharf, threatening arrest under the State law that prohibits the taking of passengers to gaming ships.

TREES ARE SACRIFICED TO PROGRESS

Seven-Year Fight to Save Eucalyptus Lost by Glendale Group

GLENDALE, Sept. 8.—The seven-year fight for the preservation of the giant eucalyptus trees on West Lomita avenue was definitely ended today when crews employed by the contractors who have been awarded the contract for widening the street began uprooting the trees that must make way for the improvement project.

The eucalyptus trees, themselves, will have two more days of grace, as it will require that length of time before the gangs have felled and removed the pine, acacia, pepper and camphor trees at the west end of the block.

James Neill, veteran actor, who has led the fight for the last seven years to save the trees, declared today that he and those associated with him in the litigation that was carried up to the State Supreme Court will accept their defeat philosophically. The Supreme Court refused to review the decision of the Appellate Court dissolving an injunction granted by the Superior Court to Neill and the others who filed the suit against the removal of the trees.

As a last move to save the eucalyptus trees Neill asked the contractors, Anderson & Zaich, what they would take to call off their contract, but the contractors refused to consider any offer.

Woman Escapes Unhurt from Bad AutoCrash

LOMA LINDA, Sept. 8.—Mrs. Euphemia Wright, 2745 Hill Crest avenue, Berkeley, is alive today although officers of the State motorcycle police who investigated the accident in which her car was totally wrecked cannot account for it. Not only alive but she is scarcely scratched and suffering only from shock.

Mrs. Wright was driving south on Mountain View avenue near here when she came to a boulevard stop. She stopped and started again without seeing a truck driven by Harley Butt of Yucaipa coming up Colton avenue. Her car swung directly in front of the truck and there was a terrific crash.

Mrs. Wright's car was thrown over against a telephone pole and wrapped around it. The back part of the car was completely smashed, and in the front part, only the driver's seat escaped and Mrs. Wright was catapulted out when the top was torn off, and thrown into newly ploughed ground. She does not have a serious scratch or bruise on her person.

BURGLARS INVADE HOME OF OFFICER

GLENDALE, Sept. 8.—Harry Wright, chief criminal deputy sheriff, came home yesterday, changed his clothes and went visiting somewhere. While he and his family were absent from their home at 419 West Pioneer Drive, burglars entered the house, stole jewelry and two watches, valued at $250, as well as Wright's revolver, and fled. They left a deputy sheriff's gold badge that was pinned to a vest in the closet that they rifled. One of the watches stolen was a gift from a friend and bore a complimentary inscription.

PASADENA THEATER ROBBED

Show House Loses $750 Taken from Safe Early Monday Morning

PASADENA, Sept. 8.—A well-dressed, middle-aged man is being sought by the police as a suspect in the "cracking" of the Colorado Theater's safe by robbers who escaped with $750 in cash early today. The robbery was discovered at 9 a.m. today by W. D. McKensie, janitor, who found the safe, overturned and empty, in the office of L. L. Clark, assistant manager.

Evidence unearthed by Chief of Detectives Charles A. Betts and Detective Lieutenants Edward Ewing and Clair Corbin, indicates that the robbers attempted to "jimmy" every door in the building before they finally pried a side door from its hinges and gained entrance.

Apparently acquainted with the interior arrangement, the thieves entered the small office containing the 500-pound safe and cut off the lock with a sledge hammer and chisel. They secured $250 in silver and $500 in currency placed in the safe last night by the cashier, Manager Stanley N. Chambers of the Fox-West Coast Theaters, announced. Mr. Clark's .38-caliber revolver was taken from his desk drawer and some of the theater keys are missing.

Miss Gertrude Gutknecht, an usherette, reported to the police that a well-dressed man loitered about the theater after closing time last night and that he appeared to be inspecting the theater entrances.

This man, who is being sought for questioning, is described as 40 years of age, medium height and heavy set, dark hair and dark eyes. He was wearing a gray suit.

Four months ago, three youths entered the theater and demanded the receipts from George Christophers, former manager. The receipts had been placed in the safe and the trio fled without obtaining any loot.

ENORMOUS CROP OF ORANGES IN SIGHT

ANAHEIM, Sept. 8.—Prospects for a mammoth crop of oranges for 1931 are favorable for Northern Orange county, according to first estimates issued by Dale R. King, manager of the Northern Orange County Citrus Exchange.

Mr. King believes that the 1931 crop will be second only to that of 1929, the largest crop in the history of the district. During the 1929 season a total of 88,016 cars was shipped from California, 7960 being from Northern Orange county.

No insurmountable difficulty is foreseen in the handling of the coming crop, Mr. King said, because of foreign markets recently opened by the exchange, and because of a normal growth of population which is expected to absorb increased production.

JAMES F. WEALES TO BE BURIED TODAY

ALTADENA, Sept. 8.—Funeral services for James F. Weales, outstanding local Mason who died Saturday at his home, 1677 Homewood Drive, will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in the Turner & Stevens Co. chapel, Pasadena. Entombment will follow in Pasadena Mausoleum.

Mr. Weales was 62 years of age. During his local residence, he associated himself with the Pasadena chapters of Scottish Rite and Sciots. He was also a member of Al Malaikah Shrine Temple, Los Angeles.

Besides his widow, Mrs. Mary A. Weales, he leaves a daughter, Mrs. Martha MacDonald Nye of Pasadena.

INJURED LAD DIES AT LONG BEACH HOSPITAL

LONG BEACH, Sept. 8.—John Zylstra, 12 years of age, of 1944 Raymond avenue, died at the Community Hospital today as the result of injuries received on the 4th inst., when an automobile struck him while he was riding a toy wagon down a hill in the city of Signal Hill. An inquest will be held on the 10th inst. at the Clinkenbeard mortuary. Clyde Hall, 133 East Twenty-third street, Signal Hill, was the driver of the car.

TRUTH OF REPORT DOUBTED

Friends of Redlands Man Fail to Get Details of Fatal Accident

REDLANDS, Sept. 8.—Friends here became convinced this morning that the report of the death of Winona C. Truett, Jr., well-known automobile salesman of Redlands, in an accident at Pasadena Saturday, was greatly exaggerated. No trace of Truett can be found, and no evidence of an accident of any sort.

Truett worked for Jimmie Derbin in Redlands. Saturday afternoon Derbin received a telegram saying Truett had been killed in a motor accident in Pasadena and signed "W. C. Truett, Sr." It also stated that the body would be taken to Pasadena for burial. Later a valley newspaper received a telephone call from a man supposed to be the grief-stricken father, stating that the body was at an undertaking parlor in Los Angeles, giving details of the accident and saying the body would be taken to Dallas.

Derbin tried to get in touch with the father at the undertaking parlors and was told there was no such man there and no such body. He began inquiries and could find no trace of an accident and the Los Angeles Coroner told him he had no report of any such man being killed.

Truett, Sr., told the newspaper he had come to Los Angeles and been met by his son, who was bringing him to Highland to see the son's fiance, Miss Velda Treloar, at Highland, when the accident occurred. Miss Treloar is not home and it was stated there she has gone on a trip. Truett has been living at a hotel in San Bernardino and there he told people he was going away and left Friday night. All his belongings are in his room and no friends or relatives have inquired about them.

Factory Heads Enjoy Picnic

ONTARIO, Sept. 8.—Adelanto, out on the desert near Victorville, was the rendezvous for department heads of the Hotpoint plant of the Edison General Electric Appliance Company over the week-end.

Each year the department heads take a two-day outing in the early fall, with the Spring ranch at Adelanto, the favored place this year. A turkey dinner was the reception awaiting them when they arrived at the ranch Saturday evening. A camp-fire celebration and program of music and entertainment followed the dinner.

Saturday night the outers slept out under the desert stars, and enjoyed a bountiful breakfast of ham and eggs Sunday morning.

On the general committee were T. W. Nagle, chairman; W. H. Tangeman and E. H. Richardson.

POLE SITTER LEAVES HIS LOFTY PERCH

NEWPORT BEACH, Sept. 8.—"Bob the flag-pole sitter" has come down to earth after staying up on his perch above the Casino dance hall for 1021 hours, or six weeks and one day. He went to his roost on July 28 and was forced to come down because his limbs were getting stiff. Today he is able to walk a little. He had to learn the art all over again.

The squad from the fire department set up a ladder, Capt. J. Brisco climbed to the top and released "Bob," setting him on the shoulders of Percey Pellett who carried him to terra firma. Officers Windringer and Hunnicutt assisted in bringing the pole sitter down.

Michaeljohn Brothers paid him $50 a week and hoisted his meals to him.

LATTER-DAY SAINTS MEET IN CONFERENCE

HUNTINGTON PARK, Sept. 8.—The quarterly conference of the Church of Jesus Christ of the Latter Day Saints was held here yesterday morning, afternoon and evening with Leo J. Muir, president of the Los Angeles Stake, in charge. Among the speakers were Rudger Clawson, president of the Twelve Apostles, and Joseph W. McMurrin, president of the California Missions of the church. The Young Men's and Young Ladies' Mutual Improvement associations of the church had charge of the services last night. The next conference will be on November 22 and 23.

CHAFFEY BOYS FIFTH IN STOCK JUDGING

ONTARIO, Sept. 8 — Boys of Chaffey Union High School, department of agriculture who belong to the "green" class in stock and fruit judging, came out fifth best at the State fair in Sacramento, Charles A. Perrin, in charge of agricultural instruction, announced upon his return with the fifteen boys who made the trip. Edward Weed tied for high-point man of the 500 boys in the judging contests. John Tate was one of ten boys of the State to receive the "Future Farmers" key, from the hands of Gov. Young.

VETERANS' AIDES TO MEET

NORWALK, Sept. 8.—Federation No. 5, Auxiliaries of Civil War Veterans, will meet here Wednesday with members of Dan Bidwell Relief Corps. This group represents eight corps and meets every other month to hear reports of work accomplished in behalf of all veteran organizations.

DEATH MYSTERY STILL UNSOLVED

Officials Doubt Confession of New York Prisoner

Asserts He Murdered Woman in Imperial Valley

Records at San Quentin May be of Help to Sheriff

SAN DIEGO, Sept. 8.—Search in the Jacumba area has failed to disclose any evidence to support the purported confession of Gerome E. Hargard, government prisoner in New York, that he killed Florence Higsby near the San Diego mountain resort in 1924, Sheriff Ed Cooper admitted today.

An abandoned mine shaft, 300 feet from where the young woman's bleached skull and a woman's hiking boot had been found June 28, last, was probed by Deputy Sheriff Fred Buck and Undersheriff Oliver Sexson, but was found empty.

Presence of the shaft had been discovered by Deputy Sheriff W. H. Sooter and at first was supposed to lend support to Hargard's statements. After finding of the skull and boot during the summer, no other evidence to aid in solving the mystery of how the young woman came to meet her death was found until word of the Hargard confession was received late last week. Hargard, held under observation by Federal authorities in the East, was said to have confessed he killed the Higsby girl when she threatened to tell of their relationship unless he married her. He said he hid her body in an abandoned mine. No resident of the mountain area could remember having known of such a girl or of Hargard, the Sheriff said.

The office, likewise, holds no record of a girl as missing, however, Hargard's record shows he was jailed in Los Angeles soon after the asserted slaying but on a charge of grand theft. He served a term in San Quentin for the Los Angeles offense, the record indicates.

Sheriff Cooper said, he would obtain a photograph of Hargard from the prison files, and display it to mountain residents throughout the county in hopes of gaining corroboration of Hargard's statements that he was here in 1924.

Chaffey Opens for New Term

ONTARIO, Sept. 8.—Monday, the 8th inst., marked the preliminary opening of the school year for students in Chaffey Union High School and Junior College.

New students began to preregister for both the high school and junior college.

Wednesday morning the freshmen and sophomores in the high-school register; Thursday is the day for the juniors and seniors to register. Junior college students register Friday, as do also Upland junior high-school and Fontana junior high-school students.

Saturday has been set aside as the day for making changes in registration.

Regular class work begins Monday, the 15th inst.

According to Vice-Principal W. E. Fischer, the evening school short course will not open until October. Continuation school survey and registrations are scheduled from Wednesday to Friday, the 10th to 12th inst.

PARK BOARD FINDS PALMS NOT INJURED

REDLANDS, Sept. 8.—Riverside has been stirred to the depths recently by charges that the park board there has been lax and permitted small fronds to be taken out of the tops of palm trees in September for a Jewish festival which is held during the month. Some of the nature lovers there demanded the resignation of the board and said the trees will be killed.

The board came to Redlands today and were shown trees by Park Superintendent W. T. Ferguson where the young fronds have been taken out each September for years. Mr. Ferguson says it does not injure them at all.

He said that in Palestine the Jews have cut the fronds from palm trees every September for centuries and centuries and no damage has been done.

CHINO POLICE CHIEF MARRIED AT RIVERSIDE

CHINO, Sept. 8.—Chief of Police Fred P. Derbyshire is a good sleuth, but he failed to keep the secret of his wedding to Miss Mildred Sebring much to himself.

Without letting anyone in on the "secret" the Police Chief and his sweetheart stole away to Riverside and were married on Wednesday at the parsonage home of Rev. Mr. Gardner of the Riverside Congregational Church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Sebring, Chino Valley pioneers. The groom is the son of Mrs. S. M. Derbyshire of Santa Paula. He came to Chino last March and was added to the police force. Upon resignation of Harold J. Henry as Chief, Derbyshire was promoted to that position.

GIRL JUMPS OR FALLS FROM MOVING AUTO

LONG BEACH, Sept. 8.—Miss Mildred Miller, 19 years of age, of 6800 Denver street, Los Angeles, is at the Community Hospital with a fractured skull.

Authorities were unable to learn any details of the accident which resulted in her injury. She was brought to the hospital Sunday by persons who told attendants they understood she had fallen or jumped from a traveling automobile. She was unconscious late today.

GAS PRODUCERS CONVENE TODAY

Four Hundred Executives to be at Huntington

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

PASADENA, Sept. 8.—Four hundred officials of gas concerns located on the Pacific Coast between British Columbia and San Diego are expected to be on hand at 2 p.m. tomorrow when the thirty-seventh annual convention of the Pacific Coast Gas Association is called to order at the Huntington.

Maj. Alexander Forward, managing director of the American Gas Association, was scheduled to arrive here tonight but the plane in which he was flying from New York is reported to have been forced down in Kansas, delaying his arrival another day. In a telegram received by the Huntington management this afternoon Forward asserted that he had been forced to spend the night in a barn, but hoped to arrive before the convention opening tomorrow.

The delegates will represent twenty-five gas concerns with a capitalization of more than $300,000,000. The Pacific Coast concerns employ 13,000 persons who receive $21,000,000 in salaries annually.

Among the speakers will be Frank H. Bivens, association president, who will preside at the initial session; C. O. G. Miller, president of the Pacific Lighting Corporation; John A. Laing, general attorney for the Portland Gas and Coke Company; Addison B. Day, president of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation, and Claude C. Brown, gas and electric engineer for the California Railroad Commission.

JESSE JAMES NEWS TO HER

Juror in Suit by Bandit's Grand-daughter Against Film Corporation Never Heard of Him

Jesse James, noted Missouri outlaw, who robbed trains and banks a generation ago, is generally regarded as occupying an immortal place in America's history, but there is one woman in Los Angeles who never heard of him or his exploits. She said so yesterday in Superior Judge Mahon's courtroom, where Miss Jessie Estelle James, the bandit's granddaughter, appeared to prosecute her suit for $64,400 assertedly due from Paramount-Famous-Lasky Corporation and the estate of the late Fred Thomson, actor.

Jessie Estelle James

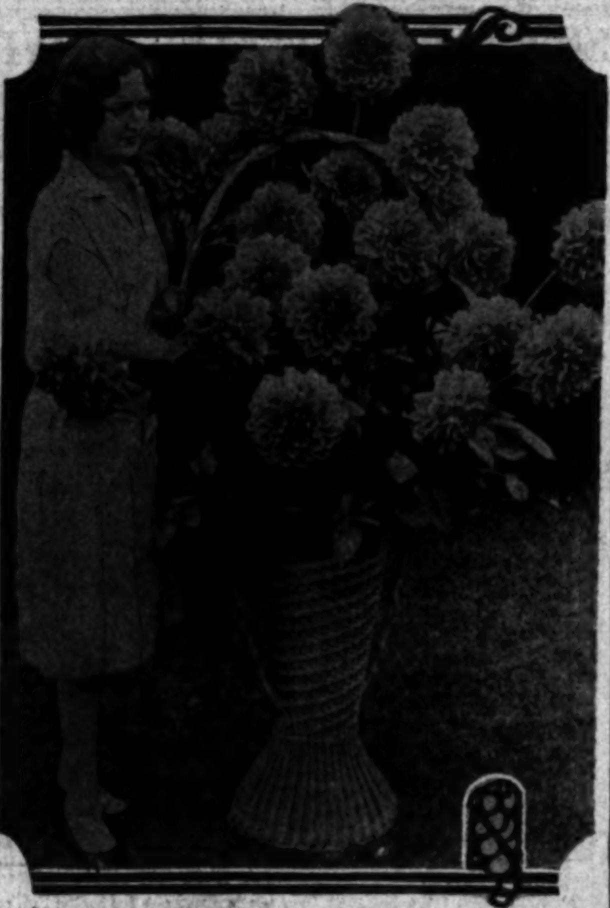
During examination of prospective jurors Miss James's attorney asked whether any of them ever had read any stories based on the outlaw's life. Only two jurors answered in the affirmative and one—the woman—declared she "never even heard of Jesse James." Six men and six women eventually were selected to try the suit, which charges breach of contract.

Miss James and her father, Jesse E. James, son of the celebrated Jesse, are plaintiffs. They are suing the film corporation and David R. Faries, executor of the estate of the actor, for money asserted due them for aiding in filming a photoplay entitled "Jesse James," in which Thomson starred. Miss James asserts that she put aside wedding preparations and gave up a position as stenographer to play the role of her own great-grandmother in the production. She adds that, after she came to California October 1, 1927, the defendants informed her they had cast another actress for the role.

She sued originally for $106,000, which amount was reduced yesterday after argument over technicalities, to $55,000. Her father asks $9400, which he asserts was promised for publicity work and historical aid in preparing the picture.

MANY TO ATTEND DAHLIA SHOW

Event Attracts All Western Experts



Ethel Cortner and Display

A LARGE delegation of flower scouts from Northern California and other Pacific Coast points will arrive in the city tomorrow to attend the opening of the eleventh annual Dahlia Show at the Biltmore, according to Frank L. Miller, show manager.

With success of the huge western wholesale and retail flower business largely dependent on introduction of new colors and forms each year, professional growers and marketers follow certain flower shows carefully to observe public reactions. The reputation made by the Dahlia Society of Southern California for extreme care in selecting exhibits has made this event one of the most widely observed shows with professional floral men coming long distances to inspect displays.

More than twenty new creations will be shown by exhibitors at the two-day show this year, Miller says, with the floral world keen to learn the secrets of reproducing the latest colors and forms.

BODY OF PIER SUICIDE WASHED UP BY OCEAN

By a "Times" Staff Correspondent

SANTA MONICA, Sept. 8.—The body of a man identified as Felipe Guiterrez, 40 years of age, was washed ashore near the Deauville Beach Club here today. Bruises at first led police to suspect foul play but discovery of the man's hat and coat on the municipal pier later convinced Detectives Greer and Myatt he committed suicide. Guiterrez was a Pacific Electric laborer and lived at Culver Junction. The body is at the Wilshire Funeral Home, West Los Angeles.

NEW BUILDING PLANS DRAFTED

Height-Limit Apartment and Two Others Announced

Plans for one limit-height and two nine-story apartment buildings, to cost an aggregate of $1,725,000, were announced yesterday by Architect Arthur I. Rouda.

A $1,225,000 thirteen-story basement and sub-basement structure is to be erected at the southeast corner of Sunset Boulevard and Alta Loma Drive for the Sunset-Loma Holding Company, of which William A. Miller is president, Rouda stated. Plans now are under preparation. The site is 300 by 200 feet and the building will be of modern design, L-shaped, containing 446 rooms divided into 120 apartments of two to six rooms each. A lobby, lounge, ballroom, dining-room, solarium and garage with a capacity of 200 cars are included in the plans. The site is to be landscaped, with putting greens and a swimming pool provided. Class A reinforced concrete construction is to be employed and Rouda will supervise the work.

One of the nine-story, basement and sub-basement apartment buildings will be erected at the southeast corner of Fifth and Oxford streets and the other at the southwest corner of Ninth street and Serrano avenue. Each will cost $250,000. Plans have been completed for both and Rouda will supervise the work. The site of the Fifth and Oxford building, of which Louis Goldfarb is owner, is 63 by 150 feet. The structure will contain fifty-seven units, divided into singles, doubles and four-room apartments, a lobby, lounge, and garage space for sixty-five cars.

E. Schwartz and J. E. Ruman are the owners of the Ninth and Serrano building, to be erected on a lot 68 by 150 feet and to contain sixty-three units, in singles, doubles, and four-room apartments. Class A, reinforced concrete construction will be employed in both the smaller apartment buildings. Central steam-heating plants, gravity water systems and double elevator service to the basement will feature all three structures.

WILLIAMS RAPS DAVIS CUP ACE

Lott Bows to Veteran in Second Round

Third Seeded Player Loses Four-Set Match

Other Favorites Score in Men's Title Play

BY TED VOSBURGH
Associated Press Sports Writer

FOREST HILLS (N. Y.) Sept. 8. (AP)—A prey to his own erratic temperament and the hair-trigger strokes of his famous opponent, young George Lott of Chicago went down to surprising defeat at the hands of the veteran, Richard N. Williams, in the second round of the national tennis singles championship this afternoon. The scores were 7-9, 7-5, 7-5, 6-1.

R.N. WILLIAMS

Preceded only by Big Bill Tilden and Wilmer Allison on the list of "seeded" American favorites, Lott had been generally expected to win without difficulty from the Philadelphia sharpshooter who held this title back in 1914 and 1916. Now 39 years of age and long since past his peak, Williams was not even included among the seeded entrants, but he had enough of his old wizardry left to turn the trick.

In the four sets, the iron arm of the great old campaigner, Williams, piled up a total of fourteen aces, twice as many as Lott collected. He made more placements that Lott and fewer errors.

TILDEN SCORES

Lott's downfall came in his first match of the tournament, as he and Williams drew byes in the opening round on Saturday, and it removed an outstanding contender from the path of Big Bill Tilden. Tilden, who was in the same half of the draw with Lott, pushed over Joseph J. Armstrong, of St. Paul, Minn., 6-1, 6-1, 6-0, while most of the other leading players with the

A crowd of 13,000 paid $23,000 to see the brief battle.

BROOKLYN CAPTURES TWIN BILL

Dodgers Take Pair from Phillies and Jump into Third Position

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 8. (AP)—The National League pennant race was drawn a little tighter today as the Brooklyn Robins won a double-header from the Phillies, moving into third place, only three and one-half games back of the pace-setting Chicago Cubs. The Brooklyn-Philadelphia games were the only contests scheduled in either of the major leagues.

Two big innings in each game and a brilliant hurling exhibition by Ray Moss in the opener gave the Robins the first encounter, 8 to 2, and the nightcap, 11 to 4. Moss was the whole show for the Robins in the first fuss, holding the Phillies to four hits, while his mates hammered Hansen and Phillips to all corners of the ball park, scoring five runs in the fifth to take the lead, and eventually the game.

The second contest was a close battle until the seventh frame, when the Dodgers smashed six runs across the plate. The scores:

DIEGEL EQUALS COURSE RECORD

Caliente Pro Has Terrible Morning Round

Comes Back in Afternoon to Turn in Score of 69

Thirty-one Players Fall by Wayside

BY BRIAN BELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

FLUSHING (N. Y.) Sept. 8. (AP)—Thirty-two professional golfers from every section of the country won their first battle over the hard, Fresh Meadows golf course today to qualify for the P.G.A. championship, which continues to the match play stage tomorrow. Thirty-one crack pros failed to qualify in the thirty-six-hole test, which continued from early morning until darkness was settling over the scores of traps dotting the landscape.

LEO DIEGEL

Johnny Farrell and Horton Smith, with thirty-six-hole totals of 145, led the field, a distinction carrying honor, but no prize money, and Leo Diegel, the defending champion, furnished the excitement.

Farrell played good, sound golf with scores of 72-73, and Horton Smith had 73-72, but Leo uncorked a typical Diegel round. He staggered in after the morning round with a score of 81.

EQUALS RECORD

Diegel then went out in the afternoon and returned a score of 69, equaling the course record and qualifying with seven strokes to spare.

"Nothing to worry about," said Diegel at luncheon. "I'll qualify all right." Evidently the best professional golfer in Mexico knew his game.

His score was the best of the day by two strokes. Charles Guest led the morning round with 71. Lighthorse Harry Cooper, Chicago, had 71, in the afternoon. Guest and Cooper tied for third with scores of 146 and Charley Lacey of Philadelphia and Mark Fry of Oakland, Cal., tied for fifth with counts of 147.

FRYS SPARKLE

The California Frys made a brave showing in the qualifying play. Earl followed his brother Mark into the select thirty-two with a thirty-six-hole score of 152.

SERAPHS OUT TO CUT LEAD

Afternoon and Night Game on Holiday Bill

Baecht and Ballou Likely to Work on Mound

Hollywood Hurling Staff is Big Weakness

BY BOB RAY

Six and a half games ahead of the pack and hitting the ball more than hard enough to make up for a wobbly staff of pitchers, Oscar Vitt's league-leading Hollywood Stars are all set to open their eight-game civil-war series with Jack Lelivelt's crippled Cherubs at Wrigley Field today.

JACK LELIVELT

The battle between the two local clubs, which figures to draw out record crowds for the week, gets under way with a couple of holiday games today. The Sheiks and Seraphs hook up at 2:15 this afternoon in one contest and then are billed for another set-to at 8:15 this evening, so it looks like a big day at Wrigley Field.

In an effort to whittle down the Sheiks' long lead, Skipper Lelivelt plans on sending Win Ballou and Ed Baecht, two of his outstanding twirlers, against the Hollywooders today. Lelivelt believes that Ballou, who hurled a two-hit shut-out against the Seals last Thursday, and Baecht, who has turned in twenty victories this year, can stop the Star sluggers and give the Angels a running start in the series.

Jim Turner, the southern gentleman from the Piedmont League, is a cinch to be on the mound for Hollywood in one of today's games, but it's a moot question which hurler will draw the assignment in the other game. Buzz Wetzel, Emil Yde and Augie Johns are all ready to work and Vitt says he probably won't make a selection until just before game time. Johns has been pitching fine ball and looks like a good bet.

Although the Angels are in pretty bad shape with Johnny Moore, Frank Sigafoos, Carl Dittmar and Art Parker injured and Fred Haney playing under the handicap of a sore throwing arm and lame ankle, they believe that they'll down the Stars anyway. The Seraphs claim

HILL TO QUIT STARS

Flashy Young Hollywood Outfielder Takes Over Post as Riverside Coach Next Monday

Jesse Hill, sensational young Hollywood outfielder, is going to leave the Stars next Monday to take over the football coaching reins at Riverside Junior College.

A. C. Paul, director of the Riverside J. C., announced last night that he and Hill had had a conference yesterday morning and Jesse had told him he would be on hand Monday morning to take the football players to the mountains for a week of preliminary training before school opens.

JESSE HILL

Hill's loss will prove a blow to the Stars, but Bill Lane said last night that he was satisfied that Jesse had made the right decision. "Hill gave his word to Riverside Junior College authorities last spring that he would coach this fall. That was before he had made a name for himself on the diamond with the Hollywood club. Jesse is the sincere type of athlete and I certainly wouldn't want him to break his word. The Stars will miss him but it may be arranged so that he can play ball with Hollywood on Saturdays and Sundays when the club is at home. There is also a possibility that he will be able to be with us in the play-off provided the Stars win the second half."

If Hill decides to quit baseball for the rest of the season, the Stars

SERIES DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

Opening Game Scheduled for October 1

CHICAGO, Sept. 8. (AP)—The first act in the 1930 world series will be staged Wednesday, October 1, in the park of the team winning the American League championship, undoubtedly the Philadelphia Athletics.

JUDGE LANDIS

This was decided today at the annual pre-world series conference in the office of Commissioner Kenesaw M. Landis.

The second game likewise will be played at the home of the American League pennant winner with games three, four and five at the park of the National League champion. If two more games are necessary, they will be played in the American League champion's park.

Prices will be the same as last

The Trojan track star played four years of football at Fort Worth High School, Texas, performing at end, and in the backfield. He will devote his entire attention to the wing position at Troy, as Jones already has plenty of backfield material.

Stewart will be the heaviest of nine candidates for end, and Jones expects him to be one of the best. Garrett Arbelbide, the sophomore star of last year, weighs 185. Biggs, a sophomore, weighs 170; Durkee, senior, 180; Joslin, junior, 175; Jurich, junior, 195; Smith, sophomore, 175; Sparling, sophomore, 175, and Wilcox, senior, 163. That list gives Jones only two experienced ends—Wilcox, who won his first letter last year, and Durkee, who is a nonletterman. Arbelbide and Jurich both won letters last season in their first year on the varsity.

SAM BARRY REPORTS AT TROJAN HEADQUARTERS; NIBS PRICE DUE HERE

BY BRAVEN DYER

Football business began to pick up at the University of Southern California yesterday, what with practice sessions only one week away.

SAM BARRY

Justin M. (Sam) Barry, the distinguished basketball and baseball coach, put in an appearance after several weeks in the East. Barry is one of the main cogs of Howard Jones's grid staff, aiding in the teaching of fundamentals and scouting. He and Clifton B. Herd, the tennis-playing singer of note, form one of the most efficient scouting duos in the country and at times have the indespensable aid of J. Gordon Campbell, the golfing insurance salesman who used to play a bit of football and basketball for the Trojans.

Barry drove home from Wisconsin, where he conducted his closing coaching school. Sam made a big hit here last year by winning the basketball and baseball titles, a feat probably unequaled by a coach in his first year at a major institution of learning.

Forrest Twogood also showed up yesterday. He helped Barry with basketball last year, but becomes a full-time mentor this season, handling basketball and baseball. In this he will be very valuable, for Barry's scouting work with the gridders keeps him busy well into December and it is rather important that his basketeers get started considerably before he is ready to take them over. The same goes for baseball, where the basketball season runs over into the diamond sport.

Twogood played pro ball with the St. Joe team in the West-

FOOTBALL GOES ON THE AIR

Football is in the air. Thursday night, between 9:30 and 10 o'clock it will go on the air, when Paul Lowry, sports editor, and Braven Dyer, both of The Times sport staff, begin a series of sports features over Don Lee's KHJ station. The weekly program is to be known as the Los Angeles Times Sports Edition of the Air. The opening broadcast will bring to you a critical analysis and up-to-the-minute survey of the football situation as it exists in the Pacific Coast Conference. Questions began pouring in yesterday from grid fans who want to know the latest about various teams, plays and players who will be seen in action during the conference season this year. The two authorities will attempt to answer all questions given them by the fans. The questions should be briefly and clearly put. with the short time given them, it may be impossible to answer every inquiry, but the two writers will make every effort to give the fans the correct answers to everything they want to know.

NEW WORLD RECORD SET IN OUTBOARD CONTEST

OAKLAND, Sept. 8. (AP)—A world record for a five-mile outboard motor-boat race crashed this afternoon when Kenneth Dryer, Oakland, covered the Lake Merritt course in ten minutes, twenty-one second, at 28.985 miles an hour, using a Class A motor.

The best previous record was 28.31 miles per hour, set by B. Reinell, driving Lady Luck, at the American Lake races, California, in June of last year.

Taking the lead from the start, Bryer soon got 200 yards ahead, and at the end of the heat had overlapped the field. Walter Jones, Seattle, took second in his Blimp at 24,793 miles per hour. Close behind him was William Harrison, also of Seattle, whose Half-pint made 24.691 miles per hour.

On a false start in the second race, Roy Craig of Tacoma piloting Miss Tacoma, rolled over on the turn and crashed into Rowdy II, driven by Pliny Holt, Stockton. Both men were thrown from their boats, but were uninjured. The Rowdy II was submerged to the docks after the collision, but was

Stanford, California and Washington State Three of Coast's Best Teams--Jo

TROJAN MENTOR SEES HOT RACE

Teams Well Supplied with Good Material

Coming of Spears, Phelan Adds Interest

Letter Men Plentiful at Oregon "U"

BY HOWARD JONES
Football Coach University of Southern California
(Copyright, 1930, by North American Newspaper Alliance)

HOWARD JONES

I think it is safe to predict another great season of football on the Pacific Coast, in view of the fact that most of the teams appear excellently equipped with relatively good material.

For the last three seasons the Pacific Coast Conference races have been close, and the outlook for 1930 indicates no change. I doubt if there is any favorite at this writing. Stanford, California, Oregon and Southern California finished their 1929 conference schedules with a single defeat each, and were, therefore, technically tied for the title.

OTHERS STRONG

All of these elevens appear well equipped for the impending fight, and in addition, Washington State and Washington must receive consideration. Oregon State, with many veterans and much reserve material, will also be tough.

A rather unusual situation exists in that all of the leading teams, though losing more than a dozen letter men each, have twelve or more letter men apiece at the start of the present season.

There is added interest this fall due to the fact that two new coaches take part in the scramble for honors. Each is nationally known, and each should bring further recognition to the institution now employing him.

Dr. Clarence Spears, formerly of West Virginia and Minnesota, has taken over the reins at Oregon University, and starts the season with twenty letter men available. Only Washington State, with the same number of returning monogram winners, has as many experienced men as he.

James Phelan, who gained national ranking last year by coaching Purdue to the Big Ten championship, is in charge at the University of Washington, succeeding Enoch Bagshaw. Phelan has fourteen letter men.

With the exception of these changes the coaches are the same as last year, Glenn Warner being at Stanford, Nibs Price at California, Orin Hollingbery at Washington State, Paul Schissler at Oregon State College, Maj. Frank Milburn at Montana, Bill Spaulding at the University of California at Los Angeles and Leo Calland at the University of Idaho.

PLENTY OF VETS

California has lost fourteen letter men but has sixteen back. At Stanford there are seventeen monogram winners back, eleven having gone on their way. At Southern California we lost eighteen and have twelve back. Oregon has seventeen letter men back, Montana, seventeen; Idaho, eight, and U.C.L.A., nineteen.

Of course, these figures may not mean a great deal to the coaches, who know that merely because a man wins a letter he may not be an outstanding player. From the spectators' standpoint, however, it gives some inkling of how evenly matched the teams are in the matter of veteran material.

I have an idea that Stanford, California and Washington State will be three of the toughest teams in the conference. Warner has lost such good men as Muller, end; Heinecke, center, and Smalling, fullback, but he has mighty fine players returning in Rothert, half-back-fullback; Neill, end; Simkins, fullback, and Tandy, tackle. A prospectus sent out by Stanford lists seventy-six men who are considered of enough worth to be included on the preseason roster.

California is without Benny Lom, halfback; Lee Eisan, quarterback, and Roy Riegels, center, in addition to others, but Price is quoted as being well satisfied with his material and I look for the Bears to be very dangerous. It is said the California coach will use two alternate backfields, the first, averaging about 188 pounds, for power, and the second for speed.

Washington State is never easy to beat. Elmer Schwartz, rated the leading scorer of the Pacific Coast Conference last year, will continue to give the Cougars a punch, and Hollingbery has enough experienced linesmen and additional backs to make the going tough for all of us. Washington State, to my way of thinking, is apt to spring a surprise, for most of Hollingbery's material is rich in experience.

Coach Phelan has two corking players to work with in his first season at Washington—Merle Hufford, halfback, and Paul Schwegler, tackle. Each was a sophomore last year, and starred in every game on Washington's schedule. Hufford is likely to develop into one of the best backs in the nation.

There is considerable speculation about the style of play to be employed by Phelan and Spears, both of whom have used the shift at some time or other in the past. Northwest critics say that, because of much wet weather, Phelan will have difficulty using the Notre Dame shift.

At Southern California we have, among other problems, the task of filling positions left vacant by Tappaan, end; Saunders, quarterback; Edelson, halfback; Anthony, tackle, and others. We have capable performers coming up in most of these positions, but whether they will work together as well as last year's team remains to be seen. Football machines are not built overnight, and it takes time and much experimenting to get eleven individuals working together smoothly.

In the Southern California Conference, Occidental, winner of the 1929 championship, appears to have the best outlook. Although Coach Kienholz has lost many regulars, Pomona, with good line prospects and fair backs, should have a strong team, while Caltech and Whittier are likely to be dangerous.

Two new coaches appear in this conference. Walter Herreid, former guard at Washington State, is in charge at San Diego State College. Lee Eisan, quarterback at California for the last three seasons, becomes head coach at La Verne College.

Teams of the Southern California Conference will play numerous night games, more than half the contests scheduled being arranged for after dark.

In the Rocky Mountain Conference it is a certainty that Coach Armstrong's championship Utah University team will again be a strong contender for honors. Denver University, which lost only one game last year and that by the unusual score of 3 to 2, bears watching. Utah was undefeated last fall.

RABBIT PUNCHES

EVEN STEVEN

PENDING the outbreak of the football training season on the 15th inst. Pop Warner of Stanford has made his usual annual prediction.

The Trojans of Southern California are the favorites in the Pacific Coast Conference race.

This forecast was more or less expected.

Pop has only changed his spots once since he has been on the Coast.

That was in 1928 when he said his Stanford team was the best-looking bunch of boys he ever had in his life.

Pop trotted out Formation B that season, and Pop made the Trojans look silly with it for about ten minutes.

Then the Trojans went out and won the game 10 to 0.

That ended all remarks by Pop concerning the stuff he had on the campus at Palo Alto.

Pop says he has lost eight regulars this year, so that makes his team the underdog.

If the conductor's mathematics are good Howard Jones also lost eight regulars—the whole line with the exception of one end, and two star backs, Saunders and Edelson.

Looks life the same old seven and six when Card and Trojan meet at Palo Alto.

BROWN IS KING

THE victory of Francis Brown, the long-driving Honolulan, in the State championship at Pebble Beach, must have pleased all concerned.

Had Fay Coleman won the crown there would have been a smudge on the title, through no fault of Coleman's, because of the Harris incident.

Harris, who reported an incorrect score in the qualifying round, played and tossed his match to Coleman in the second round.

He grand standed his way out of the tournament by throwing the last three holes of the regulation route, and refusing to play the nineteenth to a decision.

The rule is clear on the point.

Harris should have been ruled out of the tournament at once. He should not have been permitted to meet Coleman.

There are just two persons to blame for the incident. Harris erred in playing Coleman. So did Everett Seaver, president of the California Golf Association, in permitting him to do so after the error had been reported.

Brown played stellar golf all the way through the tournament, and his medal score indicates he strokes like a champion over the thirty-six-hole final route.

This is the real test of a champion—ability to come through in the last round after a week of golf without almost par golf.

STAGG STILL IN HARNESS

A HONOLULU paper recently carried a story that Alonzo Stagg had resigned as football coach at the University of Chicago after three decades of activity.

This was news indeed, something that apparently had slipped over the heads of astute Chicago newspaper men.

According to the yarn Edwin Norton was to succeed the 68-year-old Stagg.

However, a hot wire brought the following reply to a query:

"Stagg has not resigned. Norgren now in Japan with University of Chicago baseball team. Norgren is baseball and basketball coach."

Somebody got a wire twisted.

THE HILL DECISION

JESSE HILL did just as had been expected.

He will leave the Hollywood Stars the 14th inst. to take up a coaching berth at Riverside.

He contracted for the position before he became an overnight baseball star with Hollywood.

DIEGEL EQUALS COURSE RECORD

he combined rounds of 77 and 76 for a score of 153, well in the qualifying limit, but far from sensational.

Billy Burke, Greenwich, Ct., won the final qualifying place at the first hole of a play-off. Burke scored a par 4, while the other five took 5's. The players who were barely nosed out were Walter Beamish, Geneseo, N. Y.; Charley Hall, Birmingham, Ala.; Ed M. Celligott, Sioux Falls, S. D.; Jimmy Hines, New York, and Walter Murray, Gary, Ind.

The players in the play-off had totals of 158 for the day. All players registering 157 or better qualified without the extra effort.

Hall, the long-driving southerner, was too long today and had four balls out of bounds, accounting for eight strokes. This streak of wildness cost him a place in the match play.

Charley Lacey, the young British pro, from Pine Valley, had to borrow clubs from one of his playing companions, as he broke two in the course of his morning round. However, the lack of his No. 3 and No. 4 irons did not keep him from scoring among the leaders. The qualifiers:

Johnny Farrell, New York; Horton Smith, New York; Charles Guest, Pontiac, Mich.; Harry Cooper, Chicago; Charles Lacey, Philadelphia; Tommy Armour, Detroit; Mark Fry, Oakland, Cal.; Henry Ciuci, Stratford, Ct.; Densmore Shute, Columbus, O.; Leo Diegel, Agua Caliente, Mex.; Al Espinosa, Chicago; Jack Collins, Dayton, O.; Whiffy Cox, Brooklyn, N. MEXICAN TEAM HAS ITALIANS

Also Basques, Russians and Arab on Eleven

Mexico University—the melting pot of many nationalities—reveals itself again in the football line-up which will oppose Occidental College in a night grid contest at the Coliseum the 26th inst. In answer to a query sent by Phil Ellsworth, graduate manager of Oxy, Coach Reggie Root of the Mexican team, said that besides the English and Mexicans on the team, other players traced their origin back to the Russians, Arabs, Basques and Italians.

Three of the hardest working members of the aggregation, according to Root, are Jauregui and Estanol Arestegui, centers, and a back bearing the name of Elorduy. All three are Basques, and resemble in ruggedness, especially in competition, the qualities displayed by Paulino Uzcudun in the ring.

Unworried by the diversified nationalities, temperaments and dispositions, Root has been able to work his gridiron prospects into a fairly dependable unit. Reports from the south credit the Mexicans with a hard-charging line, and a deceptive passing attack which Root brought from Yale University, where he played before introducing the gridiron game to the neighboring republic.

Others on the squad who trace their origin to other climes are: Cusi, Italian; Miguel Simon, Arab; Levine, Russian, Andreani, Italian, and Rogers, English.

exception of Lott advanced to the third round with him.

Sidney B. Wood, Jr., New York star of 18, had a hard fight, however, before he won a five-set battle from that dangerous baseliner, Julius Seligson, 4-6, 2-6, 6-0, 6-1, 6-4.

It took Johnny Doeg, Santa Monica, Calif., five sets to turn back W. Barry Wood of Boston, Harvard's great forward-passing quarterback. Doeg was able to take the final set for the match at 6-2, 6-2, 5-7, 4-6, 6-2.

Clifford Sutter and Bryant Grant, the brilliant southerners who hold the national intercollegiate and clay-court championship respectively, forged ahead without great difficulty. Sutter won from Emmett Pare, Dayton, O., 6-2, 6-0, 8-6, and Little Grant, making his first appearance on the stadium courts, overcame David N. Jones, 6ft. 4in. Columbia University giant, 8-6, 6-4, 4-6, 6-2.

New Jersey's prize pair, John Van Ryn of East Orange, and Gregory Mangin of Newark scored in straight sets. Van Ryn downed Kirk Reid of Cleveland, 6-1, 6-1, 6-2, and Mangin eliminated Bertram Hammell, Absecon, N. J., 6-1, 6-2, 6-2.

SHIELDS BEST

Frank Hunter and Frank Shields likewise wasted no time. The veteran New Rochelle (N. Y.) publisher, Hunter, downed Russell Phillips, New York, 6-2, 6-0, 6-2, and Shields put out Ed Tarangioli, New York, 6-1, 6-0, 6-3.

Ellsworth Vines, Pasadena's 18-year-old prospect, trounced Bruce Barnes, one of the hard-fighting Texas entries, 12-10, 7-5, 7-5.

Berkeley Bell, Austin, Tex., followed up his great win of Saturday over Jean Borotra, with a victory over Fritz Mercur, Bethlehem (Pa.) in-and-outer, 6-1, 6-2, 1-6, 6-4.

More dents were made in the foreign seeded list, Marcel Rainville and C. W. Leslie of Montreal, Herman Upmann of Cuba and Jimmy Nuthall of England, Betty's brother, going out at the hands of mediocre New York players.

The national veterans' singles championship got under way today with C. M. Charest, one-armed Washington (D. C.) player, beginning defense of his title with a 6-2, 6-0, victory over Morris Gossett, New York. Arthur Atwood, Washington, also won his first-round match, defeating J. S. Francis, Orange, N. J., 6-0, 6-2.

The schedule of stadium matches for tomorrow:

Frank Shields, New York, vs. Elmer Griffin, New York.
Sidney B. Wood, New York, vs. Wilbur F. Coen, Kansas City.
Francis T. Hunter, New Rochelle, N. Y., vs. Ted Avory, England.
Bill Tilden, Philadelphia, vs. Ed Feibleman, New York.
Wilmer Allison, Austin, Tex., vs. Richard Murphy, Utica, N. Y.

ern League this summer. He is a pitcher. Sam and Twogood work well together, for the latter was one of Barry's star players at Iowa.

Contrary to earlier reports there will not be two workouts for the Trojan gridders Monday. Classes start that day and the boys will not be allowed to report until 3 o'clock in the afternoon.

Nibs Price and Clint Evans, California coaches, will arrive here tomorrow morning. They are coming to address the Southern California Football Officials' Association at a meeting to be held at Central Junior High School tomorrow night at 7:30.

Prior to the confab there will be a dinner at Morro's Grill, La Brea and Wilshire, honoring the two California mentors. The visit of Price and Evans is for the purpose of acquainting them with members of the local official body so that both groups may have a better understanding of grid rules, etc. The two coaches will return north Thursday night so as to get ready for California's opening workout.

MANY PREP STARS JOIN S.C. TEAMS

Vines, Crandall, Brouse Head Array of Talent at Trojan Institution

Much of the cream of the Southland's prep athletic material of last year enrolled in the University of Southern California freshman class yesterday, a check-up of registration revealed last night. Along with many splendid athletes of Southern California high schools who were among last June's prep graduates, there was also a generous sprinkling of out-of-State boys who have come to Los Angeles to study under Trojan professors, and to compete under Trojan coaches.

Thomas Sherman, all-Minnesota quarterback from St. Paul and Bob Erskine, all-State tackle in football and all-State center in basketball from Ottumwa High School, Iowa, led the list of out-of-State boys, while Southland athletes to enroll at S.C. include such notables as Kenneth Fay and Bob Reed, former L.A. High halfbacks; Ford Palmer, fullback from Hollywood High and Oneonta Military Academy; Julius Bescas, all-State prep forward in basketball from Huntington Park; Jimmy Crandall, son of "Doc" Crandall and star pitcher from Bell, and Ellsworth Vines, nationally known tennis star from Pasadena.

Former high-school football men entering Southern California in the first day of freshman registration yesterday were:

George Brock, Jr., 185-pound tackle from Lake Forest (Ill.) Academy, the prep school of Jesse Hibbs, former Trojan captain and All-American tackle.

Willard Brouse, 170-pound halfback from Monrovia. As a track man, Brouse was second in the low hurdles in the State meet last spring.

Don Clark, all-State quarterback from Phoenix. He weighs 190 pounds and is also a sprinter in track.

Robert Collier, 185-pound tackle from Bell and a fair weight man in track.

Robert Reed, Los Angeles High School captain and halfback; quarter-miler in track.

Kenneth Fay, all-city halfback from Los Angeles High School.

Robert Love, end from Galileo High School of San Francisco.

Branko Mandekic, halfback from Monrovia.

Ford Palmer, 190-pound fullback from Hollywood High School and Oneonta Military Academy; also a shot-putter in track.

Thomas Sherman, 175-pound all-Minnesota quarterback from St. Paul, and a good sprinter in track.

Herald Williams, 175-pound halfback from Lindsay and first baseman in baseball.

Curtis Yousl, 195-pound center from Santa Ana.

Jack Rhine, 170-pound fullback from Monrovia High School and captain last year of the Pasadena Junior College eleven; now eligible for Trojan varsity.

Kenneth Baker, brother of John Baker of varsity; a running guard like John and also from Kingsburg.

Frank Williamson, brother of Stan Williamson of the varsity; also a center and from Pittsburg, Cal.

Track athletes entering Southern California yesterday included:

Bert Holmes, quarter-miler from El Monte.

Norman Paul, brother of Howard Paul of the varsity; State prep low-hurdle champion and also a good performer in the broad jump and shot put.

Roy Delby, sprinter from Fullerton Junior College, who won both sprints in the State junior college meet; eligible for the Trojan varsity.

Curtis McFadden, broad jumper from Glendale Junior College; won Jaysee section of Fresno relay championships last spring with a jump of 23ft. 4in.; also eligible for varsity.

Freshman candidates with reputations as basketball stars in high school registering at S.C. are:

Julius Bescas, all-State prep forward from Huntington Park; also an end in football.

Nash Brown, forward from Lindsay, halfback in football, weighs 180.

Bob Erskine, all-State center in basketball and all-State tackle in football from Ottumwa High School, Iowa.

Henry Hales, all-State forward from Miami, Ariz.

Gordon Clark, forward in basketball and also halfback in football from South Pasadena.

John Frank, forward from San Pedro High School and Long Beach Junior College; running mate of "Peggy" Hopkins, who entered S.C. last February; both eligible for varsity this year.

Crandall is the leading baseball prospect of the frosh, while Vines is the prize in the realm of tennis.

Further registration of frosh for the next two days may uncover more good athletic material for Trojan teams, but most of the athletes were present with their high school credentials yesterday.

SERIES DATES ARE ANNOUNCED

year and ticket applications will be accepted effective next Monday, the 15th inst. The price scale, including tax, will be, boxes, $6.60; grand stand reserved, $5.50; general admission, $3, and bleachers, $1. Tickets will be sold only in blocks of three as last year.

If the Chicago Cubs or St. Louis Cardinals win the National League pennant, one day will intervene between the second and third games. If Brooklyn or New York win, the series will be played on consecutive days, barring rain. As usual, the team winning four games will win the series.

All games will start at 1:30 p.m., standard time.

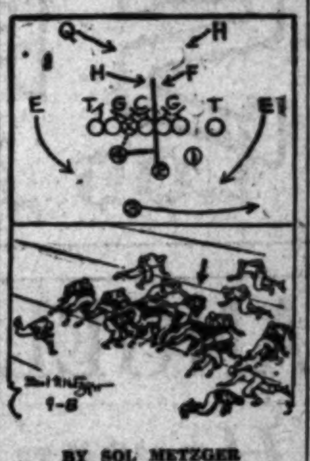
Only once in the history of modern baseball has the world series opening been slated earlier than this year. The exception came in the war year 1918 when the series opened September 5. In 1903 and 1919, the autumnal baseball classic opened October 1. The latest opening was October 17 in 1910.

Representatives of all clubs with mathematical pennant chances were invited to the meeting today but the Washington Senators and the New York Giants did not accept. The Senators were all but out of the running in the American League, trailing the world championship Athletics by six and one-half games. The Giants still retained a chance, trailing the leading Cubs by four games.

The Athletics were represented at the conference by President Thomas Shibe and Secretary R. J. Schroeder while the championship Cubs were represented by President William Veeck. Other representatives were President Frank B. York, Brooklyn, and Treasurer Will O. De Witt, St. Louis. Presidents John Heydler and E. S. Barnard represented the National and American leagues, respectfully.

Names of eligible players will be released next week by the respective leagues.

Twin Plays for Rutgers



BY SOL METZGER

Coach Harry Rockafeller's Rutgers team will have some proven plays with which to start this football season, plays that have been worked out in pairs. The first is used to gain all the ground possible, but with the main objective in view of preparing the way for the second. Teams on defense, once a certain play works well against them, are overanxious to stop it the next time it is sprung and are on the look-out for it.

A clever coach like Rockafeller plots the companion play to it to drive home for ever-needed touchdown. Now his first play of one such pair is shown here. The ball is snapped to the quarterback No. 4, who hands it to back No. 2 for a straight ahead plunge through the line. The line charges as a unit.

Note especially how back No. 3 swings to the right. When this play has gained ground a few times you may expect Rutgers to uncork its companion.

SPORTS SKETCH BY FEG MURRAY

fense committee, is Thomas Hitchcock, Jr., otherwise known as Tommy the Torch, and the only ten-goal polo player in the world today. The most famous member of the family of galloping Hitchcocks is playing No. 3 this year after starring for several seasons at the No. 2 position, and while many polo experts believe that he is worth three goals more at No. 2, he still can be counted on to play with his accustomed dash, coolness, judgment of pace and ability to hit the ball at any other place in the line-up.

Thirteen years ago when America entered the World War, a young man of wealth and social position attempted to enter the aviation service. He passed the 100-hour test successfully, but because he was scarcely 17 years of age he was turned down. The Lafayette Escadrille, however, knew a good aviation prospect when it saw one, and so Tommy Hitchcock, Jr., of Westbury, Long Island, and Aiken, S. C., got into action and soon had two German planes to his credit. The Germans shot him down eventually, but couldn't keep him a prisoner, for he soon escaped, and after hiking and swimming rivers through 100 miles of hostile territory he arrived safely in Berne, Switzerland.

In 1921 young Tommy, who had been playing polo since he was 10, played on the American polo team that brought back the historic cup which the British four had taken to England before the war. His father had played on the first American team in 1886. Tommy's terrific hitting and long drives for stores featured those 1921 matches, as well as the 1924 Olympic championships, and the international matches on Long Island against the British in 1924 and 1927 and against Argentina in 1928.

He's the world's greatest poloist, and if you don't believe it, go out to Meadowbrook and see why.

MALCEWICZ SIGNS FOR MAT CLASH

Veteran Again to Tangle with Marshall in Main Olympic Bout

JOE MALCEWICZ

Joe Malcewicz, the 200-pound Utica mat star, was signed by Promoter Lou Daro yesterday to meet Everett Marshall in the final event of an all-star wrestling card planned for the Olympic, the 17th inst.

This bout, as well as the two others Daro is working on, will all be for the best two out of three falls to a finish. The promoter stated yesterday the other four wrestlers he is seeking for this card are those who have made hits with the fans here this year. Bob (Bibber) McCoy, former Holy Cross star, is certain to appear in one of the matches, it was reported.

Malcewicz was the first top-notch grappler Marshall met when he started his climb toward the top of the heavyweight division. Malcewicz declared afterward that he did not take the match seriously, and was not in the best of condition when he entered the ring.

"Wild" Bill Shaw and Don George are also being sought for this card.

will put him on the voluntarily retired list, until next spring when his coaching duties are finished.

Hill's reason for quitting the Stars to take up football is this: Last spring before he knew whether he'd make good as a ball player, Riverside J. C. was good enough to give him the coaching job. Jesse believes he would be showing a lack of faith with the school if he went back on his word now. After he finishes out his contract at Riverside J. C. Hill will be free to again take up his diamond career that appears certain of taking him to the major leagues in the near future.

Rush of the Cardinals

In the midst of all this polo, yachting and tennis activity the stretch rush of the Cardinals in the National League can't be overlooked. Gabby Street's aroused and romping talent has been ripping the hide off every rival in sight and from almost nowhere they have moved up where the leading Cubs can now feel hot breath upon their quivering necks.

Ten days ago the Athletics were wondering whether it was to be the Cubs, Giants or Dodgers. Now the Athletics are fixing their gaze upon St. Louis and this may be the final answer. While the Cubs, Giants and Dodgers have been stumbling and sprawling all over the place, barely able to break even, the Cardinals have won twenty-two out of their last twenty-eight games and this wild upward dash has made them the featured team of the race.

What has happened to the Cardinals? In the main, they have been supporting good pitching with hard hitting and snappy fielding, and this is about all any ball club needs to keep on moving in the general direction of a world series.

First the Dodgers felt the strain of pace-setting and buckled up, then the Cubs fell heir to the same strain and began to wobble all around the landscape, getting, in the main, about the worst pitching of the year. They have been getting from twelve to seventeen hits on their own and still losing. It took them nineteen runs to beat Pittsburgh recently. The entire staff seems to have collapsed. It is a rare day when a Cub pitcher can hold the opposition to less than eight or ten runs.

Big Week Again

The Cardinals come to the Polo Grounds only two and one-half games back of the Cubs, who hook up with the Dodgers. This brings on another big week, as these are the four teams who still carry a chance.

The Cubs have reached the spot where they can afford no more flopping and floundering and the Giants have come to the place where they must stop the Cards abruptly on the first series of their eastern tour. For if the Giants can't do it they can hardly expect Brooklyn, Boston and Philadelphia to slip the skids under this runaway team from the West.

Cubs and Giants now have just one chance against this Cardinal outfit. It is this—every National League team that has put on a big spurt has followed the same with a diving act of equal proportions. The Cardinals have had the best run in the league and if they follow an old summer custom they will start reeling about the time they hit first place.

The Cardinals close out their eastern road tour on the 23rd inst. and then jump home to finish against Pittsburgh. They have none the worst of the schedule and it might be mentioned that any team that hits the stretch with the speed they have shown, coming from behind, is always something to stop.

Nothing seems to be going on this week except golf, tennis, baseball, polo, yachting, football, horse racing and boxing. Outside of this there is practically nothing to kill off an afternoon or an evening.

If Brooklyn gets to work on Chicago while New York and St. Louis are breaking even there may be a pennant floating yet above the svelte figure of Wilbert Robinson. This National League race has blown out beyond the dope.

Holding the Peak

Eric Pedley, California's polo entry, had apparently reached the peak of form some weeks ago and the peak is always hard to hold. One generally climbs up, reaches the top, and starts down again in competitive sport. Yet Pedley proved in the first of the polo wars that he was still holding the peak, or at least remaining in the near vicinity.

The British needed a hard game more than the Americans did and this Saturday battle may put them upon a keener edge for the second test. It would only take a slight improvement on the British side to make Wednesday's contest anybody's game, especially so with a favoring run of luck. It must be admitted that the British chance is an outside one. As strong as they are defensively, they will again be up against an attack that rarely rests or lets down. It is a constantly driving force and this type is always wearing. It may be stopped here and there for a few periods, but it is hard to break up all afternoon. The case would be different, too, if there was a weak spot to hit at on the United States side, but there isn't.

STARS, ANGELS TANGLE TODAY

that they have the Indian sign on the Sheiks and will take the series despite their weakened line-up because of superior pitching. It's been an event lately when a Hollywood hurler went the route, but the Stars have been winning anyway because of their terrific slugging.

The crippled Cherubs showed their gameness during the past two weeks by holding the Seals even in sixteen games while their line-up was shot with injuries. The Angels can be counted on to put up a good fight and make it a hot series.

There is a chance that Dittmar and Sigafoos will get back into the Angel line-up before the series is over, but Moore probably won't play at all because his hand is still in a cast. Parker, who had his knee spiked in the first game and then hit by a line drive in the second contest, is limping around but may be able to play today. If Parker is out Statz will have to be moved in from the outfield to hold down third and either Bill Peters or Augie Walsh sent to the outfield. Peters played one inning at center in Sunday's second game but didn't have a chance.

The Stars set a terrific pace in their sixteen consecutive games with the Missions during the past two weeks and by winning twelve and losing four, pulled away from the Seals and Angels, who were cutting each other's throats by splitting even.

One bright spot of the past week for Hollywood was the pitching of Vance Page, who came up from the Piedmont League with Turner. Page relieved Hulvey last Tuesday and held the Reds safe while the Stars came from behind to win out. Sunday Vance gave the Missions only one earned run and chalked up a four-hit, 11-to-1 triumph.

The Seals are scheduled to meet the Missions in San Francisco this week and should pick up some ground on the leaders for the Reds, now occupying the cellar after their disastrous two weeks against Hollywood, are a set-up for about any club in the circuit.

Other series opening today bring together the Oaks and Portland Ducks at Oakland and the Seattle Indians and Solons clash at Sacramento.

OLYMPIC CLUB GAME TO DRAW BIG CROWD HERE

E. O. Barnett, athletic director of the Los Angeles Fire Department, announced yesterday that tickets for the Smoke-eater-Olympic Club football game which is scheduled for October 3, next, were already on the press and would be on hand before the week was out. Barnett avers that members of his department have been after him all week for ducats and he believes the game which is to be a sort of a civic affair, will be the biggest in the fire department's history.

Word has already been received here that the Olympic Club will have a crack aggregation on which will be several all-Americans. While it has not been definitely announced from the north, those in touch with the situation, state Jack Cannon, former Notre Dame ace, will play with the clubmen.

The firemen will not be without stars on their team, however. Besides the presence of Don Moses, former U.S.C. backfield star, Boots Beyers of De Paul and their own hard-plunging Les Grimes will be on deck when the game starts.

CAVALRY AFTER REVENGE IN POLO TILT THURSDAY

Seeking revenge for the defeat suffered last Sunday when they lost a 9-to-8 game to the Uplifters, the Eleventh Cavalry polo team from Monterey was preparing today to take the club players into camp Thursday, when they meet in the second game of the series at Rustic Canyon Field. The army officers, while offering no excuse for being beaten, did state that they believe their ponies will be in better shape Thursday. Maj. D. S. Wood, leader of the army team, stated that he would send the same line-up against the Uplifters in the second game.

This team, composed of Lieut. Jernigan, Lieut. Thornburgh, Maj. Wood and Capt. Falck, made quite a hit with the fans. In fact, many of the railbirds claimed the army team was more popular in defeat than the Uplifters were in victory.

The Uplifters are changing their team for Thursday's game. Dr. Harry Wilson will be the only player who took part in the game last Sunday to ride again. His teammates will be Charles Crawford, Dick Smith and John Brandeis. Wilson will captain the team. The popular medico poloist is one of the hardest playing low-goal backs in the game. He was a thorn in the side of the army team all throughout the game Sunday.

The game is open to the public and will be broadcast from the sidelines.

ENTRIES TO SET RECORD

Entries for the annual Los Angeles Athletic Club golf tournament continue to flow in to Charley Keppen at the downtown club. Keppen is well pleased with the entry list to date and believes that last year's record of 200 players will be surpassed for this month's event, which starts with the qualifying round the 19th inst. at the Riviera Country Club.

Among the latest entries are those of E. L. Barette, R. A. Hay, J. V. Dillman, Duffy Sesy, H. Alfred Woods, Lewis Rohr, Dr. George Brown, Dwight Smiley, Frank Smiley, R. F. Gibson, L. A. Henry, Howard Jones, Aubrey Devine, Sam Barry, Arnold Eddy, W. O. Hunter, Al Wesson, Leo Adams, Joe Peeler, Paul Grannis, A. J. McBride, W. W. Touchstone, Gene Kennedy, R. W. Brandel, Walter Elms, A. W. McCrea and T. W. McMurray.

Golfers of the L.A.A.C., Hollywood Athletic Club, Pacific Coast Club, Riviera Country Club, Santa Monica Athletic Club, Surf and Sand Club and Glen Arden Club are all eligible to participate in the big tournament.

ROOSEVELT OUTLOOK DARK

Coach DeGroot Gloomy Over Rough Rider Football Prospects; Schedule Easy

BY IRVING ECKHOFF

While Coach Clark DeGroot of the Roosevelt Rough Riders appeared to have reason for being gloomy as far as football prospects are concerned, one thing is certain, the Rough Riders have one of the easiest schedules in the league.

Meeting Jefferson in the first game on October 10, De Groot takes on Franklin and Belmont in the next two tussles. Then comes the week of October 31 when all twelve schools have byes. Garfield, Poly and Hollywood wind-up the list.

CLARK de GROOT

The two title favorites Manual Arts and L. A. High, are not on the Roosevelt schedule, while Fremont, Fairfax and Lincoln are also missing.

If De Groot should pilot the Rough Riders through an undefeated season would the Romans, if they also come through undefeated, hand the palm to Roosevelt? Not very likely. Which one would be the recognized champion? Take your pick.

For the past two years, the Rough Riders have won the Minor City football crown and tried on both occasions to land a play-off game with the major-league winners. Both times De Groot was turned down.

De Groot is rather blue about the prospects this season. Only three lettermen are back in uniform, all three of them being backfield men. The line will be composed of all new men, for the most part green material.

The trio of veteran ball packers are Capt. Tommy Payne, Herman Watts and Joe Ramona. Ramona and Payne are real veterans, this being their third year on the heavyweight team.

The sole bright spots on the line are Tommy Ryan, an end, and Gerald Stawisky, tackle. Ryan transferred from Manual Arts and Jim Blewett was sorry to see him leave, while Stawisky is a younger brother of the Poly star guard of the same name.

Jack Smith has an edge on the other end job at present, while Herman Rosenstein will in all probability play the opposite tackle from Stawisky.

Jack Egorov and Mark Klesura are the best of the guards, while Alex Atanasoff and Merris Redinsky have the jump on the other centers.

While DeGroot believes that his eleven is due for a bad year and that victories will be few and far between, he gives out the warning that next season the Rough Riders will be tougher than ever, as with two or three exceptions the entire team is scheduled to come back to school.

FREMONT ELEVEN TO BE WEAK THIS SEASON

With the toughest schedule in the history of the school staring him in the face Coach George Dirck of the Fremont Pathfinders is working overtime these pleasant afternoons drilling football plays into the heads of a group of green gridders.

With but four lettermen returning to school, besides the loss of a great number of last year's reserves, the Pathfinders will have a much weaker eleven this year than for the past two seasons.

Two tackles, Capt. Joe Dennis and Jim O'Doud, and two backfield men, Walter Clark and Gerald Spindler, are the quartet of emblem wearers back for duty.

While nothing definite is known about the eleven as yet, Dirck is certain that it will be much weaker than last season because of the lack of reserve strength.

Four substitute linesmen are back from last season's squad as well as two backfield men. The linesmen are Harry Hoop and Vance, guards, and Marleau and Olsen, centers. Peterson and Walsh are the ball-packers. Walsh is liable to play fullback this year, while Peterson is a halfback.

The Pathfinders tackle Garfield in the first league encounter, followed by Manual Arts and L. A. High in succession. Jefferson comes after the week of bye on October 31, with Lincoln and Fairfax winding up the season.

EDELSON TO HAVE TOUGH OUTFIT

There is little doubt in the minds of all prep fans that the Jefferson Democrats under their new coach, Harry Edelson, will be quite a lot tougher than last year.

Edelson, whose name is very familiar to all Southern California football followers, is working very hard with a squad of thirty-five and hopes to break into the win column more than once this year.

It wasn't very long ago that Harry himself was wearing a Jefferson uniform and for that reason he knows just what kind of material the Democrat institution gets. Edelson played backfield at Jefferson in 1925.

Five letter men are the nucleus of the 1930 Democrat machine, Laury Oliver, flashy quarterback, being the chief threat. The other veterans are Duvall, tackle; Resnik, guard; Kippell, guard, and Holloday, half.

Jefferson's schedule is not an extra hard one, meeting in order: Roosevelt, Hollywood, Poly, Fremont, Franklin and Belmont.

BOZEMAN TO FACE LAYTON TOMORROW

John Layton, world's champion at three-cushion billiards, and J. N. Bozeman, former national amateur champion and present holder of the Pacific Coast title, will play a 300-point match beginning tomorrow afternoon, at Clifford Jones billiard room. Since Bozeman so convincingly defeated Welker Cochran in three out of four matches during the past sixty days, he is conceded a good chance with the champion himself.

LEGION SIGNS TWO FEATURES

Hess-McDonald, Reister Lamar to Battle

Main events for the next two weeks will feature lightweights at the Hollywood American Legion Stadium. Goldie Hess and Hector McDonald are in the top spot this week and next week Bobby Reister will battle Johnny Lamar. The winner of each shot should be a natural match for the future and probably will come together later this month.

GOLDIE HESS

Another popular fighter is under contract to appear at the stadium in three weeks. A. Morro, heavyweight sensation managed by Jim Jeffries, will go into action two weeks from Friday night. His opponent will be picked in a few days.

After many postponements Goldie Hess and Hector McDonald will finally come together. The McDonald crowd accused Hess and his manager of trying to duck the fight.

The semi-wind-up is Sammy Santos fighting Don Burchard. They are lightweights. Santos should be favorite. Burchard has been seen at Hollywood before.

Other shots on the card are Sergio Radam, Filipino, and Jimmy Mack, bantams, in the special. The four-rounders will be Bob Patrick and Joe Flores in the second spot and Palo Mendoza and Julia Zuniga, bantamweights, in the curtain-raiser.

SOCCERITES HOLD CONFAB

An important annual meeting of the Los Angeles Soccer League will be held tomorrow night at the Los Angeles Athletic Club, the confab having been postponed from last week. Plans for the coming season will be announced, including the possibility of admitting new teams, securing another playing field and other business.

MARINES IN PISTOL TRIUMPH

National Team Honors Won by Sailor-Soldier Squad at Camp Perry

CAMP PERRY (O.) Sept. 8. (AP)—The United States Marines won the national team pistol championship today while Marine Sergeant H. M. Bailey of Waterboro, S. C., made the highest score for the national individual pistol championship.

The Marine team, consisting of a captain and five shooting members, finished with a 1304 out of a possible 1500. It was a good margin. Their nearest competitors were the United States Navy with 1271. The Seattle police were third with 1248; United States Army infantry fourth with 1221; United States Coast Guards, 1218, and the New York National Guard, 1210.

This was the fourth consecutive year that the Marines won, their 1929 score being 1286.

The members of this year's team are: Capt. J. Leinhard, Washington; Sergt. Melvin T. Huff, San Diego, Cal.; Sergt. Bailey, Lieut. W. J. Whaling, Washington; Lieut. R. T. Preunell, Washington, and Lieut. L. A. Horn, Washington.

Sergt. Bailey's score in the individual match was 262 out of a possible 300, shooting against a field of 549 of the best pistol shots in the country.

What was thought to be another world record was announced today by Col. Frank J. Schneller, of Neenah, Wis., whose team made 1948 out of a possible 2000 in the F.I.D.A.C. interallied match on the fifty-meter small-bore range yesterday afternoon. Eight foreign legion teams are competing in their home countries and the scores will be announced at Paris the 30th inst.

In the national individual rifle match to be fired tomorrow and Wednesday 1659 have entered, the largest number in any match this year. Competition is expected to be keen.

WARNING SOUNDED TO WOMEN GOLFERS

Sounding a warning to women golfers, who intend to play in the national amateur championship here October 13-18, Mrs. Ann Trabue, chairman of the women's committee of the U.S.G.A., in charge of local arrangements, announced yesterday that unless their entries are in before the 27th inst. they will not be permitted to compete. Mrs. Trabue said the entries must be sent to Miss Madge Miller, secretary of the women's committee at Bloomfield Hills, Mich., and not to the Los Angeles headquarters.

With Glenna Collett slated to defend her title, other stars who challenge her supremacy include Helen Hicks and Maureen Orcutt, both of New York, and Mrs. Dorothy Campbell Hurd of Philadelphia, three-times champion.

MIDGE GLADMAN TO PLAY HERE

Local Court Star Enters Annual Tournament

Miss Midge Gladman, eastern grass-court champion, returned home yesterday to personally hand in her entry for the Pacific Southwest tennis championships, at the Los Angeles Tennis Club, the 19th the 28th inst., inclusive. The Santa Monica girl is ranked ninth nationally, and No. 1 in Southern California where she started this year's long string of successes which carried her east, and into fast company.

MIDGE GLADMAN

With victories over Miss Edith Cross, Mary Greef and Dorothy Weisel, Miss Gladman reached the peak of her eastern invasion by defeating Baroness Levy in the finals at Rye, thus joining the exclusive ranks of those who hold major tournament titles this season. Mrs. Anne McCune Harper and Miss Marjorie Morrill are the only other American women to belong to this exclusive net circle. The Southern California girl's win at Rye becomes of great importance, and will be counted upon, heavily, when the national rankings are doled out for 1930.

For the past two years, Midge has circulated among the first ten and net critics believe she will be moved up again this year.

BRUIN HALFBACK LAID UP WITH BAD ELBOW

Harold Guttormsen, 170-pound halfback at U.C.L.A., is on the injured list with a bad elbow, and may be forced to postpone starting football practice from next Monday, the opening date, to a later time. Guttormsen has had trouble with his elbow for the past week because of trouble with the lubricant at that joint, and the member is swollen to twice its size.

Guttormsen transferred last fall from the University of Washington, where he played freshman football in 1927 until forced out with a broken arm. His brother George was a star halfback and captain at the Husky school a number of years ago.

HEENEY WHIPS PANKA

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 8. (AP)—Tom Heeney, New Zealand heavyweight, won a ten-round decision here tonight over George Panka, of Homestead, Pa. The referee rendered the verdict after the judges disagreed following a fight that was full of action.

Salesmen, Solicitors —10-B

THIS ADVERTISEMENT IS ADDRESSED TO THE THOUSANDS OF SINCERE SALESMEN AND SALESWOMEN IN SOUTHERN CALIFORNIA WHOM, WE KNOW, WILL WELCOME THIS

NEWS

We know from nearly a quarter of a century's experience that salespeople of the better class are constantly alert to opportunities to improve themselves and their positions, and on the lookout for new things that the public wants and is buying, and that even non-salespeople eager to enter the realm of selling under the proper auspices and with something to sell that will bring happiness to its buyers, will welcome this advertisement.

We are building a very large selling organization and we cannot possibly give our time to individual explanations; that is why we want you to know something NOW about what we have to offer. We have created through the Clark Plan Corporation, Ltd., the CLARK PLAN TRUST, a dual-controlled trust—administered by a personnel beyond reproach, and supervised by a board of trustees of high integrity and purpose.

We have made it available to everyone through a subscription plan of as little as $10 down and $10 a month, without interest on the deferred payments. The plan is the result of nearly two years of work and study, and it eliminates every objectionable feature of every trust arrangement with which we are familiar.

The contingencies that arise in the average man's family are provided for, and the subscriber is entitled to 6% cumulative interest annually, PLUS 80% of the net profits above that, before the management group can be compensated for its skill, diligence and intelligence in handling the funds of the trust.

Every practical protection has been thrown around the Clark Plan to the end that it be as nearly flawless as possible.

Behind your selling activity, should you join us, will be a vigorous, well-directed advertising campaign larger than anything of its kind ever projected in Southern California. We have 11 offices, all equipped, ready to start functioning. Leads? There will be plenty of them! Instruction? Under Major Lansdowne, one of the best-versed trust experts in Southern California, and a sales counsellor of wide and excellent repute.

While we are interested in securing experienced salespeople, some of the best in our organization in the past have been developed by us from raw material. If we think you can make good, we will train you quickly. And we know that if you become identified with this big, fine organization that you will be mighty proud of your connection and you will find it very profitable if you live up to its ideals and standards.

COME IN TUESDAY MORNING AT 9:30, IN TIME TO HEAR MAJOR LANSDOWNE TELL YOU MORE OF OUR STORY. YOU WILL HEAR IT TOLD AS IT IS, WITHOUT FICTION OR FANCY. Then you can determine whether you want to become a member of our family.

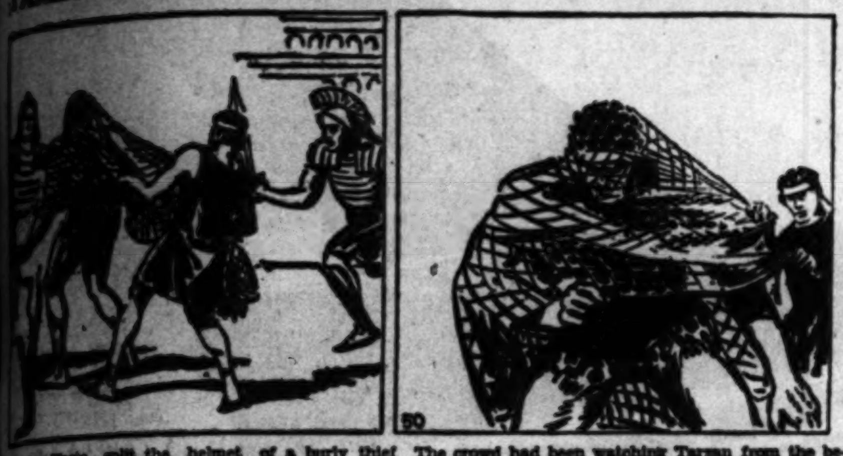
TARZAN AND THE LOST EMPIRE

By Edgar Rice Burroughs



Hasta split the helmet of a burly thief who opposed him, and as he turned to look for a new opponent, he saw a white net cast over Tarzan's head and shoulders from the rear, while the ape-man was engaged with the professional gladiator. Hasta hurled himself with flashing sword to Tarzan's defense.

The crowd had been watching Tarzan from the beginning of the event, because of the fame he had won day after day in the arena. They cheered when the first cast of his pike had killed his opponent, but now they howled derision when they saw him entangled in the net, apparently helpless. They wanted blood.

The man who had cast the net now leaped forward to stab the ape-man with his dagger. Tarzan desperately tore at the netting and it ripped asunder as if it had been made of paper. But the fellow was upon him at the same instant. The dagger hand fell as Tarzan seized the dagger wrist. But blood ran from a wound over Tarzan's heart.

Now steel fingers closed on the wrist of the man with the dagger until he cried out as he felt his bones being crushed together. The ape-man drew his antagonist toward him and seized him by the throat and shook him as a terrier shakes a rat, while the air trembled to the delighted screams of the mob.

BULLYING LAID TO CAPT. JONES

Northcott Victim's Mother Accuses Policeman

Treatment as Psychopathic Patient Testified

Mrs. Christine Collins Asks for $35,000 Damages

Charging in a damage suit for $35,000 that her refusal to accept an impostor as her missing son brought her arrest and incarceration in the psychopathic ward of General Hospital, Mrs. Christine Collins appeared yesterday in Superior Judge Hahn's court. Her action was brought against Police Captain J. J. Jones.

The plaintiff is the mother of Walter Collins, one of the boys asserted to have been murdered by Stewart Gordon Northcott on a Wineville chicken farm. Northcott now is under death sentence.

Mrs. Collins said on the witness stand yesterday that after the disappearance of her son, Arthur Hutchins, Jr., announced that he was the missing youth. She said that a police circular description of the youth tallied in some respects with her son, but that when she saw the boy she refused to accept him.

For this refusal, Mrs. Collins asserts in her suit, Capt. Jones bullied her and had her sent to the psychopathic ward of the hospital. Later the Hutchins boy admitted the hoax.

The court session yesterday was marked by sharp clashes between opposing attorneys and the amount of testimony given was small.

"Capt. Jones accused me of shirking my responsibility as a mother in refusing to acknowledge the Hutchins boy as my son," Mrs. Collins testified. "He told me I was the most cruel-hearted woman he'd ever known." She told the jury of eight men and four women that she knew the Hutchins lad was an impostor when she first saw him, and never identified him to the police as her son.

Attorneys engaged in the trial estimated that the testimony will be completed by Thursday. The trial yesterday afternoon was adjourned until tomorrow morning.

ENDURANCE PLANE WILL BROADCAST

Radio License Assigned Mendell-Reinhart Ship in Thousand-Hour Flight

Radio call letters of the Spirit of Hollywood—the "flying home" which Loren Mendell and Pete Reinhart hope to keep aloft over Los Angeles for a new air endurance record of 1000 hours—will be KHNBQ, they were informed yesterday by the Federal Radio Commission.

The commission issued them a permit to broadcast from the special soundproof room built into the fuselage of their monoplane on a wave length of 126.6 meters or 2368 kilocycles.

The local pair, former air endurance champions, announced their take-off for 4 p.m. next Sunday from Grand Central Air Terminal.

Four broadcasts will be made daily from the endurance ship and rebroadcast over Radio KGPJ. R. V. (Doc) Howard will be aboard as radio operator.

Court Rejects Meadows's Plea

An appeal to the State Supreme Court is the only recourse left to George R. (Rush) Meadows in his fight to escape a prison term for grand larceny as a result of an adverse decision yesterday by Division One, District Court of Appeal, in Meadows's plea for a rehearing by the Appellate Court. Meadows was convicted on eleven counts of grand theft for obtaining approximately $40,000 from the family of John R. Osborne, cemetery promoter, to obtain Osborne's release from Leavenworth prison.

COUNCIL DELAYS HEARING

The hearing of protests against the improvement of the Greenfield-avenue and Brookhaven-avenue district was continued by the City Council yesterday until March 11, 1931.

JURY TO TRY M'CABE SELECTED

Six Men and Six Women will Decide Fate to be Meted in Murder Case

A jury of six men and six women yesterday was chosen in Superior Judge McComb's court to try Wilbur McCabe, alias Jerry O'Regan, for the murder of Henry P. Miller, night clerk at the University Club.

McCabe is charged with firing three shots into Miller's body and wounding him fatally on the night of June 15, last, in an attempted hold-up and robbery.

A week ago McCabe obtained permission to alter his plea from not guilty to not guilty by reason of insanity. For this reason insanity is expected to be the basis of the defense. He is represented by Richard F. Bird, public defender.

Bonner Richardson, Deputy District Attorney, is to prosecute the case.

"Times" Reel Shows Landing of Sea Flyers

The arrival of Coste and Bellonte at Curtiss Flying Field, New York, after achieving the first nonstop east-to-west flight across the Atlantic, the tumultuous greeting of the 15,000 persons assembled on the field, the official reception on the steps of the City Hall in Manhattan, and the impressive ceremony enacted as Mayor Walker pinned medals for valor on the coats of the French pilots, are shown in The Times-Universal newsreel in all Southern California theaters this week.

Graham McNamee, talking reporter, gives a graphic description of the incidents of the epochal flight.

Anyone desiring additional information concerning the current showing can obtain it by calling Newsreel Book at REpublic 3171, and asking about newsreel No. 72.

Knife Slaying of Wife Charged to Jealous Mate

The green-eyed goddess jealousy yesterday was the principal accusing witness against Miguel Garcia, 44 years of age, of Guasti, when A. B. Nathanson, deputy District Attorney, filed a murder complaint against the man charging him with killing his wife on the 5th inst.

Investigating officers charge that Garcia followed his wife, Josepha Garcia, 36, to 812 Stanford avenue, and there stabbed her twenty-two times and carved a piece of flesh in the form of a heart from her back because she refused to yield to a reconciliation proposal. Garcia was held responsible for the death of his wife by a Coroner's jury yesterday.

Mrs. McPherson said to Suffer Slight Relapse

SANTA MONICA, Sept. 9. (Exclusive)—Aimee Semple McPherson, the evangelist, was reported tonight by her physician, Dr. Edward Williams, to have suffered a slight relapse. He attributed it to the excitement of a communion service held at her bedside yesterday in the mountain retreat where she is convalescing. In consequence Dr. Williams ordered that a second nurse be assigned to attend the ill evangelist.

Yellow Auto Theft Proof

As a protection against auto thieves, Wallace Smith, Hollywood scenarist, recommends a coat of bright yellow paint. Three times Smith's roadster, resplendent in a hue of brilliant ocher, has been stolen and within a few hours recovered by policemen who recognized its unique decorative features.

Yesterday Policeman Davies of Hollywood observed the car being driven by a Negro girl and a male companion. He arrested them and returned the car to Smith ten minutes after its loss was discovered by him. The prisoners gave their names as Georgina Wasson and Patrick Williams.

WATER BOND BIDS SOUGHT

Advertisement of Tenders for $5,000,000 Block to Purchase Owens Valley Lands Authorized

Actual payment in cash by the city of Los Angeles of several millions of dollars for Owens Valley water land within the near future was assured yesterday by action of the City Council.

Acting on the recommendation of the Board of Water and Power Commissioners the Council yesterday authorized advertising for bids for $5,000,000 in water bonds. This block of bonds, the first offered of the $38,800,000 issued voted on May 20, last, by the people of Los Angeles, will be sold on a competitive bidding basis to local and eastern bond concerns.

TO RUSH TRANSACTION

In order to hasten the sale of the water bonds it is expected that the Council will receive bids and award the bonds to the successful bidder within about eight days.

Proceeds from the $5,000,000 block will be used first of all, to take up all of the land options now held by the Board of Water and Power Commissioners on Owens Valley ranches, it was said yesterday by Commissioner Johnson. Every effort will be made to consummate these land purchases by the actual payment of cash by the city as soon as the money is made physically available.

LAND PURCHASE FIRST

Purchase by the city of all ranch land remaining in private ownership in Owens Valley will be the first step taken by the Water and Power Commission to carry out the program of water development recommended by Mayor Porter and approved by a nine-to-one vote last May.

At the same time, the Water and Power Commission stated, every effort is being made to obtain a final decision by the State Supreme Court on the suit which will determine the legal right of the city to purchase properties in the five Owens Valley towns. Immediately upon approval of these purchases by the Supreme Court the commission will launch such a purchase program, it was stated. This phase of the water-development program, in itself, calls for the investment of more than $5,000,000, it was pointed out.

AIR LEADER DUE TOMORROW

Southland Aviation Chiefs to Greet Senator Bingham at Samoan Commission Dinner

Southland aviation leaders will greet Senator Hiram Bingham of Connecticut, president of the National Aeronautics Association and head of the Samoan Legislative Commission, at a dinner to be tendered the Samoan Commission tomorrow night by the Chamber of Commerce in its banquet hall.

Senator Bingham and other members of the commission, including Senator Robinson of Arkansas, Representatives Carroll Beedy and Quinn Williams, and Capt. William R. Furlong, United States Navy, will arrive in Los Angeles tomorrow afternoon via the Santa Fe. They will be met by Col. Charles Cook of the Chamber of Commerce, D. E. McDanield, secretary of the National Aeronautics' Association; Robert Pritchard, governor of N.A.A. for Southern California, and Assemblyman-Elect William Bonelli, representing the aviation committee of the Chamber of Commerce.

The commission, which has been appointed by President Hoover to draft new legislation for government of American Samoa, will sail for Pago Pago Thursday afternoon aboard the light cruiser Omaha, flagship of the battle fleet destroyer squadrons. The Omaha, commanded by Capt. John Downes, will stop at Honolulu en route to pick up Albert F. Judd, who will serve as legal adviser of the commission, and arrive in Samoa on the 26th inst. After a survey of the seven islands of American Samoa and interviews with native leaders relative to legislative needs, the commission will depart Pago Pago October 8, returning to San Francisco via Honolulu.

Driver Dies as Car Overturns

Anastacio De Larofa, 35 years of age, 3666 Midvale avenue, was killed almost instantly last night by the overturning of his automobile at Overland and Braddock streets, Culver City. The accident occurred as he attempted to negotiate the turn at excessive speed. The body is at the Norse undertaking parlors, Culver City.

CHINESE QUIZZED AS KILLER

Border Idler Questioned on Ensenada Slayings; Police Doubt He Was at Scene

Actions of a dope-crazed Chinese in San Diego County Hospital yesterday, including an attempt to strike a nurse and going through gestures of knifing persons on the ground, caused San Diego authorities to question the man in an effort to establish whether he is connected with the knife murder on Ensenada Beach of Francis Conlon and Lois Kentle, local engaged couple.

The Chinese was identified as Quong Tam, alias Ong Sing, 21 years of age, a Mexican border idler. He was arrested last Saturday night at Tia Juana by immigration officials and taken to the San Diego County Hospital psychopathic ward.

It was during his confinement that he struck out at imaginary forms in a manner that aroused suspicions of hospital attendants that he may have committed the brutal slaying.

Under questioning of Detective Sergeant J. L. Berg of San Diego police, Tam was unable to give a coherent story of his actions below the Mexican border. Berg was of the opinion, however, that the Chinese was not at Ensenada on August 25, the day the local pair were hacked to death while camping on the beach.
